Vote NO on the Reddy measure.

The saloon has been banished from state after state and city after city till of the 84,000,000 people of the United States more than 35,000,000 live where the saloon is not permitted to exist. This is because of the detrimental effects of the saloon on business, its multiplication of crime, its destructiveness to morals public and private, its wanton waste of money needed elsewhere, the debauching of public servants of the people and the disgusting interference of liquor men in politics and with our courts of justice. Liquor men have no politics but their own selfish interests, and it is a well known fact that they defy every law of God and man to accomplish their ends. The "White Man's Burden" is the saloon. The real "black hand" is the saloon. Civilization can never reach its highest plane till the saloon is but a memory.

God pity the man who is afraid that he "will hurt his business" by voting against the saloon.

"JAYHAWKERS OF '49."

The Death Valley Magazine, which is publishing the life of Death Valley Scotty, will begin the story of the "Jayhawkers of '49" in its May number. The "Jayhawkers" discovered and gave Death Valley its name. The story will be written by John B. Colton, one of the survivors, who is now 75 years of age. He was the youngest member of the party, being 16 years old at the time.

April 5, 1849, the party, consisting of 36 members, organized at Galesburg, Ills., under the name of "Jayhawkers," and started to the gold fields of California. They were on foot the last 52 days of the trip, having abandoned their wagons and butchered their oxen for food.

There are four survivors, one a woman aged 94 years, who carried a child upon her back and kept in line while strong men fell dead or went insane upon the trail.

All of the story will be told for the first time, the humorous as well as the pathetic. Publishers have sought it for 50 years, but the survivors have now deemed it fit and proper to give it to the Death Valley Magazine.

No pioneer or lover of American history can afford to miss it.

The subscription price of the magazine is $1 a year. Every issue contains stories and pictures of the desert worth the price.

The publishers are also giving five shares of stock in the Death Valley Quartz and Placer Mining Company as a premium. The stock is of the par value of $1 per share.

ORCHARD NOTES.

By the County Fruit Inspector. These notes are intended for beginners rather than for the experienced orchardist.

Young trees planted this spring should have the sprouts all rubbed off the bodies except five or six at the top. These five or six sprouts should be allowed to grow until next winter or spring, when you will select three or four of them to form the top. Keep these sprouts rubbed off all summer. Do not allow them to get old and tough so you will have to use the shears or the knife. The growth that goes into these sprouts will be wasted.

Trees that were grafted this spring should be watched and the sprouts rubbed off so they will not interfere with the growth of the grafts. In case some of the grafts do not grow, one or two sprouts can be left grow, and these can be budded this summer or grafted next spring.

Apples should be thinned so that only one apple remains on a fruit spur. When they grow in clusters or where two rub together you cannot spray them thoroughly all over. Then Better not wait for Prohibition, be popular before you join the ranks but make it popular by joining.

Liberty is the right to do as you please so long as you please to do right.

"That which produces evil is morally wrong. That which is morally wrong cannot be politically right."

A Christian has no more right to betray righteousness in politics than at the prayer meeting.

Stayton can never "boost" very much till the saloons are "boosted" out.

How many times have we heard this remark, "Stayton is a nice little city, but why do you have four saloons?" or "It would be a splendid town but for the saloons," and so on. The Anti-Saloon League and W. C. T. U. are mighty factors working together to wipe out this terrible evil. IT WILL BE DONE.

"Christ, the King, commanding every weapon burnished bright;

Peaceful war we're waging, brothers, 'help us win the fight,'

Christian votes must conquer in this battle for the right,

Under the star spangled banner."

the worm will bore in between them and destroy both apples.

This thinning should be done as soon after the fruit sets as possible, so as to give the remaining fruit the full strength of the tree.

The orchard should be well cultivated and the ground pulverized again after the heavy rains we have had.

If prunes are too thick on the trees a good way to thin them is to prune the trees during this month or next.

DIED.

James B. Decker died Sunday at his home in Stayton after a long illness. He was born in New York Sept. 27, 1825, and has been a resident of Oregon for over 40 years. He is survived by his wife, a son, and daughter. Mrs. Decker is a daughter of Allen Drips. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the M. E. church.

Mrs. Wilda Goodfellow, wife of Frank Goodfellow, died May 16th at the home 3 miles southeast of Jordan, of pneumonia, aged 46 years.

Harvey W. Jarvis died May 16th near N. Santiam of tuberculosis. He was a son of Mrs. Effie Jarvis and was 16 years of age.

"The Old World and its Ways."

Col. William Jennings Bryan's new book of travel, entitled "The Old World and its Ways," recounts his recent tour around the world and his journeys through Europe. It is profusely and elegantly illustrated with 251 artistic engravings representing men and things seen in the various countries of the earth during that noted journey. The engravings are made from photographs taken for him or his party specially for this publication. It is regarded by him as the monumental literary work of his life, and is published under his special supervision. It is sold only through agents, and following its announcement it has, we are advised, met with a demand that has exhausted in a few months four large editions aggregating over 41,000 copies. By special contract with his publishers he made the retail price low down with the view of putting it within the easy reach of every reader and book buyer.

The book gives his experiences—what he saw and did—whom he met and his impressions and conclusions. He made a profound study of the nations and of men and things as he saw them around the world. He gives governmental, educational, religious and other conditions, from the standpoint of a student and one profoundly interested in all the peoples of the earth.

The book is no sense political, but is a brilliant record of travel and observation, from the standpoint of a well informed American citizen, concerning the countries and the peoples of the earth as seen today. While the pen described the camera pictured the splendid details of this journey.

While Col. Bryan traveled as a private citizen he went with the prestige of having made two memorable contests for the Presidency of the United States, and he was everywhere recognized and entertained as a great representative American, having a leading part in the direction of American affairs. He was given opportunity for observations never before accorded to any one traveling in private capacity.

If one wants to see the world, and the people who are at the head of affairs in all countries, as well as the masses, he has in this book an opportunity of seeing them through the eyes of Col. William Jennings Bryan. It is sold by subscription, and the Thompson Publishing Company of St. Louis, Mo., are the fortunate publishers. They offer an especially inviting opportunity to solicitors in another column of this issue.

RELIEF FROM RHEUMATIC PAIN

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over 3 months." For sale by all druggists.

A Martyr.

"Mamma, have I got to take a bath tonight?"

"I'm afraid you have, my dear."

"But I haven't done anything all the week to deserve it."—New York Life.

For sale by all druggists.

It is published in Salem, hence has coast news, and such as is of value locally, and of much more value to people of this section than Eastern journals.

SORE NIPPLES.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by all druggists.

A CALIFORNIAN'S LUCK.

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," writes Charles F. Budahn of Tracy, California. "Two 25c. boxes cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years and that yielded to no other treatment." Sold under guarantee at Brewers drug store.

The Age of Artificial Beauty.

Writers on topics concerning women's matters would fain have us believe that the present is the age of beauty. The fact is that never before have the arts of artificiality been so widely adopted among all classes as they are today.—London Opinion.

THE WORLD'S BEST CLIMATE is not entirely free from disease, on the high elevations fevers prevail, while on the lower levels malaria is encountered to a greater or less extent, according to altitude. To overcome climate affections lassitude, malaria, jaundice, biliousness, fever and ague, and general debility, the most effective remedy is Electric Bitters, the great alterative and blood purifier; the antidote for every form of bodily weakness, nervousness, and insomnia. GOOD WORDS FOR CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.
