"Ganderbone's" Forecasts.

(Copyright 1907 by C. H. Rieth.)

The pass-word for the month will be, "What's the score?" Book installments will be paid on the 1st. Gas meters will run slower, and presidential candidates will run faster. Pride, which has been going before a fall, will go behind a go-cart. Strawberry measure will be:

Twelve quarts make a crate,
One pint makes a quart, Top berries make a sale, Nobody makes a kick.

Mr. Taft will appear at Chicago, and engage quarters in the garage for one 40-horse power elephant, and one 90-horse power Teddy Bear. Mr. Bryan will start for Denver in a 1-mule power rabout. Congress will adjourn about the 16th, and the members will go home and explain.

The watchful tab-by-cat will get The helpless little flicker, And the prohibitionists will set A few more traps for liquor.

The sun will rise at 6 o'clock and go to bed at 7; and the sweet June bride will contemplate the near approach of Heaven. The breath of May will bring the fern, the rose and buttercup, and the farmer's wife will milk and churn before the men get up. The boys will skin the slippery-elm with Jimmie's barlow-knife, and the ice-man will be out to skin the innocent housewife.
The frog will sound a richer bass from rivers and ravines, and man will tone his system up with sassafras and greens.

And then the city boarder will Begin to correspond With some bucolic country place Of which his wife is fond.
The host will promise country fare,
That most revered of boons,
And place his order up at town For seven tons of prunes.

The graduate will chose a theme for his great June oration, and plan to tell us what is good for this neglected nation; the music school will graduate Ophelia and Viola, and when they both come home they'll buy themselves a pianola.

The thrasher will descant at eve

Upon the passing day,
The festive colt will fill his tum With prophylactic hay;
The chicken-hawk will pounce upon The fat buff cochon fries, And the horse will whirl his tail-piece at The all-tarnation flies.

The Saxons called the month Tri-Milki, because at this season the dairyman makes his milk of three parts—one part milk, one part water, and one part formaldehyde.

May is from the Latin Maius, just as June takes its name from Juniores, the Juniors. That is, this is a month when old heads are at their best, and young men like Bill Taft and Ted Roosevelt will have to look out for old tops like Uncle Joe Cannon and Uncle John Rockefeller. About the 25th, nobody much will care to bet that Uncle Joe will not be nominated for president, or that Uncle John will pay that thirty million dollar fine.

May is a bad month to wed in, Because, we are told, it is said in Such cases the stork, as a custom, begins
The young husband's troubles, O, horrors, with twins.

After the 23d, May will be under the influence of Gemini, the sign of the arms. Boys born in Gemini will want to bear arms. They will be soldiers, and work for the government at $13 a month.

Gemini people are restless. They move all the time, and you always have to ask them where they are living now. They have brilliant imaginations, and think Bryan will have a walk-over. They are foolish, and think Taft won't get the colored vote.
They are brutally honest, and generally tell the young mother that her baby is ugly.

And then John D. will get in line.
With sudry growls and hollers, And pay his June installment on That thirty million dollars.

The Anti-Spitting Crusade.

Everybody should help stop the public spitting habit, by sending a two-cent stamp today for our attractive, unique hanger card which warns against spitting nuisances. People will take notice of this card and once seen, never forgotten.

"JAYHAWKERS OF '49."

The Death Valley Magazine, which is publishing the life of Death Valley Scotty, will begin the story of the "Jayhawkers of '49" in its May number. The "Jayhawkers" discovered and gave Death Valley its name. The story will be written by John B. Colton, one of the survivors, who is now 75 years of age. He was the youngest member of the party, being 16 years old at the time.

April 5, 1849, the party, consisting of 36 members, organized at Galesburg, Ills., under the name of "Jayhawkers," and started to the gold fields of California. They were on foot the last 52 days of the trip, having abandoned their wagons and butchered their oxen for food.

There are four survivors, one a woman aged 94 years, who carried a child upon her back and kept in line while strong men fell dead or went insane upon the trail.

All of the story will be told for the first time, the humorous as well as the pathetic. Publishers have sought it for 50 years, but the survivors have now deemed it fit and proper to give it to the Death Valley Magazine.

