"Ganderbone's" Forecasts.

The ideo of March will come again, When Caesar's blood was let;
The foes of Bryan will hide out Behind the parapet;
And when he sees them lurking there, He'll guess their fell intent And run just like his friends all hope He'll run for President.

The candidates Republican will pass the stand again, and the poorly form of Mr. Taft will show a handsome gain; the whiskerlets of Mr. Hughes will float upon the breeze, the fleet that sailed Magellan's Straits will cruise the western seas; the infant bogm of Cortelyou will grimly yield the ghost, and the fleet will run the banquets on the other Latin coast.

Another lot of foreign counts, and busted sports and old, will come across to marry more of our dead easy gold; a count will marry a million cool, and a discount two or three, and gold and girl (and horse laugh loud) they'll all put out to sea; and while the Goulds give Boni one—just one—more chance, alack, we'll all steal off and kick ourselves quite low down on the back.
The country papers will get used To Uncle Sam's mandate

That they may not hold readers who Are not paid up to date;
But the Government will not assist At squaring things, somehow, With old subscribers made so mad They never will pay now.

March was the first month of the Roman year, and was named from Mars, the god of war. Mars looked like a twin brother to Richard P. Hobson, and he was the regular Roman delegate to the Peace Conference at The Hague. He was supposed to be the father of Romulus, the founder of Rome, but he was not; he was only the young man's godfather. In ancient warfare it was customary to place a good bronze bust of Mars on the field and then fight for it.

The comedy of life will be about what it has been—the men will labor day and night, and the wives of men will spin. They'll have a club for every day, and never cease to go; they'll learn to talk of many themes their husbands do not know; they'll hear a lecturer from Greece, another on Japan, another on the Renaissance, and several on man; they'll hire a lot of long-haired freaks to make them erudite, they'll work on papers every morn, and look up things at night; and their husbands will get supper cold and suffer ridicule —and the children will grow up like wolves, while Mamma goes to school.

The money indiscreetly loaned Will faithfully keep Lent, And a lady leacher will sit on The pin when it is bent; But when the principal responds To screams heard thru the house, She'll not tell him what happened, but Will say she saw a mouse.

Until the 21st, March will be under the influence of the zodiacal sign known as Pisces, the Fish. Pisces will induce his relative, Stuyvesant Fish, to take the Illinois Central fight into the U. S. Supreme Court, where E. H.
Harriman will be ditched with two bum lamps, a derailed back-bone, and a swift kick in the caboose.

After the 21st, March will be under the influence of Aries, the sign of the Head. Under this sign, old heads will come to the front in the presidential race, and Uncle Joe Cannon will come out of last place and make the President put two more burrs in the spacious bosom of Mr. Taft's pants.

Persons born under Pisces drink like a fish and vote wet. They make excellent subordinates, like Friday and Loeb. They can say no, and it is futile to expose them to any more life insurance, for they wont take it. They are very cautious, and always take seats near the fire escape.

Persons born under Aries always think before speaking, and then never say anything. They are good organizers and generally belong to the Anti-Saloon League. They make good lawyers, and generally get the case continued until they can elect the prosecuting attorney.

The Vernal Equinox will come,
And the Irish will parade;
The booming bullfrog will resume His music in the glade.
The mole will burrow in the lawn,
And the rash duck hunter toot His caller while pneumonia drills A leak-hole in his boot.
And then the gentle spring will come and the poet will essay, with swelling breast and bliss his bum and Muse-attended lay; the rooster will announce the dawn, and the hen will scratch the dirt, and everybody will put on a thinner undershirt. The sas-sifras will brew again to tone the system rank, and the washout will upset the train and throw it down the bank; the gander and the goose will moult, the meadow will be wet, and the spring-intoxicated colt will turn a summer-set. The house will be cleaned up again, the robins come in droves, and the husband will eat bread and cheese behind the kitchen stove. The young man's heart will beat for love, and the widow in her weeds will find a man and seize him where Estella wore the beads.

And then sweet April will return,
And John D. get in line And pay his month's installment on That thirty million fine.

DO NOT CROWD THE SEASON.

The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilarating air and sunshine.
Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in midwinter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used.
It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it. For sale by all druggists.

It is said that the lion and the lamb lay down together because the lamb was too blamed scared to stand up.

This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol for Dyspepsia: "E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Dear Sirs—I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust oorn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25lb; in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and I was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity will be benefitted. Yours very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904." Sold by Stayton Pharmacy.

Some people think they have religion when, in fact, all they have is a long face and a grouch.

NO USE TO DIE.

"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. Kings New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushboro, Pa.
"I would not be alive today only for that wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cough quicker than tanthing else, and cures lung disease even after the case is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, lagrippe, asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness, is sold and guaranteed at Brewers drug store. 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free.

Only a foolish legislature would try to smash the rubber and egg trusts.

RHEUMATIC PAINS RELIEVED.

B. F. Crocker, Esq., now 84 years of age, and for twenty years Justice of the Peace at Martinsburg, Iowa, says:
"I am terribly afflicted with sciatic rheumatism in my left arm and right hip. I have used three bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it did me lots of good." For sale by all druggists.

GOOD FOR EVERYBODY.

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect, in the Delbert Bldg., San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and build up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggists counter; as a blood purifier it is unequaled. 50c at Brewers drug store.

A mean country editor describes Christmas as the grand swap.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY IS BOTH AGREEABLE AND EFFECTIVE.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Pelham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is, especially successful in cases of croup.
Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other." For sale by all druggists.

Some men are worked to death trying to dodge honest employment.
