SALEM YOUNG MAN WINS A WALDO HILLS BRIDE

A wedding of considerable interest to local people took place Wednesday, when Miss Matilda Siegmund became the bride of W. J. Jones of Salem. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's brother, Frank Siegmund, Rev. McCloud of the Presbyterian church at Mill City, officiating. Forty-odd relatives and friends were present.

After the wedding the couple went to Salem. They expect to spend the summer camping near Jefferson, after which they will make their home in the Capital City.

The bride, who is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural College, is well known locally. The groom is a medical student at Willamette University.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

A miscellaneous shower for Miss Ethel Cross was held Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. F. F. Foster. A goodly number of guests participated, and a most enjoyable time was had. Miss Cross was the recipient of many useful and beautiful gifts.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR HITTING POSTS

The committee recently appointed by the city council to look into the matter of securing public hitching posts for Stayton, has been working successfully and one good place for this service has already been arranged for. The location secured is along the ditch at First and High streets, a spot very conveniently situated. Other places will probably be provided later, thus supplying a long felt want in this city. This will be gratifying news to our farmer friends.

GIRL BOOSTER TELLS OF PUBLICITY TRIP

Word has been received from Miss Della Harold, who is representing Stayton and vicinity with the Oregon Publicity Party now touring the Eastern states. Miss Harold was approaching Omaha when she wrote. She stated that the party began distributing literature immediately after leaving Cheyenne.

Miss Harold is well pleased with the Stayton circular, and says she is better provided with literature than most of the other girls. One or two of the party, she states, have no literature at all.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE ON C. & E. RAILROAD

The Corvallis & Eastern Railroad has just inaugurated a slight change of schedule, which affects the time of receiving and dispatching of mail from this city, as well as the arrival and departure of the Kingston stage. Under the new schedule there is a difference of fifty minutes in the morning train, and fifteen minutes in the afternoon train, thus making their arrival in Kingston 9:26 a. m. and 3:29 p. m. respectively.

ENTERTAIN AT SHOWER

Miss Frank Alexander and Mrs. G. F. Korinek were the hostesses at a handkerchief shower held Tuesday night at the Alexander home, in honor of Miss Ethel Cross. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion, which was enjoyed by a large number of friends of the bride-to-be. Miss Cross received many dainty kerchiefs.

WAS STIRRING LECTURE

Rev. W. S. Graftwell of Salem declaimed on the subject "Why I am What I am," at the Christian church Wednesday night. As previously announced, his address was mainly along prohibition lines, and the rather meager audience that was present was not disappointed in Rev. Graftwell's denunciation of the liquor evil. His remarks were emphatic and straight from the shoulder, and many a severe body blow was dealt the Demon Rum. The speaker was very versatile, and his address was pleasing as well as forceful.

DAILY TRIPS
