The Oregonian, Portland, Oregon, "An audience of more than twelve hundred people greeted Williams' Dixie Jubilee Singers at the White Temple Saturday evening and from the great applause, everyone was delighted." E. R. Christman, Chairman Committee, University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho, "Williams' Dixie Jubilee Singers appeared at the University Auditorium last night and charmed the audience by their beautiful melody." Come out and hear them.

A SAD ACCIDENT.

The people of Stayton were shocked Saturday afternoon by the news that J. M. Ringo, the popular funeral director and embalmer, of Stayton, had met with the loss of an eye.

He was splitting kindling at his place of business, when a stick flew, striking his left eye and penetrating the eyeball. He went to the Stayton Pharmacy and a physician was called who dressed the injury, and he was at once taken to a hospital in Salem. The following day the eye was removed, since which time he has been doing nicely.

Mr. Ringo has been a resident of Stayton but a few months, but during that time has made many friends who all deeply sympathize with him in his misfortune.
