LOCAL PRECINCT DEIDRICH BLOCK

ored Bushey for Judge, Beckwith for Commissioner, Wehrum for Sheriff, Gehlar for Clerk, Aufranc for Recorder, Swegle for Assessor, Moore for Treasurer, Smith for School Supt., Herrick for Surveyor, and Clough for Coroner, while Downing, Heltzel, Feller, Baumgartner and Johnson lead in the race for representative. J. B. Grier was elected Justice of the Peace, while Henry Smith was chosen Constable.

On the amendments and other measures on the ballot, Stayton for the most part voted negatively. The two measures relating to the outside employment of convicts, however, passed in this precinct, as did also those regarding liabilities of bank stockholders; the regulation of corporations by the Railroad Commission; the prohibition of an emergency clause in tax bills passed by the Legislature; the division of taxable property into different classes; and the creation of a high school fund. This last measure, however was probably defeated in the county.

SWEATERS! SWEATERS!

This morning we are in receipt of two large consignments of ladies' and gentleman's sweaters. Those nice and ones, just what you want, all sizes. We doubt if a store in Oregon has a better display of good, up-to-date sweaters. Salem Woolen Mill Store.

The most acceptable Xmas gift for your friends and relatives is a good photo of yourself. Let Lau make you a dozen. 11-28

NOTICE

We have put on a stage to West Stayton, morning and evening, which meets the north and south bound trains. Stayton Stables. tf.

The son of one of Stayton's citizens, whose name will not be mentioned, was arrested and fined in the justice' court here for carrying a concealed weapon. The fine was remitted by Justice Grier during good behavior of the lad.

Justice Grier and other prominent citizens also handed it out to us straight that their would be more arrests following violation of the city ordinance prohibiting the shooting of firearms in the city limits. There has been quite a little of this, we understand, along the river and in the eastern part of the incorporation, with one or two narrow escapes from an accidental shooting. Be wise and "cut it out."

While we are handing out advice, we might as well say that we are very close on the trail of the party or parties who took the stuff from the back of The Mail office a few weeks ago. If the property is returned soon the matter will be dropped, if not, we will prosecute just as soon as a little more evidence is acquired.

F. A. Pietrok, who lives between this city and Scio, has purchased the lumber mill of W. Pritchard of near Lyons, and will move to that place in the near future and operate the mill.

Wanted—Good milk cow, fresh or about to be fresh. Address J. H. Kreps, Scio, or phone line 19. 11-14-x
 You can reserve a table for yourself and family at the Thanksgiving dinner to be given by the Catholic Ladies.

The new Deidrich block, the most handsome building to be erected here this year, is now completed and the occupants have already taken possession. The new building is of the most modern type, and forms a valuable addition to the business section of this city. Being of fireproof construction, the building is a safe as well as a handsome structure. It is built of concrete blocks set with mortar of a darker shade, thus securing a very attractive contrast. The front and north walls are raised above the roof in chateau style, giving an extremely pleasing effect. The lumber throughout is selected stock, furnished by the Jos. Petzel mill.

The building covers a ground space of 50x100 feet. The ground floor is occupied by Mr. Deidrich's hardware store, and the Bureau Bar, conducted by Roy Mullinix. The saloon is 23x60 feet, and the balance of the ground floor is taken by Mr. Deidrich's large stock of implements and hardware. The sales room covers a space 25x60, while in the rear is a storeroom, 40x50.

The second floor is fitted up for offices and living rooms. The corner office is taken by Attorney S. H. Heltzel, and the Mullinix and Deidrich families are occupying the living rooms. The upstairs is tastily and conveniently fitted up, and is in keeping with the balance of the building.

Mr. Mullinix has moved his fixtures from his old location on Second street, and now has an establishment that will compare favorably with first class saloons anywhere.

Mr. Deidrich has not quite completed the placing of his large stock, as he expects to install some new shelving to accommodate his large line of kitchen ware. However, he has finished the task of moving, and is entirely ready to accommodate customers at the new stand. The modern, plate glass front, and the neatly arranged interior, make the store one of the most attractive in Stayton.

The erection of the building was made necessary by the fact that Mr. Deidrich's business was outgrowing his old quarters. As the new store was arranged to accommodate this increasing trade, Mr. Deidrich now has fully twice as much room as before, and expects to carry twice as large a stock. He has not added any new lines but will carry a much more complete stock of all the lines he already handled, including farming implements, builders' hardware, paints, stoves and ranges, and general household hardware.

Both Mr. Deidrich and the town of Stayton should be proud of the new block. Its construction was not a contract job, but was done under the direct supervision of Mr. Deidrich, who is to be complimented on the successful way in which he carried on the work, and the very satisfactory results he accomplished.

HALLÓWE'EN

Hallowe'en, 1912, was fittingly observed in Stayton by a number of parties and entertainments. The largest of these was given by Manager Rizzo of the Stayton Theatre, who combined a lunch with his regular motion picture show, and drew a large crowd. His entertainment was a good one, with three exceptionally amusing reels of pictures, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mrs. C. H. Brewer held a Hallowe'en party for a group of the little folks about town, who reported a pleasant evening. Miss Mack of the local school entertained the sixth, seventh and eighth grades at her home on the evening of Hallowe'en. Games and refreshments made the time pass pleasantly, and the affair was voted a success by those present. The girls and boys club of the Methodist Sunday school held a party on the evening following Hallowe'en, at the home of Rev. Mace. About twenty-five were present and an enjoyable time was had.

One other Hallowe'en party was given at the Opera House, a number of young folks about town gathering there for the occasion. This affair was marred by an accident which occurred to Stella Huntley, who fell and broke her arm. Later in the evening the party adjourned to the Stayton Theater where they saw the concluding pictures of the special Hallowe'en show.

See Lau at "The Bungalow" between 9 and 3 o'clock for your photo. Prices reasonable, satisfaction sure. 11-28

"Increasing One's Value," is the subject at the Methodist church Sunday morning. In the evening the pastor will discourse on "Liquor."

TWO ORGANS FOR SALE
PAY $2.50 PER MONTH

They are both fine organs, high top with mirror, and are musically as good as new, while the cases are not marred beyond the wear occasioned by reasonable use for a year or two.

The Schultz organ can be had for $35—worth $95 when new. The Chicago Cottage organ can be had for $45—worth $110 when new.

The organs were traded in by J. C. Gallagher, the Eiler's Music House representative, who while here this week, sold five pianos. The organs are at Brewer's Drug Store, Stayton.

MADE-IN-OREGON-SUITS—

Have you seen those suits at the Salem Woolen Mill Store, the cloth of which was made by our local mill and the garments made up by Michaels, Strong & Co. of Rochester, New York? We sell them at $18.00. Come and see them and then compare them with those Oregon-made to hawk at a yard less. You can then fully appreciate well and up-to-date tailoring on Oregon fabrics.
