

Right Arm Injured.

On Tuesday of last week, E. G. Schaefer son of our townsmen met with a serious accident at Clem. Gilliam County, Oregon, while starting a gasoline engine.

After having thrown the switch on the battery Mr. Schaefer turned the wheel with the crank causing the explosion necessary to start the engine. For some unknown reason the crank did not release and in attempting to remove it from the shaft the young man had his right wrist painfully strained.

The ligaments were torn loose and the right arm was dislocated.

He returned home to Stayton, and is now caring for the injured member. He will be unable to work for several months as sprains are slow to heal.

Installation.

On Tuesday evening last the local Artisan Assembly met in regular session for the purpose of installation of the new officers recently elected.

The new officers are, Willis Caldwell M. A., Anna Stayton Supt., Geana Thomas Insp., W. A. Weddle Sec'y, Stella Caldwell Treas., J. S. Taylor Sr C., H. E. Wirth M. C., J. L. Taylor Jr. C.

The assembly is in very fine condition and bids fair to have many pleasant meetings during the next six months. Each corps of officers is anxious to leave as good a record for attendance and growth of the assembly as their predecessors.

R. W. MASON HERE.

R. W. Mason M. E. Pastor of Mehama and Lyons was a business caller in our city Friday in the interest of the Royal Typewriter Co. He is a very energetic gentleman, serves his congregation on each Lords Day and is working hard to complete his theological education, the necessary funds for which he earns during vacation.

We acknowledge a call. Mr. Mason is a proficient operator on typewriters having taught in the Willamette University.

WINS CASH PRIZE.

Clarence Beauchamp our popular druggist has the distinction of winning a $25 cash prize for a cartoon furnished the Correspondence Institute of America.

The young man has shown much talent for cartooning or drafting, and no doubt in the near future THE MAIL will be using his cartoons.

S. S. Entertainment.

The members of the Kingston Sunday school are preparing for an evening of entertainment and pleasure for tomorrow, August 1st, in the Kingston grove.

A nice program has been prepared and all are looking forward to a pleasant evening as well as for an opportunity to gratify their desires for ice cream.

Correction.

In last issue we had an article mentioning M Spaniol in a "bee" episode. The initials were incorrect, Jac Spaniol was the man who made the "bee line" for Stayton.

How To Make Cold Meat Loaf.

Avoid warm hashes in summer, and have in their place a meat loaf that can be served cold," writes Christine Terhune Herrick in Womans Home Companion for August "Chop your remnants of stake or roast fine, mix with them one third as much cold boiled ham or tongue, season well and add a couple of raw eggs beaten light. If rather dry, moisten with gravy or stock, turn into a greased mould with plain sides, cover set in a baking pan with hot water about it, and bake for an hour. This loaf may also be made with raw beef but then it must cook two hours. Let it get very cold before turning out, and slice. Veal loaf may be prepared by this recipe, and even cold roast lamb may be treated in the same manner. The main point to be borne in mind is the seasoning. Be careful that this is well done and you will have a popular dish."

Remains Found In Lonely Nook

Hillsboro.—The remains of a man whose name was evidently E. Perdue of Spokane, and who was murdered in cold blood in a lonely place in the mountains 28 miles northwest of this city, were found by a fifteen-year-old boy Saturday about noon. The body was partially covered by sticks and clap-boards and old refuse. The boy returned home and notified his father, R. E. Neighbor, who went to the scene and getting a survey of the place notified the sheriff and coroner. Sheriff Hancock and Coroner E. C. Brown went to the mountains and held an inquest. They found the body had been lying in seclusion for perhaps three weeks and the face was badly decomposed. There was no possibility of identification so far as features were concerned, as decomposition was too far advanced. The man wore overalls but no coat. His skull had been crushed in by some blunt instrument, probably the back of a pole-axe.

In the dead man's pocket were found two stamped coins the size of a half-dollar, on which were printed "E. Perdue, Spokane, Wash., 1907." Another piece of aluminum contained an eagle with a circle around it made from the same metal. The two back teeth of both the upper and lower left jaws had been filled with amalgam.

The Neighbor boy who found the body says that about three weeks ago or more he met a man who was wading the stream barefooted and who told him that he was from Spokane.

Dog Rescues Two Little Girls

Albany.—A dog owned by Maurice Winter, a well-known commercial traveler residing in Albany, assisted in the rescue of three little girls from drowning at the Nye Creek beach at Newport last week.

William Eagles' children, Willie, aged 11, and Elizabeth, aged 5, were playing on the beach, accompanied by Helen Winter, 4-year-old daughter of Maurice Winter, and Mary Penington, 7-year-old daughter of Clyde Penington, of La Grande, ex-Sheriff of Union County. The children were barefooted and were digging far out on the beach. The waves began to come around them, but they paid no attention until a large one was almost upon them, when all started to run. The Eagles boy ran around a ledge of rock which was in their path, but the frightened girls clambered over the rock and fell into a wide pool of water, five feet deep, directly on the other side of the ledge.

There were no people near and the three girls floundered helplessly. Young Eagles bravely waded out and finally managed to catch his sister's hair and pulled her to the bank. The other girls, farther out in the pool, were almost drowning when Winter's dog ran up, plunged in and caught Helen Winter's clothes in his mouth and dragged her to the bank. Mary Penington held to the Winter girl's clothes and was pulled close enough to the edge so that Young Eagles caught her arm and saved her, too.

Man Dead, Woman Hurt

Baker City.—This city was startled by the tragic death of J. Muller, and the serious injury of his wife, which occurred in an automobile accident at the little station of Unlty, on the O. R. & N., between Baker City and Huntington.

Mr. Muller, his wife and Harry Bigham started for Boise from this city about 3 o'clock Friday. At 5 o'clock they were coasting down a mountainside. Having reached the bottom, Mr. Bigham was in the act of connecting the sparkler when the machine struck a culvert where dirt had been washed from around it, gave a lurch and turned over twice.

Mr. Bigham was thrown clear of the machine, but Mr. Muller was pinned to the earth, the step breaking his neck. Mrs. Muller was also caught beneath the machine and suffered a broken arm, broken shoulder and internal injuries.

Mrs. Muller and Mr. Bigham were brought in on passenger train No. 5, and automobiles from Baker City were sent after the body of Mr. Muller. There is grave fear expressed that Mrs. Muller will not recover.

Approves Stock Increase

Portland.—The Secretary of the Interior has approved an increase of stock in the Umatilla Water-Users' Association from 9,000 to 22,000 shares. The association, made up of landowners under the Umatilla irrigation project was organized with a capital stock of $540,000, divided into 9000 shares of a par value of $60 each. The project has since been extended to include a total of 22,000 acres, and in order that there may be one share of stock for each acre of land it has been necessary to increase the stock to $1,320,000, divided into 22,000 shares, of a par value of $60 each.
