Haying Tools

Deering Ideal mower

The way to get full value for your hay crop is to use Deering hay tools. Thousands of farmers can testify to the excellent results obtained from using Deering mowers, rakes, stackers and tedders. They are reliable machines, and will do the same work for you that they have done for other farmers we have sold in your community. Come in and see us about a Deering machine next time you are in town. You don't have to buy, but you may learn something of value to you about raising hay. You can make our store your headquarters when you are in town if you desire. Ask for a Deering catalogue which explains details better than we can.

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

All correspondents are requested to sign their contributions, that we may know exactly from whom all items are received. The signatures are desired not for publication, but simply for our own convenience. Correspondents will greatly oblige us by following this practice in preparing their items.

We allow a liberal commission on all subscriptions, and correspondents will find it profitable to spend a little spare time in canvassing. At present we are publishing items from two or three communities which are hardly represented on our subscription list. Unless our lists for these places increase soon, we shall be forced to discontinue the news notes of these localities. We aim to make it well worth an agent's time to assist in building up our circulation. Write or call for particulars and sample copies.
