No Military Needed. Thomas McKean, chief justice of Pennsylvania, was a man of gigantic stature and a fiery temper. A mob in Philadelphia defied the efforts of the sheriff to disperse it. He so reported to Justice McKean, then sitting in full court.

McKean rose and rushed out of the court in his wig and gown, his face flushed with passion, into the midst of the riotous mob.

"I am Thomas McKean, chief justice, and I command you to disperse!" So saying, he seized two of the ring-leaders, literally tucked them under his arms and returned to the court while the crowd crept home, silent as frightened sheep.—Green Bag.

Have the Vigor of Health

To the young man embarking upon a business career—

Success comes faster to the man of health—provided he looks and acts it—than to the man with a weak and run-down system.

A healthy skin, bright eyes, clear brain and the resulting energy will win out anywhere—it means snap and vigor in abundance.

If your blood is impoverished, the skin blotchy, the eyes dull and strained, you will do well to correct the fault.
