Miss Frank Alexander is at Corvallis this week attending commencement exercises of O. A. C.

The steel bridge across the Willamette at Salem is out of repair, and a ferry is now being used.

C. Overholts, of Kingstons, was an appreciated caller Saturday, and will read THE MAIL in the future.

Jac. Spaniol's new home presents a fine appearance and it will not be long before it is ready to occupy.

Clifford Harold, Carl Titus and Sam Williams left Tuesday for a two weeks stay at Breitenbush Hot Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Brown are pleased over the arrival of a son at their home, born Monday, the 15th.

Lee Tate's large new house in the northwest part of town is fast going up. It will make a handsome home.

Mrs. W. W. Elder came up from Roseburg the first of the week for a visit with her children and other Stayton friends.

Mrs. J. R. Miller yesterday accompanied her sister, Mrs. Prettyman, as far as Albany, on her way to her home in California.

The largest strawberries we have seen this season came from the yard of Mr. Funk. They were as good as they looked.

L. A. Thomas, the barber, has begun the erection of a new two-story residence on his property in the northwest part of town.

J. F. Robertson sold on Monday to Stephen Weber, of Sublimity, one block in the Hollister addition, near the Catholic church.

An Albany man who went to Portland for special treatment found the doctor under $500 bonds for fraudulent practice, a faker.—Democrat. It is always best to patronize home people.

The Willamette Valley Chautauqua Assembly will hold its 15th annual session at Gladstone Park, July 7th to 19th. An especially interesting and instructive program has been arranged.

M. L. Aplet, of Lyons, the eldest son of S. Aplet and wife, had his leg broken Monday while logging. It was a bad break, but a physician was called and the injury repaired and he is now doing nicely.

Carpenters are at work building an addition to U. Whitney's property in town. A new barn has just been completed there, and we expect to see Mr. and Mrs. Whitney residents of Stayton soon.

The Stayton Woolen Mills has been manufacturing blankets the past few weeks for the Chinese trade. They are bright colored and of different colors on either side. They are fine blankets, but a little too "loud" in color to suit the average white man.

Work has begun on the walls of E. Roy's cement store building, an experienced young man from Portland doing the work. This building will be a handsome and substantial one. The cement stone is manufactured by L. P. Brown, at his factory here, and is well made.

PUBLIC SALE.—Perry J. Darby, executor of the estate of Thomas C. Darby, deceased, will offer for sale at the home farm 3½ miles northwest of Stayton, on Thursday, June 25, horses, cattle, hogs, farm machinery, etc. Sale begins at 10 o'clock.

Claude Darby left a box of strawberries at this office Tuesday that were just right for size and quality. Mr. Darby is growing some fine berries.

Dr. Brewer drives a fine new rubber tired buggy, purchased of Philip Meier, Sublimity. Mr. Meier carries a large and select stock of buggies, carriages, etc.

Watters & Queener were at Sublimity this week painting the store of Ditter, Bell & Co. The store will present an attractive appearance when completed.

Albany is planning for a three day celebration, to begin July 2, and last until the night of the 4th. Horse races and various other amusements are on the program.

Chas. Tietze and wife, who have been employes in the Woolen Mills, left Thursday for Mr. Tietze's old home in Mass. They expect to return to the coast next fall.

John R. Lake's new house is nearly ready for occupancy. It has been painted by Watters & Queener, and will make Mr. Lake and wife a neat and comfortable home.

Henry Bruer has commenced the erection of a bungalow on his lots near Chas. Streff's. The house will be shingled on the outside, and when finished will be a neat home.

S. Aplet left a fine supply of strawberries at this office Wednesday from his garden. They are the Magoon variety, and splendid large, juicy fruit. He has our thanks for the same.

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Wylder gathered at their home Saturday night, giving them a surprise before they take their leave for their new home in Idaho. A very pleasant time is reported by those present.

Ed Popham, near Turner, lost a valuable horse Monday. The animal was the large Clydesdale stallion, which was here at the horse show. He had this horse with another stallion at at Sublimity, where one of the animals got loose in the barn and was kicked by the other, resulting in a broken leg. The break was so bad that the horse could not be saved.

Jos. Sestak met with a bad accident Monday. He was handling a bottle of ammonia at his market when the cork was forced out of the bottle by the gases that had formed and the ammonia flew in his eyes. He was taken to the office of a physician, and promptly treated, and it is thought that his sight may not be impaired. Both eyes were severely burned by the ammonia, and the injury was very painful, and he will be confined to the house for some time.

Dr. J. M. Kitchen was taken seriously ill yesterday. It seems he had been suffering from stomach trouble for a time, and Thursday morning more than usual. About one o'clock he told Mrs. Kitchen that he felt his heart failing, and asked that a physician be sent for. The doctor soon arrived, and found Dr. Kitchen in a precarious condition, with very little heart action. He was given prompt attention and is today much better.

All Kinds of People Wear Lancefield's Shoes!

The poor man wears them because they save him money. The well-to-do man wears them because they indicate prosperity.

The young people wear them because they have style. The old folks wear them because they are comfortable.

The children wear them because their mothers know what is best for them. The barefooted boy is glad to wear them after he has punctured his epidermis a time or two.

Everybody wears Lancefield's Shoes

Every Man His Own Doctor.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumatic pains.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles.

Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin.

One bottle of each of these five preparations costs but $1.25. For sale by all druggists.

A Grand Family Medicine.

"It gives me pleasure to speak a good word for Electric Bitters," writes Mr. Frank Conlan of No. 436 Houston St., New York. "It's a grand family medicine for dyspepsia and liver complications; while for lame back and weak kidneys it cannot be too highly recommended." Electric Bitters regulate the digestive functions, purify the blood, and impart renewed vigor and vitality to the weak and debilitated of both sexes. Sold under guarantee at Brewer's drug store. 50c.

Newport, on Yaquina bay, is confronted by a proposition that causes the city officials considerable worry. The town is in the wet column, and so many applications are being made for saloon licenses that they fear there will be more saloons than business houses, and that if a number are allowed there will be a large amount of drunkenness. The council will refuse to license some, but doesn't know where to draw the line.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve Wins.

Tom Moore, of Rural Route 1, Cochran, Ga., writes: "I had a bad sore come on the instep of my foot and could find nothing that would heal it until I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Less than half of a 25 cent box won the day for me by affecting a perfect cure." Sold under guarantee at Brewer's drug store.
