SCIO.

Everything in this section seems to be moving on quite satisfactorily.

People are making preparations for the observance of Thanksgiving each in his way. A religious service is to be held in the Baptist church for which considerable preparation is being made especially by the pastor and singers. Such questions as "What have we to be thankful for as citizens, as a county, as a state, as a nation, as temperance workers, as churches, as a Sunday school, as housekeepers, etc.," are to be answered by different ones in the audience.

A "man with two talents" was to have given an entertainment last week and quite a number of tickets were sold by the school children, but the man seems to have had still another talent which resulted in his failure to be present on the occasion, and there was no show.

Arrangements for the milk condenser are being carried on, and other indications of prosperity show themselves.

There is not much sickness and everybody seems to have enough to do. School work is moving on very satisfactorily under the new corps of teachers.

Preaching now every Sunday alternately in the Baptist and Christian churches. Rev. Norcross supplies the Christian church once in two weeks very acceptably.

Mrs. Rev. Carman had a poor spell last week and was unable to accompany her husband on his trip to Stayton for Sunday, but is better at this writing.

Klumb Echoes.

Mrs. J. M. English of Independence visited her mother, Mrs. Jacob Siegmund, for several days.

The chairman of the school board, Jos. Etzel Sr., attended the School Officers Convention at Salem and reports a very interesting meeting.

Miss Caroline Siegmund who has been for the past few months in Gervais, is spending a few days at her home.

Echoes still convey to the ears of appreciative participants, sounds of the success and the enjoyment of the Rebekah Convention held at Mehama the 12. Faith No. 168 did itself proud. Its members are loyal entertainers and deserve much credit.

Mr. J. M. English has been a caller on this side recently.

Messrs. Jacob, F. A. and J. L. and Miss Mathilda Siegmund have spent the greater portion of the past week in Salem and Gervais.

Owing to the severe rainstorm our young people could not attend the dance in Mehama.

Many are looking forward with pleasure to the entertainment to be given at Howell—familarly known as Pumpkin Center—on Saturday evening, November 28.

Mr. W. M. Siegmund and daughter Eugena of Salem visited relatives a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. English made us a pleasant call recently.

The school children in this district are delighted with several new books which have been sent as an addition to the school library.

Kingston.

Mrs. Lizzie Henline, of Salem is visiting with her father Charles Schaefer west of town.

Carl Titus, who is attending the O. A. C. is home for a short vacation which he will spend with his parents.

Lots of mud around the depot of late. Wonder how much longer we will have to wait for the crushed rock to fill the mud holes. A few dozen yards of the rock would make the depot grounds O. K.

Miss Mathilda Siegmund was noticed on board the C. & E. a few days ago on her way to Salem where she attended the Institute.

Clifford Harold was a visitor in Salem Friday on business.

Several carloads of ties have been shipped here lately by the Lee Brown & Sons of Stayton.

MARRIED.

Thursday November 26, at the home of the bride's parents three miles west of town, Mr. Orrie Mack and Miss Mabel Frame. Both are well known young people of this place and have the best wishes of the whole community.

Tuesday Nov 24 at Sublimity, Mr. Martin Burg and Miss Justina Klecker, Rev. Father Lainck officiating. They will reside in Stayton.

E. B. Watters: nothing to it.
Joe Kearns: sure thing.

Mr. Othmer Burg of Shaw was visiting relatives in Stayton this week.

Monday is Wash-day
Keep your clothes bright
I will do it for you
Sure as you're alive.
I will call on Monday
For your shirts and sox
Send them to Salem

AIR COMPRESSORS IN

The Gold Creek Mining and Milling Company, whose properties are in the Santiam Mining District above Stayton, have added air compressors to their already large equipment. The compressors are being installed and in a very short time a night and day crew will be at work getting out ore for the new smelter which is to be put in by the Wilson-Gadsden Company of Portland.

Otto Hansen, president of the Gold Creek Mining and Milling Company was in Salem a short time since in the interest of the company and while there was interviewed by the MAIL representative. Mr. Hansen said, "It is now an assured fact that their company is in a position to finish all their contract with the smelter in supplying their quota of ore per day, and we have enough cash on hand to carry us in fine shape." He also said "we desire to thank all who have taken stock with us before the raise in price for we always want those who help us to have the first chance in sharing the profits."

Mr. Hansen is well known throughout the state and as a business man has been very successful. He having been chosen as president of the Gold Creek Mining & Milling Company has had much to do in securing from Stayton and vicinity such a large stock subscription.

Stock is now on the advance and those who were not fortunate enough to get in on the ten cent rate should take every opportunity of securing a block of this stock before another advance comes as its sure to do. As soon as the smelter begins sending out matte from the Gold Creek mines there will be a great advance in the stock prices of the mines there.

Do not let this opportunity slip and in after years say to your children that you knew a time when that stock could be had for ten cents a share. Get a block now. Address
