

MILL CITY.

Tuesday evening a party was given by Mr. and Mrs. James Wadworth in honor of Misses Alice and Lola Kneu, of North Yakima, Wash. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers. In one cozy corner a fortune teller had pitched her camp and became very popular during the evening. Those present were the Misses Kneu, Hobson, Domogola, Monroe, Kackly, Quinn, and Messrs. Magg, Kimsey, Swift, Faust, Domogola and Blume, Mrs. Kahler, the Mr. and Mrs. Quinn, Shaw, Stewart, Coleman, Bertram, Badger, Caspel.

Wedding Bells.—At the home of Joseph Turnidge, Aug. 26, 1908, at 11 a. m., Mr. Frank P. Lovering and Miss Nellie Frances Turnidge, and Prof. G. W. Murphy and Stella M. Turnidge were united in matrimony by Rev. L. S. Chapman, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Many relatives and friends were present. At noon a splendid wedding dinner was served. The brides wore costumes of white silk and chiffon, the grooms wore the conventional black and brown. Immediately after dinner the bridal party started for the depot, where they were met by many of their friends who bade them good-bye and wished them a happy and prosperous life. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will live at Grass Valley, Or., and Mr. and Mrs. Lovering at South Bend, Wash. These young people received many valuable gifts that will remind them of the loved ones at home. Among the guests were Miss Matilda Siegmund of Klumb, both Mrs. Stout of Mehama, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rambo, Mr. and Mrs. B. Jewell and others.
