

The Santiam Woolen Mills Co., Stayton, Oregon

Commencing WED. Oct. the 8th and up to SAT. Oct. the 18th

WILL INSTITUTE A

GIGANTIC MILL END SALE

OF WOOLEN GOODS OF THEIR OWN MANUFACTURE CONSISTING OF BLANKETS, DRESS GOODS, WOOL BATTS, ETC.

Date Extended on account of

$10.00 Blankets, Sale Price	$8.00
8.00 Blankets, Sale Price	6.75
7.50 Blankets, Sale Price	5.75
6.00 Blankets, Sale Price	4.80
5.00 Blankets, Sale Price	4.00
4.00 Blankets, Sale Price	3.00

mistake made last week

Dress Goods $2.50, Quality Regular Price $1.25

This Sale 10% off

OUR DRESS GOODS ARE BROWNS, GREYS, NAVY BLUES AND ARE 56 INCHES WIDE. BRING YOUR PATTERN AND GET THE EXACT NUMBER OF YARDS NEEDED.

These Goods Are Positively All Wool

200 pair slightly damaged Blankets imperfections rarely noticable at less than cost to make them. In this lot is included 50 singles or one half pairs.---Beautiful Pure white Wool Blankets with dainty Pink or Blue Stripes. A small stain or 2 inches short puts these in the damaged class. 40 pairs to be sold and only one pair to each purchaser. This is the opportunity of the age to secure bargains, real bargains in blankets, No shoddy, no substitutes, just pure woolen goods made from Pure Oregon Wool and made in an Oregon Woolen Mill. This sale continues for one week only, commencing October 8th. Come early when the stock is complete and make your selection. Nothing reserved and after this sale the regular prices will be charged on all goods that we Manufacture.

SANTIAM WOOLEN MILLS

By JOHN P. WILBUR, Pres.

ATTENTION FARMERS

We wish to remind you that we are the agents in this territory for the well known KENTUCKY GRAIN DRILL. If you are going to buy a drill this season, you should call and see us, for you cannot buy a better drill than the Kentucky, and our prices are right.

BLATCHFORD BROS., Shelburn, Ore.

Mrs. W. H. Ward of Goldendale Wash. visited at the home of her sister Mrs. Jos. Fisher the first of the week.

Mrs. John Mielke, Miss Mary Warner and J. R. Miller and wife went to the Hot Springs Monday for a month's stay.

News was received here this week that Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lau of the Hawaii Islands are the proud parents of a baby boy.

Mrs. Maude Hollister left yesterday for Centralia, Wash. to visit her mother before returning to her home in California.

C. M. Weeks of Spokane Wash. is visiting at the Hosford home this week and renewing old friends here.

Everett McRae came home Monday and found a neat hole drilled through one of his front windows by a 22 rifle bullet. Some one must have elevated their sights considerable out toward the Red Mill road.

There will be a Bible school rally at the Christian church Sunday morning October 12, at 10 o'clock. Subject of the morning sermon is "The Church and the Bible School", and the subject of the evening sermon is "The Church a Spiritual Temple."

"OHIO FLOOD" PICTURES

To-night
Stayton Theatre—10c

Frank Hamman and family moved to Stayton Tuesday.

Floyd Crabtree returned from Eastern Oregon Sunday.

Mr. Childs and family of Mill City moved to Stayton Saturday.

Mrs. Noah King of Ethel, Wash., is visiting here this week.

C. J. Seibel and wife of Union Hill were Stayton visitors Tuesday.

C. C. Nott and wife of Union Hill moved to Stayton one day last week.

Miss Maggie Fehlen left for Corvallis Saturday where she will attend school.

Authur Forrette of West Stayton was a business visitor here Wednesday.

Mrs. Dora Shereve spent the weekend visiting with her mother in Dallas.

L. D. Brown and wife of Lyons were trading with Stayton merchants Monday.

Dr. Pintler, Miss Alta Hobson and Mrs. W. H. Hobson visited in Scio Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Richards and Miss Bertha Titze of Mehama were visiting in town Monday.

Harvey Beauchamp and mother left Monday for Portland where they will spend the winter.

Miss Lettie Weddle who has been in Independence for some time returned home Monday.

Mrs. A. E. Olmsted who has been visiting friends in Corvallis returned home yesterday.

Miss Roxy Stayton returned to Seattle Tuesday after a weeks' visit with home folks.

John Henkel and wife returned home Saturday after a few days visit in Salem and Portland.

Lee Pittman of Bellingham, Wash. spent the week-end in Stayton renewing old friends here.

