(Special Correspondence.)

Portland, May 11th.—The beautiful spring weather that is being enjoyed everywhere in Oregon is sufficient to make every man, woman and child in every village, town and city, and upon every farm, feel as though theirs was the best place in the wide, wide world to live.

Street paving and hard surface paving of the metropolitan type has become the rule throughout the cities and towns of Oregon. Many hundred thousands of dollars will be invested in hard surface pavements in Oregon, outside of Portland, and during the present season Portland is doing more paving than at any time in history.

A vast area of Klamath, Harney, Lake and Malheur Counties, comprising some three hundred thousand acres, is to be opened for settlement.
Much capital is behind the enterprise and this project must of necessity attract enormous attention to that great portion of Oregon, which only needs improved transportation facilities to make it one of the most productive and popular sections of the Northwest, and the rapid settlement of these lands will force the building of the transportation lines.

One of the greatest attractions of Rose Festival Week will be the 50-mile and 100-mile automobile speed contests to be held during the afternoon of Thursday, June 4th. This will be the greatest racing event ever held on the Pacific Coast; the course lies east of this city, each lap being 14 miles, and a grandstand seating 10,000 people has been erected in full view of the start and finish of the races. No machines will be allowed to enter which are not capable of a speed of 65 miles per hour. Three magnificent silver trophy cups are offered for each race—one valued at $500, one at $250, and four at $100 each. The entire course will be oiled and in perfect condition, the roads being closed to all traffic during the hours of the races and guarded by detachments of the Oregon National Guard. A field opposite the grandstand will be reserved for the use of any who may wish to view the races from automobiles or carriages, while telephones stationed at different points will report the progress of the races, announcement to be made on bulletin boards.

During the last fiscal year post-office inspectors collected $59,065 from people who violated postal rules by in-serting short written notes in packages carried at 1 cent an ounce. In a great number of cases the offense was due to ignorance of the law and the collection of the fine worked a hardship to the very poor, so Postmaster General Meyer has directed that proper notices be placed in postoffices warning the public against the practice.

There must be some life in the boy or he will not rise under any circumstances until the day appointed for the resurrection of the dead. If he starts out in life as a failure he will end as one unless he gets thoroughly wakened up in some way. Give every boy and girl a fair chance and reasonable encouragement and do not condemn them even because of a large degree of downright stupidity; for many so-called good-for-nothing boys, block-heads, num-skulls, dullards or dunces were only boys out of their places, round boys forced into square holes.
—Exchange.

Ex-Senator Gearin speaks from personal observation, experience and knowledge when he says that a senator's politics cuts no figure in the matter of getting appropriations and doing other valuable service for a state.
It is the all-around ability of the man that counts—his experience in public life, his perception of men and measures, his tact and diplomacy, his faculty for interesting and influencing others. In purely partisan questions Oregon has but a negligible interest, and a Democrat from this state would still leave the senate overwhelmingly Republican; but what Oregon needs is the kind of a man described, one who can do things for Oregon, rather than chew the political rag. — Portland Journal.

There will almost certainly be a steady increase for many years both in the acreage devoted to corn and the average yield per acre obtained in Oregon. Corn is so useful for grain and for silage, and is so available in a rotation system that we will certainly raise more corn. This will be particularly the case in the Willamette Valley.
When the land is tile-drained it will warm up much quicker in the spring and the raising of crops of clover or vetches will supply the available nitrates to give the corn a quick start in the spring. We also will be able to develop varieties of corn which are better adapted to our climatic conditions than any we now have.—Oregon

"JAYHAWKERS OF '49."

The Death Valley Magazine, which is publishing the life of Death Valley Scotty, will begin the story of the "Jayhawkers of '49" in its May number. The "Jayhawkers" discovered and gave Death Valley its name. The story will be written by John B. Colton, one of the survivors, who is now 75 years of age. He was the youngest member of the party, being 16 years old at the time.

April 5, 1849, the party, consisting of 36 members, organized at Galesburg, Ills., under the name of "Jayhawkers," and started to the gold fields of California. They were on foot the last 52 days of the trip, having abandoned their wagons and butchered their oxen for food.

There are four survivors, one a woman aged 94 years, who carried a child upon her back and kept in line while strong men fell dead or went insane upon the trail.

