School Notes

Three new pupils have entered Miss Crabtree's room: Mabel Mary Brower, and Delbert Murphy.

This month's test seemed pretty stiff to some of us, but we managed to stand fairly well in it.

The ninth grade bookkeeping class is progressing nicely. The monthly standings are taken in part from neatness in daily work.

Merna Weddle was absent one day last week on account of blood poisoning in her left foot.

Mr. Nance's room averaged well in the monthly test. Seven pupils did not fall below 70% in any study.

Luther Walker missed one day last week on account of sickness.

A program of recitations and other features is given by Mr. Nance's pupils on the last Friday of each month.

Mr. Nance has two new pupils now: Floyd Brower and Mae George.

Lizzie Lee is visiting relatives in Portland.

Clinton George has entered the second grade.

The third grade is taking up the story of Columbus.

New pictures and plants have been added to Miss Hollister's room.

Herschel Brower started to school in the primary room.

Mrs. Pratt has some photographs taken of the primary reading class several years ago. They were sent to the Lewis and Clark World's Fair at Portland, Oregon, in 1905, in which they took first place in the Marion county exhibit. Most of the pupils photographed in these pictures are in the Stayton High School now.

New framed pictures of Lincoln and Washington have been added to Miss Mack's room.

Ruth Roy was absent Tuesday on account of sickness.

Miss Mack's room has won a point toward becoming a standard school.

Pupils of 6th and 7th grades are working hard on Current Events.

Miss Mack is reading Shakespeare in the story form. She has just finished Macbeth.

The best to eat at the handiest place to eat. Now in Stayton Hotel Dining Room

The Salem high school girls are braiding their hair and letting it hang down their backs in the good old fashioned way. It is handy for the boys to pull too.

The Mill City correspondent of the Santiam News says that the color of the caterpillars this year indicates a cold fall, a mild winter and a cold spring. He fails to state exactly what color scheme the aforesaid caterpillars have but we presume it must be quite variegated.

MAX GEHLAR

REPUBLICAN, DIRECT PRIMARY, CANDIDATE

FOR COUNTY CLERK

Nominated at the Primaries last April on a platform of

Economy, Experience and Efficiency

We was formerly Deputy County Clerk and knows the business of the office from A to Z. He has worked his own way up from the farm, and though yet a young man, he has held every position in responsible office work from the lowest to the highest, and having made a success in his own business, he submits himself to the wishes of the people on election day.

I have only one promise to make and that is this: I will put in all my time for the county and I will work just as hard and faithfully for the county as I have for myself heretofore. By so doing I am confident that I can conduct the important business of the office in a careful and business-like way and at the least possible expense to the taxpayers of whom I am one. Paid adv.

WHY

Congressman W. C. Hawley Should Be Re-elected to Congress

Because in point of ability, experience and qualifications no opposing candidate can favorably compare with him.

Because to large abilities and efficiency is added his known honesty, manhood and a character without blemish.

Because born in Oregon he knows her needs and has already secured millions of dollars for public improvements in the First District.

Because he travels thousands of miles over his district annually conferring with his constituents and learning their needs.

Because it has been proven that he is industrious, able, efficient and successful in serving all the people and not a favored few.

Because he has been a faithful public servant, working up to a position of influence in national affairs so that presidents Taft and Roosevelt, his associates of all parties and constituents generally, praise him in terms similar to those used by Governor West, after a visit to the National Capital when he said in an interview: "In intellect, oratorical ability and devotion to the interests of the people, Hawley stands head and shoulders above the majority of the members of the National House of Representatives." (Paid Adv. Congressional Committee, 1st. District.)
