

Stayton Mail Supplement

The Berean Club, other wise known as class 3 of the Christian Bible school, entertained a number of guests at the home of Mr & Mrs R L. Morton on the evening of Thanksgiving, day Nov. 26.

The evening was spent in games and music. Among the games was one of special interest it being a contest game, creating quite a bit of interest as well as causing each one to put on their thinking cap. Florence Morton won the prize, a neat picture set in a mission frame. Those present were: Misses Verbena Harris, Lettie Weddle, Irene Shelley, Hallie Shelley, Alice Shepard, Mable Gardner, Rosa Lang, Emma Frank, Marie Henkel, Jessie Goodman, Grace Crabtree; Messrs Everett Gardner, Steven Taylor, Norman Davie, Clare Simeral, Everett Crabtree, Guy Kearns, Ben Roy, Walter Quick, Tom Taylor, Harvey Beauchamp, Loyd Brown and Guy Sloper. Refreshments were served at a late hour after which the guests departed declaring the Club members splendid entertainers.

DISBARRED ATTORNEY KILLS PROSECUTOR IN PORTLAND

Portland, Or., Nov. 30.—Attorney Ralph B. Fisher, prosecutor for the Grievance Committee of the Oregon State Bar Association, was shot and killed almost instantly Saturday afternoon by Attorney J. A. Finch, who had recently been disbarred as the result of charges of drunkenness that were prosecuted by Mr. Fisher.

Mr. Fisher was a member of the law firm of Baker & Fisher. He was 28 years of age and had been practicing law in this city for four years. He was a graduate of the Monmouth State Normal School and studied law with a firm at Troy, Idaho, where he was admitted to the bar.

James A. Finch is 38 years of age and was admitted to the practice of law eight years ago. He is a native of this state and practiced for brief periods in both Albany and Salem. He is said to have figured in one or more "gun plays" and was recently disbarred from practicing in this state for a period of one year.

Mr A G Hames and family of Salem, spent Thanksgiving day at the home of Dr Jackson.

Oak Grove Hash.

The farmers are busy plowing.

There has been some anxiety about the crops on account of the cold weather.

The dance at the Victor Point hall Thanksgiving evening was well attended and much enjoyed by all.

Our school is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Mabel Albee. The examinations of this month testify to this statement being true.

Miss Evelyn Starkey spent the latter part of the week at the home of J. T. Hunt.

The coldness and cloudiness of the weather makes us think that "Mother Goose" is preparing to shake her feather bed.

Mrs. A. C. Barrows spent the latter part of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hepner, of Macleay.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Smith are being visited by the latter's brother and wife from Ohio.

Mr. Arnott King was seen driving westward Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Boedigheimer were entertained Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. John Steinberger.

Merrily, merrily, the wedding bells are ringing.

Recently we heard of a lady who has almanacs for 16 successive year. Mrs Jas Gist informs us that she has almanacs for 25 years.

Mrs Mariels, of Fox Valley, has been a guest of her sister Mrs Oliver Farns the past week.

Mr and Mrs E G Siegmund accompanied Nairne and Miss Merta to Turner Sunday. The young folks were on their way to Salem where they are attending school.

Sam Butler, of Mitchell, Oregon, was a week end guest at the E G Siegmund home on Fern Ridge.

R Hambel expects to leave soon for his old home in Kansas.

On Sunday, December 5th, Rev Marer will conduct services at the Union Hill church.

Mr Charles Luthy left last Monday for Portland, where he expects to spend the winter.

Miss Lydia Caspell visited friends in this vicinity the latter part of the week.

Mr and Mrs Ernest Long returned home Sunday after a few days visit with relatives in Corvallis.

People in the vicinity of Oak Grove were surprised to hear of the marriage of Lucinda Slagel to T. Fischer nesday, November, 25th. They were united in marriage by Rev P S Knight of the Congregational church of Salem at two o'clock p.m. A few of the relatives acted as witnesses.

The bride was attired in a custom of blue serge, while the groom wore the conventional black. They expect to reside near this place.

Mr and Mrs I B Carter visited Sunday with their son W H Carter.

G W Slagel made a business trip to Salem, Saturday last.

Mr J T Hunt and family spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs J E King.

Mr Leo Dorfler returned home Sunday after a two months stay in Salem.

North Santiam Nuggets

Eld. Gressman will hold services morning and evening at the North Santiam Christian church Dec. 6th.

Byron Kuenzli, who has been working for the Capital City Improvement Company came home Wednesday to stay a few days.

Mrs Frank Mack was called to the bedside of her aunt Mrs Geo Frost, who was stricken with paralysis Fri.

BORN—To Mr and Mrs Zeller on November 25th a son.

Fred Swartz, of Ohio is visiting at the home of his father-in-law, Mr Kuenzli.

Bert Veal, of Albany, was at this place for a few hours stay on business Saturday.

Mr Burton of Salem, spent Thanksgiving with his sister Mrs Scofield.

Mrs Thomas and son of Jordan visited at the home of U G Clark Sunday.

Mrs Rainwater of Albany, who has been visiting her father Mr Newman returned home Friday.

Ivy Phillips who has been employed at the L D Daniel music store at Dallas, has returned to her home at Lyons after making a few days visit with friends at this place.

Mrs J A Henry and children of St. John have returned home, after a weeks visit at the home of Dr Jackson.

Come and hear Rev Oliver, at the M E church next Sunday, both morning and evening. Special Music.