No pioneer or lover of American history can afford to miss it.

The subscription price of the magazine is $1 a year. Every issue contains stories and pictures of the desert worth the price.

The publishers are also giving five shares of stock in the Death Valley Quartz and Placer Mining Company as a premium. The stock is of the par value of $1 per share.

ticulars.

M. E. CHURCH SERVICES

Services at M. E. church, Sunday, May 10th: 8. S. 10 a. m.; Epworth League at 6:30 p. m.; Preaching at 7:30, theme, "The Flood Tide of Power." You are cordially invited to be present.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

No preventing providence there will be preaching next Sunday morning and evening. Sunday School and Young People's Meeting at usual hours. Arrangements have been completed by which I am to preach at Scio the first and third Sundays of the month, and the second and fourth in Stayton. A. H. CARMAN.

Gov. Chamberlain grows in strength daily as a candidate for the U. S. Senate. The fact that Oregon has little influence in Washington at present and that the Governor could do more for the state than any other man that could be sent there, is taking a firm hold on the minds of the people.
Every man in Oregon, regardless of party, has faith in the honesty of Gov.
Chamberlain, and when it is considered that the state badly needs a strong man at the National Capitol, and that Gov. Chamberlain has by far the most strength of any, the probability of his election is apparent. Past legislators from Oregon—Mitchell, Herman, Williamson, and others—have given our state an unenviable reputation at the seat of government. Gov. Chamberlain is well known and has the confidence of the administration and will be in a position to do great good for Oregon while another man will be getting acquainted.

Rev. A. J. Whiddon, of Montesano, Wash., will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning and evening.
Morning subject: "The Profit of God-liness in this Life." Evening subject:
"The Great Question and its Answer." Everybody invited.

Two of the young men of the Trap-pist colony at Jordan are to be ordained at this city next Sunday morning beginning at 8 o'clock, by Bishop Christie, assisted by prominent priests of Western Oregon, an important ceremony in the church, which will be of general interest. While up the valley on Sunday at Jefferson Bishop Christie will have charge of the dedication of the new church there, in which he will be assisted by Father Lane and others.—Albany Democrat.

RELIEF FROM RHEUMATIC PAIN

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over 3 months." For sale by all druggists.

A Martyr.

"Mamma, have I got to take a bath tonight?"
"I'm afraid you have, my dear."
"But I haven't done anything all the week to deserve it."—New York Life.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOL- ERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY

There is probably no medicine made that is relied upon with more implicit confidence than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. During the third of a century in which it has been in use, people have learned that it is the one remedy that never fails. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. For sale by all druggists.

Everyone interested in poultry should call at this office and subscribe for the Northwest Poultry Journal.
The price is only 50 cents per year, and it contains much valuable information in every issue. It is published in Salem, hence has coast news, and such as is of value locally, and of much more value to people of this section than Eastern journals.

SORE NIPPLES.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse.
Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by all druggists.

Has to Take Them.

"I can take 100 words a minute," said one shorthand writer to another.
"I often take more than that," remarked the other in sorrowful accents, "but then I have to. I'm married."

A CALIFORNIAN'S LUCK.

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," writes Charles F. Budahn of Tracy, California. "Two 25c boxes cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years and that yielded to no other treatment." Sold under guarantee at Brewers drug store.

The Age of Artificial Beauty.

Writers on topics concerning women's matters would fain have us believe that the present is the age of beauty. The fact is that never before have the arts of artificiality been so widely adopted among all classes as they are today.—London Opinion.

Mr. John Riha, of Vining, Ia., says, "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold. There are a dozen people here who have used them and they give perfect satisfaction in every case. I have used them myself with fine results." Sold by Stayton Phar.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY

This remedy can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. It contains no opium or other harmful drug and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult.

GOOD WORDS FOR CHAMBER- LAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs.
Edward Phillips of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old.
About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Willing to Help.

"I suppose old Cashman has more money than he knows what to do with?"
"Yes, but his wife and daughters are ready to supply the needed information."
