BRIDGES NEARLY FINISHED

The Bridges on the new grade into the Santiam Mining District are nearing completion. The Stack Creek bridge has taken longer than was hoped to complete it, but owing to difficulty in obtaining timbers, work has not made so great a showing.

The Bridges Will Be Finished

In a short time and while this work is going on, the crew at the Gold Creek M. & M. Camp is kept busy completing the installation of

The Portland Journal in one of its recent issues states that a neighborhood near Stayton is called Pumpkin Center and remarks that the people there should raise large pumpkins. The Journal has guessed rightly for throughout the state there is no section that can surpass Pumpkin Center in the production of the above mentioned vegetable. We also wish to say that the housewives and their daughters certainly know how to put these yellow vegetables into pies for which even the editor of the MAIL has a permanent appetite.

JOBE SHELTON WIELDS PISTOL

Friday night at Mill City there was some excitement which may cause the principals much notoriety. Jobe Shelton, who for some time wielded a tonsorial blade in the O Kshop of this city, went into the room occupied by a Mr Beavers, who has had charge of the moving picture show kill him.

As soon as Beavers was fully aroused there was an immediate struggle between them resulting in the discharging of Sheltons pistol twice.

COFFEE SAVE YOUR STOMACH NOT THE WRAPPERS TEA
He who expects Something for Nothing Always Gets Nothing
Shun the Peddler

The tea and coffee peddler is a man with a big line of talk, a bunch of "gold brick" premiums and a lot of cast aside "cheap" teas and coffees which he sells to the unsuspecting housewife, hands her a "dinky" premium to close the bargain and is off "never to return." Why not buy at home where you can get your money back if not satisfied?

When your Coffee Doesn't Taste Good Don't Blame the Cook

Now is the time to visit

California

When summer has passed in these northern states, the sun is only mild under the bright blue skies, of Southern California. This is one of nature's happy provisions—eternal summer for those who cannot endure a more severe climate.

California has been called the "Mecca of the winter tourist." Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities. Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions, and varied, pleasing recreations.

Southern Pacific Co.

Will be glad to supply some very attractive literature, describing in detail the many delights of a winter in California.

Very low round trip excursion tickets are on sale to California. The rate from West Stayton to Los Angeles and return is $56.80

Limit six months allowing stopovers in either direction. Similar excursion rates are in effect to all California points. For full information, sleeping car reservations and tickets, call on, telegraph or write
