TATTERSALL'S IN LONDON.

Romantic Story of the World's Most Famous Horse Market.

The most famous horse mart in the world is Tattersall's in London. A romantic history attaches to this establishment.

In 1776 a certain Richard Tattersall, a wool comber of Yorkshire, who had lost his fortune during the Jacobite rebellion, obtained a ninety-nine years lease of a tract of ground in London and thereon built an establishment for the sale of horses and hounds.

Tattersall was on friendly terms with the prince regent, Lord Bellingbrooke and others whose patronage greatly aided the enterprise. Such, indeed, was the friendship between the prince and Tattersall that the bust of George on top of the fountain in the sale yard was so placed at the prince's own request.

In due time a huge slice of luck came Tattersall's way. Lord Bellingbrooke ran heavily into debt and by way of settlement passed on to Tattersall his famous racer, Highflyer, which became the father of three Derby winners. The progeny of this horse in eighteen years are said to have won races to the value of no less than £170,000. Tattersall built himself a palatial country residence near Ely, calling it Highflyer Hall.

Tattersall's came to be the headquarters for the laying of turf wagers. Immense sums were won and lost there. The Marquis of Hastings lost more than £100,000 on one race alone, and it is said, not infrequently similar amounts changed hands on "settling days" at "Old Tatt's," or "the Corner," as the place was sometimes called.

All classes of society mingled at Tattersall's. Dukes and stable boys were brothers in the excited crowd, prepared to wager on anything and everything. This state of things led to such a scandal that upon the expiration of the lease the firm was refused a renewal. In its new establishment no betting was permitted.

At the modern Tattersall's some enormous prices for racers are occasionally obtained. Flying Fox is said to have been sold to a French owner for 37,500 guineas and Ormonde to an American for 30,000 guineas. Here also Scepter as a yearling was sold for 10,000 guineas, La Fleche for 12,500 guineas and Blair Athol for only 100 guineas less.—Harper's Weekly.

Some Quaint Hotels.

The hotel that stands out the most prominently in my recollection is one in Iquique, where, even while you are sitting at the dining tables, vendors come in from the streets to sell you food. At this same hotel they have two charges for baths—8 shillings if you insist upon clean water and about 4 shillings if you are willing to take a second turn at the tub.

Another instance of a quaint hotel is in the town of Africa, in Peru. Here they are using at the present time the hull of an old American man-of-war, which was taken inland by a great tidal wave many years ago and has since been fitted up as a hotel and is in great demand.—London Answers.

Good Place to Stop.

"Yes, before papa would consent to my marrying George he insisted on looking up his past life."

"Mercy, that was risky!"
"But he didn't go very far. He stopped just as he found that George was the only nephew of three rich uncles."
—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Easy.

Beggar—Kind gentleman, I beg your pardon—Gent (promptly)—Granted. I thought you was begging for money.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Much Easier.

It is much easier to agree to what you know isn't so than to argue with the man who doesn't know anything about it.—Puck.

Wealth may seek us, but wisdom must be sought.—Edward Young.

Mean.

"He tried to kiss me. I can't understand it."
"Neither can I, dear."
"You eat!"—Pearson's Weekly.

BEN SELLING'S RECORD PROGRESSIVE

While a Legislator Aided in Placing Upon Statute Books Many Popular Measures.

Referring to his record as a progressive, Ben Selling, progressive Republican nominee for United States Senator, in a recent interview, said: "I am proud to say that as a Republican I have been in the Oregon Legislature on and off for about 16 years. During that time it was my pleasure and duty to aid in originating and writing upon the statute books of this state such progressive measures as the Australian ballot law, the initiative and referendum, recall, the Presidential preference primary law and many other reform measures which have given to the people their rights. These measures have taken Oregon from under machine control and placed the nominating machinery in the hands of the people where it belongs. Bear in mind I have been at this work for 16 years, laboring consistently for everything that would bring about the present Oregon system. This being true and a matter of record, my contention is that myself and others who worked with me, are the true progressives in Oregon. "The people of Oregon do not have to guess as to my progressive work. It is an open book. It is recorded on the statute books of this state. Judge your progressive candidates by what they have done, by their records as progressives, and I shall be perfectly satisfied with the verdict expressed by the people next November."

LOWELL FAVORS SELLING

Opponent in Primary Supports Him as Regular Party Nominee.

In giving his unqualified indorsement of the candidacy of Ben Selling, progressive Republican nominee for United States Senator, Judge Stephen A. Lowell, an opponent of Mr. Selling in the primary election, said recently: "Senator Selling is the regular constituted nominee of the party. He has been a burden bearer in the past political contests and is entitled, under all rules of the game, to his reward. He is a progressive Republican, not only today, but was such when it took some courage to occupy advanced ground. He is a substantial business man, with a home and interests in the state. Why should any honest man who believes in fair play in politics, as well as in every day affairs, refuse to support his candidacy. I am with him to the end and he ought to win by 10,000 plurality in November."

Persistent Advocate of Popular Rights

Editor Davey, of the Harney County News, says of the progressive record of Ben Selling, progressive Republican nominee for United States Senator: "Ben Selling was an earnest and persistent advocate of popular rights and privileges when the men who are now leading the noisy band of Roosevelt shouters were among the most hide-bound stand-patters, some of them going so far as openly to refuse as members of the Legislature to vote for the successful candidate of their own party for United States Senator, just to emphasize their opposition to the popular system of election."

Having to his credit a record of 16 years of active endeavor in the progressive cause, friends of popular government in this state should have no hesitancy in supporting Ben Selling for United States Senator.

There is one thing about Ben Selling's progressiveness—it was not born yesterday. He has always been a progressive and as the Republican nominee for Senator is entitled to the vote of every progressive.
