TIP.

[Original.]

"Can you find my dog?" said an old lady to the man at the desk at a police station. She was a diminutive woman with a pale face and grizzled gray wavy hair pulled down in an old fashioned way over her temples.

"Your dog, madam?"
"Yes. He's been missing for weeks.
I'm sure he's been stolen, for he wouldn't have left me willingly for the world. He's a Scotch terrier, and his name is Tip. He loves me better than any one, and somehow I can't get along without him."

"When did you miss him, madam?"
"It's three weeks ago last Wednesday. I saw a strange man call to him and pet him. I thought the man had taken a fancy to him—he's such a beauty—but didn't suppose he would steal him. Poor little Tip!"

The last words were spoken with as much tenderness as if Tip had been a kidnaped child.

"Is that all? Were there no other suspicious circumstances connected with your dog's disappearance?"

"Nothing connected with the dog, but something happened that night.
Burglars entered the house and took the few spoons I had left of my grandfather's silver."

"Have you recovered them?"
"No, but I wouldn't mind that so much if I had Tip, though I'm very poor. I'm afraid they're not treating him well, and I'm lonesome without him."

"H'm! The man who petted him took him to deprive you of the alarm the dog would give when the house was entered. Burglars won't enter a house without first getting rid of the dog if there is one."

"Do you think so? I supposed he admired him. Everybody admires Tip.

She drew a photograph from her reticule and handed it to the officer, who inspected it, muttering to himself,
"Ugly enough to be a prize fighter." Then to the lady, "I fancy they may not have killed your dog, madam—"

"Heaven forbid!" she interrupted, raising her hands and her eyes.

"They would more likely try to sell him since they could easily get a big price for him. I'm afraid we can't do anything for you, madam. If your dog hadn't been stolen to enable the thief or thieves to rob your house, I should advise you to advertise a reward for his return, stating that no questions would be asked. But, you see, if they got away with your spoons they wouldn't risk trying to get a reward for the dog. They're not quite such big fools as that. No, ma'am; we can't find your dog for you, but if you choose to leave your address if anything turns up we'll let you know."

The old lady went away sorrowful.
A week passed when one morning a policeman called upon her and said the chief would like to see her at the station. She went there and saw the same man behind the desk as before.

"I have word," he said, "that a suspicious character is loitering about Arlington, fifty miles up the railroad.
He's got a dog with him which he's trying to sell. I've phoned them to arrest him and hold him till we can discover if the dog's yours."

"I'll go right away and see," cried the old lady excitedly.

"There's no occasion for that," said the man at the desk. "Just wait a moment."

He took up a telephone receiver, called the police station at Arlington and asked to have the dog brought to the phone. When it was announced the dog was there, the chief talked in the receiver: "Hello, doggy! Doggy want a bone? Hello, Tip, Tip, Tip! Then he asked how the dog had taken his call. The reply came that the only recognition he showed was a slight pricking up his ears at the name Tip."

"Now, madam," said the chief, "you talk to him."

"Tip! Is that you, Tip? Did the naughty man take my little doggie away from me?"

For reply there came a series of joyful barks.

"Let up," came a policeman's voice,
"or the dog'll break the machine."

The chief ordered the dog sent down, and the same afternoon he was in his mistress' arms—that is, so long as she could keep him there, for he jumped down and up and circled about, barking, while the old lady sat with joyful tears streaming down her cheeks.

It was a few days after this that the lady received a note from the president of the 4th National bank stating that if she could find it convenient to call at the bank he would be pleased to see her. He added an invitation for her to bring her dog. She sent a reply that the dog was not for sale. That afternoon the president called on the lady.

"There's no use," she said, "for you to try to buy Tip. I wouldn't part with him for all the money in your bank."

"Nor would I deprive you of him for twice that amount. I have called to tell you that Tip has been the means of our recovering $100,000 worth of stolen securities. When you called to him over the phone, the man who had him was about to be released. He was held for further investigation and turned out to be one of a gang that robbed our bank six months ago. Here are your spoons, and here is the reward offered for the information leading to the recovery of our bonds. I give it to you in trust for Tip as long as he lives, though you are to spend the income and have the principal at his death."

Tip and his mistress are living in luxure. MABEL D. HENDRICK

BAD STOMACH TROUBLE CURED.

