We Know It

A preacher at the close of one of his sermons said: "Let all in the house who are paying their debts stand up" Presently every man, woman and child, with one exception, rose to their feet.

The preacher seated them and said, "Now every man not paying his debts stand up." The exception, a careworn, hungry looking, individual clothed in his last summer suit, slowly assumed a perpendicular position. "How is it my friend," asked the minister, "You are the only man not to meet his obligations?" "I run a newspaper," he answered meekly, and the brethren here, who stood up, are my subscribers and—"Let us pray," exclaimed the minister.
