STAYTON YOUNG MAN GETS MEDICAL DEGREE

Everett H. Hobson, son of former state senator, W. H. Hobson of Stayton, was among this year's graduates from the medical department at Willamette University. This ends his fifth year in the study of medicine, and completes the academic work in his course of study. He is planning to take the examination before the State Board, which will be held soon; and upon passing this test he will be admitted to the practice of his profession in Oregon.

Dr. Hobson is well known in Stayton and vicinity, and a large number of local people were present at the graduating exercises held Monday night. He has the best wishes of his friends for success in his chosen work.

LOCAL MERCHANT HAS VERY SEVERE ACCIDENT

J. R. Gardner, the well known business man of this city, sustained a most unusual accident while returning from the I. O. O. F. grand lodge at Pendleton, to which he had gone as a delegate from the local chapter. To vary the monotony of travel, he with several others on the train, was indulging in a high-kicking contest, the object being to kick as high as the bell rope. Mr. Gardner was the most successful kicker of all, but in some manner he strained the ligaments in his right hip very severely. Since his return he has been compelled to use a cane to assist him in walking.

SUBLIMITY DAIRYMEN FORM A CORPORATION

(Special to The Mail)

Sublimity, Ore., June 5—The dairymen of the Sublimity neighborhood, who organized several weeks ago for their mutual benefit, held a meeting here Saturday and incorporated. The members were heartily in favor of this move, and approximately $2000 was at once subscribed for the purchase of shares in the corporation.

The organization has pooled its cream and received bids from various large creameries for this product. The contract was finally let to the Union Meat company of Portland, which put in the highest bid. This company will now receive practically all cream produced in this section.

FORESTERS' MEMORIAL SERVICE DRAWS CROWD

At the Memorial service of the Foresters of America last Sunday a large crowd of members and invited guests assembled at the I. O. O. F. hall to do honor to their departed brothers. Talks were made by Fred Frank, Chief Ranger; Lee Kerber Sub Chief Ranger; Othmer Berg Acting Post Chief Ranger and W. F. Klecker Lecturer. Miss Lena Berg was organist. After the service a bountiful banquet was spread which all enjoyed thoroughly. In the afternoon ice cream and other refreshments were served.

BLOWS HOLE IN FOOT WHEN RIFLE GOES OFF

Mrs. P. A. Stevens of West Stayton sustained a bad accident Monday, when the rifle which she had been using in target practice exploded, blowing a hole through her right foot. While resting for a moment, she thoughtlessly placed the gun, muzzle down, upon her foot. In some manner the trigger was pulled, and the bullet passed through the instep, coming out on the sole of the foot close to the heel. Several bones were injured, and the foot itself was badly lacerated. Dr. Brewer dressed the wound.

ATTORNEY HELTZEL'S BROTHER GETS OFFICE

Jas. G. Heltzel, a prominent attorney of Salem, and a candidate for representative on the Republican ticket, has received notice from Jefferson that he has been selected as city attorney of that wide-awake and thriving city. A short time ago the attorney serving the city in that capacity resigned and the large amount of business by reason of street improvements, etc., made it necessary that some competent attorney of experience in that line should be selected at once. Mr. Heltzel, who is a brother of Attorney S. H. Heltzel of Stayton, is especially qualified to fill this position by reason of his extended experience while assistant city attorney of Salem during the past three years.

STAYTON MAY ARRANGE FOR HITCHING POSTS

The city council met Tuesday night in regular session. The first thing done was to repeal the dog tax. We can all own a "purp" now.

A resolution was introduced showing the necessity of securing a place for hitching posts. A committee of two was appointed to look into the matter. They are City Recorder Grier and Councilman Keech. It is to be hoped that something will be done soon.

Brewer carries THERMODYNE. No home complete without babies--and THERMODYNE. 6-6-x.

HORSES PLUNGE FROM STAYTON FERRYBOAT

Accidents on the Stayton ferryboat are becoming regular occurrences. The latest took place Monday, when a two-horse team with a light wagon, plunged off the boat into the swift current, and nearly drowned in an effort to get back to land. The ferry had just landed when the team drove up preparatory to crossing. The horses were a bit frightened, and had to be urged upon the boat. Once started, however, they kept on going, and plunged off the opposite end even before the ferry had made fast. The driver leaped from the seat to the deck, and escaped a wetting. After a struggle with the current the horses managed to make a landing some distance down stream.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

The illustrated lecture announced for Tuesday evening of this week at the Christian Church, on the "Tour of the Holy Land," was not given on account of the slides not coming in on time. It is announced, however, that the lecture will be given on Friday evening of this week. All interested will please take note.