Having been sick for the past two years with a bad stomach trouble, a friend gave me a dose of Chamberlains Stomach and Liver Tablets. They did me so much good that I bought a bottle of them and have used twelve bottles in all. Today I am well of a bad stomach trouble.—Mrs. John Lowe, Cooper, Maine. These tablets are for sale by all druggists.

lung irritation. Children like it. Sold

KEEPING OPEN HOUSE.

Everybody is welcome when we feel good; and we feel that way only when our digestive organs are working properly. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the action of the stomach, liver and bowels so perfectly one can't help feeling good when he uses these pills.

NEGLECTED COLDS

THREATEN LIFE.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

"Don't trifle with a cold," is good advice for prudent men and women.
It may be vital in the case of a child.
Proper food, good ventilation, and dry warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the ordinary light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well established ripe cold is to the germs of diphtheria what honey is to the bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is the neglected cold." Whether it is a child or adult, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure.
The great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given. For sale by all druggists.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REM- EDY A FAVORITE.

"We prefer Chamberlains Cough Remedy to any other for our children," says Mr. L. J. Woodbury of Twining, Mich. "It has also done the work for us in hard colds and croup, and we take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all druggists.

theatre by next fall.

Everything taken into the stomach should be digested fully within a certain time. When you feel that your stomach is not in good order, that the food you have eaten is not being digested, take a good, natural digestant that will do the work the digestive juices are not doing. The best remedy known today for all stomach troubles is Kodol, which is guaranteed to give prompt relief. It is a natural digest-ant; it digests what you eat, it is pleasant to take and is sold here by Stayton Pharmacy.

At times when you don't feel just right, when you have a bad stomach, take something right away that will assist digestion; not something that will stimulate for a time but something that will positively do the very work that the stomach performs under ordinary and normal conditions, something that will make the food digest. To do this you must take a natural digestant like Kodol for Dyspepsia. Kodol is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids with natural digestants and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. Each dose will digest more than 3,000 grains of good food. It is sure to afford prompt relief; it digests what you eat and is pleasant to take. Sold by Stayton Pharmacy.

healing salve I ever found." Heals burns, sores, ulcers, fever sores, eczema piles. 25c at Brewer Drug Co's drug store.

Sheridan has an orchestra of which it is proud.

Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken four doses of your Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are sold by Stayton Pharmacy.

come famous for fruit.

FOR RHEUMATIC SUFFERERS.

The quick relief from pain afforded rheumatism, sciatica, lame back, lumbago, and deep seated and muscular

Most of the dogs in Seaside have the grip, and not a doctor among 'em.

WHAT TO DO WHEN BILIOUS.

The right thing to do when you feel bilious is to take a dose of Chamberlains Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will cleanse the stomach and regulate the liver and bowels. Try it. Price,

Frost Bitten Combs.

A good remedy for frost bitten comb is timely, as the season is approaching when we must expect this trouble, says George Grosel of Akron, O. I have found it very useful in my experience in raising single comb varieties, and no doubt it will be very much appreciated by some of your readers—two drams glycerin, 1 dram oil peppermint.

NEIGHBORHOOD FAVORITE.

Mrs. E. D. Charles, of Harbor, Maine, speaking of Electric Bitters, says: "It is a neighborhood favorite here with us." It deserves to be favorite everywhere. It gives quick relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney derangement, malnutrition, nervousness, weakness and general debility. Its action on the blood as a thorough purifier makes it especially useful as a spring medicine. This grand alterative tonic is sold under guarantee at Brewer Drug Co's store. 50c.

The Onion in Cooking.

The greatest of French cooks, being asked to give the secret of his success, answered: "The very foundation of all good cooking is butter and onion! I use them in all my sauces and gravies.
They have the effect of making a customer come back for more. Butter without onion will drive the customer away after a few days. Boll the onion till it melts or entirely disappears; then add the butter and call the mixture stock."—Exchange.

THE JUMPING OFF PLACE.

"Consumption had me in its grasp; and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was advised to try Dr. King's new discovery; and I want to say right now, it saved my life. Improvements began with the first bottle, and after taking one dozen bottles I was a well and happy man again," says George Moore, of Grimesland, N.
C. As a remedy for coughs and colds and a healer of weak, sore lungs and for preventing pneumonia New Discovery is supreme. 50c and $1.00 at Brewer Drug Co. Trial bottle free.
