With The Same Make of Gun

one nation destroys another. It is how to manage the gun that secures success: therefore, it is not the gun alone but the knowing how to manipulate it.

No man succeeds in business with his back towards his business. He must face the problem with determination and tact. He must select the goods people want. He must determine first that values are the objects sought, and prices must be in unison with such merchandise.

Under these conditions and considerations

Gardner & Hobson

have selected their spring stock of merchandise, which is now arriving daily.

The stock consists of DRY GOODS, LADIES' WEAR, GROCERIES, and in fact everything kept in a FIRST CLASS MERCHANDISE STORE.
