Since the announcement that the farmers of this country have nine billion dollars to spend this year, a good many boys who left the farms some time ago are making arrangements to get back to the soil—long enough to "touch" the old man for a bit of his profits.

A San Francisco man has voted fifteen times for president, but a San Francisco man can vote that many times in one day if he can get around fast enough.

It has been found by Ohio poultrymen that the fuzzy hat makes an ideal hen's nest. This adds proof to the saying that nothing was ever made in vain.

"Autocrash" has been accepted as a new word. The passion for speed is adding more rapidly to the dictionary than to the population.

Chicago has founded a magazine which will be devoted entirely to poetry. Chicago poetry ought to make interesting reading.

A great many people don't care who is congressman as long as they get their free garden seed regularly.

A California paper wants to know the feminine of "boss." Well, in the average household, "boss" is a feminine.

Probably before the suffragists get through, they will be claiming that it was Adam's backbone that was taken away from him instead of a rib.

Some one has raised the question of whether widows should be allowed to marry again. Off-hand, we should say it is a question of chances.

France offers $80,000 for a device that will make aeroplanes safe. It would be just as easy and quite as sensible to offer $80,000,000.

Dr. Wiley says a woman of forty should be more beautiful than a woman of twenty. But women never get to be forty.

The baby born on a fast New York train at least has had a good start in life.

One Chicago man hit another with a cake of ice. He should be arrested for carrying congealed weapons.

Trying to do business without advertising is like winking at a pretty girl through a pair of green goggles. You may know what you are doing, but nobody else does.

The Bulgarians and Turks go on fighting just the same as if the United States had not had a presidential election.

DYNAMO BARGAIN

TAILOR LOCATES HERE

Mr. John Henkle, who conducted a Tailor Shop here about two years ago, in this city, will open up a modern, up-to-date Tailoring establishment in the building formerly occupied by Thomas & Lee, on Nov. 8.

Trespass Notices for sale at this office, printed on heavy cloth, 10 cents each.

SCHOOL NOTES

Ed Blakeley visited school Monday and helped with the banking in the ninth grade book-keeping class.

Miss Stella Huntly broke her arm at the Hallowe'en party, while playing snap.

The new seats that have been expected so long, have arrived and were put in Miss Crabtree's room.

Miss June Kearns visited school in Miss Crabtree's room last Wednesday.

The ninth grade is taking up Ancient Greek Myths in the history class.

Ten pupils were absent from Miss Mack's room last Friday.

Twelve pupils were reported absent in Mr. Nance's room Friday of last week.

Edna Wilds of Portland has started to school in the fifth grade and her brother Ray entered Miss Hollister's room in the third grade.

Mr. Nance's room averaged 52 pupils or 96.8% in attendance last week.

There is to be a Thanksgiving program in Mr. Nance's room on the day before Thanksgiving. All parents are invited to be present.

Two new pictures have been added to Mr. Nance's room.

New seats have been installed in Mr. Nance's room. Before they arrived, half the pupils could not touch the floor with their feet while seated.

The new library books have arrived. There are 36, making over 300 in the entire library.

There are 200 pupils enrolled in the Stayton school, 100 girls and 100 boys.

There have been only 26 tardy marks this month and 97 pupils have been neither absent nor late.

Sofia and Adam Kerber aged respectively 13 and 9, from Minnesota have entered school.

The high school pupils are going to arrange the assembly hall so that it may be used as a sort of library or reading room. The library books will be moved to this room.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION FOR 1913

The Youth's Companion appeals to every interest of family life, from housekeeping to athletics. It begins with stories of youthful vim and vigor, with articles which disclose the secrets of successful play in the great games, with charming tales of life at the girl's colleges. But The Companion does not surrender these readers when they have entered the more serious paths of life. Mothers will welcome the page for little children and the weekly doctor's article. Fathers will find the important news of the day as it is, and not as it is rumored to be. The entire household will appreciate the sketches which touch gently on common foibles or caricature eccentricity. In short, for less than four cents a week The Companion brings into the home clean entertainment, pure inspiration, fine ideals, increase of knowledge.

Names rarely seen in tables of contents will be found in The Companion's Announcement for 1913, which will be sent upon request—with samples of the paper, to those not familiar with it.

Every new subscriber for 1913 will receive free all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1912; also free, The Companion Window Transparency and Calendar for 1913, in rich translucent colors—the most beautiful of all Companion souvenirs.

The Woman Makes the Home

She makes it best who, looking after the culinary department, turns her back resolutely upon unhealthful, or even suspicious, food accessories. She is economical; she knows that true economy does not consist in the use of inferior meat, flour, or baking powder. She is an earnest advocate of home made, home baked food, and has proved the truth of the statements of the experts that the best cooking in the world today is done with Royal Baking Powder.