All of the story will be told for the first time, the humorous as well as the pathetic. Publishers have sought it for 50 years, but the survivors have now deemed it fit and proper to give it to the Death Valley Magazine.

No pioneer or lover of American history can afford to miss it.

The subscription price of the magazine is $1 a year. Every issue contains stories and pictures of the desert worth the price.

The publishers are also giving five shares of stock in the Death Valley Quartz and Placer Mining Company as a premium. The stock is of the par value of $1 per share.

ticulars.

"The Old World and its Ways."

Col. William Jennings Bryan's new book of travel, entitled "The Old World and its Ways," recounts his recent tour around the world and his journeys through Europe. It is profusely and elegantly illustrated with 251 artistic engravings representing men and things seen in the various countries of the earth during that noted journey. The engravings are made from photographs taken for him or his party specially for this publication. It is regarded by him as the monument-al literary work of his life, and is published under his special supervision.

It is sold only through agents, and following its announcement it has, we are advised, met with a demand that has exhausted in a few months four large editions aggregating over 41,000 copies. By special contract with his publishers he made the retail price low down with the view of putting it within the easy reach of every reader and book buyer.

The book gives his experiences—what he saw and did—whom he met and his impressions and conclusions.
He made a profound study of the nations and of men and things as he saw them around the world. He gives governmental, educational, religious and other conditions, from the standpoint of a student and one profoundly interested in all the peoples of the earth.

The book is no sense political, but is a brilliant record of travel and observation, from the standpoint of a well informed American citizen, concerning the countries and the peoples of the earth as seen today. While the pen desecrated the camera pictured the splendid details of this journey.

While Col. Bryan traveled as a private citizen he went with the prestige of having made two memorable contests for the Presidency of the United States, and he was everywhere recognized and entertained as a great representative American, having a leading part in the direction of American affairs. He was given opportunity for observations never before accorded to any one traveling in private capacity.

If one wants to see the world, and the people who are at the head of affairs in all countries, as well as the masses, he has in this book an opportunity of seeing them through the eyes of Col. Williams Jennings Bryan.
It is sold by subscription, and the Thompson Publishing Company of St.
Louis, Mo., are the fortunate publishers. They offer an especially inviting opportunity to solicitors in another column of this issue.

RELIEF FROM RHEUMATIC PAIN

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the bad naerly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over 3 months." For sale by all druggists.

A Martyr.

"Mamma, have I got to take a bath tonight?"

"I'm afraid you have, my dear."
"But I haven't done anything all the week to deserve it."—New York Life.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOL- ERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

There is probably no medicine made that is relied upon with more implicit confidence than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. During the third of a century in which it has been in use, people have learned that it is the one remedy that never fails. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. For sale by all druggists.

Everyone interested in poultry should call at this office and subscribe for the Northwest Poultry Journal.
The price is only 50 cents per year, and it contains much valuable information in every issue. It is published in Salem, hence has coast news, and such as is of value locally, and of much more value to people of this section than Eastern journals.

SORE NIPPLES.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse.
Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by all druggists.

The Lincoln, Maine, Chronicle gives this little story: "A man quarreled with his wife, and took to drink.
His wife, hoping to reform him, hired a masquerade suit one night, and accosted him on the street. 'I am the devil,' she said. Her tipsy husband grasped her hand cordially. 'Shake, old boy,' he said, 'I am your brother-in-law, I married your sister.'"

A CALIFORNIAN'S LUCK.

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," writes Charles F. Budahn of Tracy, California. "Two 25c. boxes cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years and that yielded to no other treatment." Sold under guarantee at Brewers drug store.

The Age of Artificial Beauty.

Writers on topics concerning women's matters would fain have us believe that the present is the age of beauty. The fact is that never before have the arts of artificiality been so widely adopted among all classes as they are today.—London Opinion.

Mr. John Riha, of Vining, Ia., says, "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold. There are a dozen people here who have used them and they give perfect satisfaction in every case. I have used them myself with fine results." Sold by Stayton Phar.

GOOD WORDS FOR CHAMBER- LAIN'S COUGH REMEDY

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs.
Edward Phillips of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old.
About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Willing to Help.

"I suppose old Cashman has more money than he knows what to do with?"

"Yes, but his wife and daughters are ready to supply the needed information."
