The following is a copy of a personal letter from a Portland wholesaler to one of our local merchants. It hits the Presidential Campaign Bugaboo right in the solar plexus, and is well worth consideration. Here's what he has to say:

Dear Bill:—

You sure had some grouch on, and how you got up the nerve to order five rolls when the future looks so blue to you beats me. But thanks for that same order, and it goes forward to you to-day.

From your letter I take it you feel about as follows:

If Taft's elected, the Trusts will run the country.

If T. R. gets in, the Trusts will bust the country.

If the job goes to Clark, Bryan or any of that party, the country'll go to hell sure.

If a "dark horse" comes along, God help us all.

For the love of Mike, Bill, its your liver that's wrong! Take it from me, that three grains of calomel with a Seidlitz powder later will make the future look bright once more.

When election day comes, vote for the man you want. If he's elected you'll know the country's saved; then you'll have a drink or two and a bit cigar, will buy your wife a new dress and send me—well let's say a couple of hundred on account.

Should your man lose, you'll tighten up; no new dress, no booze and you'll smoke a pipe and hang on to your mazuma—for the worst is yet to come. "Hully Gee"!

Forget it Bill! This is a big country and no one of us can send it to the hot place. When the Creator gets ready to snuff us out, He'll do it, and it won't be politics that will influence Him either.

"What one fears most never happens", and no matter who is President, the country will go on just the same; we'll all eat, sleep and be happy.

Now, Bill, you've seen enough of elections and the panicky effect they have on business to not take it so to heart. This happens every four years, with the same old "holler" and the same result—after the nomination trade will pick up; after election it will be good and keep on getting better, and next year you will wonder why you were scared. In the meantime pay no attention to the bellyachers' prophecies. Tell 'em "Business is Good" and that you haven't time to talk politics, and with the big crops we'll harvest this Fall you'll find later on that 1912 wasn't such a bad year after all, and you can bet that 1913 will be lots better.

So brace up old man and Boost, Boost, BOOST!

Sincerely,

M

Sublimity Shots

Paul Zuber and wife went down to Portland Wednesday to take in the Rose Festival.

Mrs. Ben Gescher went to Portland this week to see the Rose Festival and visit relatives.

Everybody remember the dance, Tuesday, June 18th. Music by the Siegmund Orchestra, and a good time assured.

Miss Katie Benedict, and her aunt, who has been visiting at the Benedict home, journeyed to the Rose City Tuesday to enjoy the Festival.

Geo. Bell has just purchased Dr. O'Leary's Ford car, and from now on may be seen speeding along our fine roads. All cautious pedestrians beware.

Seventeen convicts from the State Pen. came over Monday and commenced work on the rock quarry. Here's hoping the good work on the roads will continue.

The Commercial Club held their regular meeting Tuesday evening. It was decided to hold a debate at their next meeting July 9th on the "Single Tax" question.

Miss Ella Williams of Happy Hollow, who was a Monday guest of Miss Delia Prange, left Tuesday evening for Portland to attend the Carnival and to visit her sister, Miss Lois Williams, who is a teacher in the Stephens school.

The Sublimity Dairymen's Association held its third meeting last Saturday. By-laws were presented and adopted, and the amount of capital stock was increased from $2000 to $3000. This shows the favor with which the association is viewed among local dairymen.

The Commercial Club has just had five-thousand booster envelopes printed by the Stayton Mail, and these will be put on sale at the price of unprinted envelopes. They contain information about Sublimity and should be used by all as they will help greatly in advertising the town.