Chas. Cladek and wife returned from the Hot Springs yesterday after an extended outing at that place.

FOR SALE—200 bushels of cheat seed at 35 cents per bushel. Inquire of Gus Harold. Kingston Oregon.

A. L. Murphy and wife, Avery Murphy and family and Everett McRae and wife returned from Independence one day last week.

Beauchamp's Corn Remedy removes corns, more effectively than by cutting and less dangerous. Sold on a guarantee 25c at Beauchamp's Drug Store.

The Mehama Hotel is now open for business under the personal supervision of Mrs. M. E. Bruce, who will see to it that guests are kindly and properly treated.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Rankin of Portland and Chester Loomis of Long Beach, Wash., visited over Saturday and Sunday at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lambert.

GLOBE TROTTER RETURNS

Albert and Ben Roy are at home for a few days. Ben is just back from a ten month's trip on the continent and has a very "cosmopolitan" look. He expects to work for his brother Albert in the Roy jewelry store in Portland.

SPECIAL SESSION

The city council met in special session last night and granted A. D. Gardner et al. the right to macadam Third street in front of their residences. Looks like we might have a little street improvement this year after all.

MADE IN OREGON BLANKETS

Have you gone to see those bargains in wool blankets at the Woolen Mill? Good, honest Made in Oregon blankets, all wool and no shoddy. By all means go and see them. One lady went, saw, and bought six pairs. The prices go back to the old level after October 18.

"First Pick" cigars. Home made Just Right. 11-27

TREASURERS REPORT FOR THE TOWN OF STAYTON

Quarter ending September 30 1913

GENERAL FUND
Balance on hand June 30 1913	$2308.01
Collections since	1222.56
	3530.57
Warrants paid	1368.76
Balance general fund	2162.11
	3530.57

WATER FUND

Collections since June 30 1913	$378.35
	878.35
Over drawn June 30 1913	71.44
Warrants paid	63.96
Balance water fund	242.95
	378.35

TOTAL AMOUNT ON HAND

General Fund Balance	$2162.11
Water Fund Balance	242.95
	2405.06

DEPOSITED AS FOLLOWS

Stayton State Bank	$1275.65
Farmers & Merchants Bank	1129.41
	2405.06

Respectfully Submitted,
J. M. Ringo
Treasurer for The Town of Stayton

Mt. Pleasant

J. M. Ray came down from Lebanon Monday for a short visit with relatives.

Mrs. M. F. Ryan returned home Monday from Salem.

The Mt. Pleasant school started Monday with W. H. Fuson as teacher.

Miss Bessie Shank spent Sunday with her cousin Mrs. Leslie Townes.

Pat Lambert and wife spent Sunday at the home of their daughter Mrs. Roy Brenner of near Lyons.

Mrs. Lizzie Reis and son Archie of Albany are visiting at the John Huber home.

W. R. Ray and wife and H. Shank and family camped at the State Fair last week.

Call at my office in need of glasses We have had many years Experience Fitting glasses in Eastern cities, hence all work first class. Special attention to children. Prices reasonable. Dr. Eatou, Chiropractor and Optometrist. One door north of Lancefield's Shoe Store.

Rexall Celery and Iron Tonic will relieve that weakened, tired out, run down condition, whatever the cause or money back. $1.00 large bottle. Beauchamp's Drug Store.

David Aegerter has his new gasoline engine out sawing wood for the neighbors.

Mrs. Frank Haberman spent Sunday night with home folks.

Chas. Lambert went to Salem Monday to take up school work at the Stailey's Business College.

Mrs. Leslie Barnett of Wasco is visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. John Huber.

Mr. and Mrs. Ona Shelton and children are spending a few days with home folks.

F. T. Thayer and family have moved to their new home in Scio

Misses Dorthy and Maude Smith spent Sunday with Vera and Roxana Shank.

G. H. Ray and Arnold Senz were among those attending the State Fair.

Church was quite well attended Sunday Rev. Blair's son taking his fathers place.

Mr. Fuson is staying at the H. Shank home.

Pat Lambert made a business trip to Scio Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hottinger entertained Mr. Hottinger's sister over Sunday.

Mr. Townes, Ed Smith, B. Minton and Harry Shank are busy harvesting a large prune crop.

"The Flower of Arizona"

IN THREE ACTS

A Side Splitting Western Comedy Drama

BY
FRED A. WATTERS AND COMPANY

Sunday, Oct. 12th

Movies Between Acts

STAYTON THEATRE

POPULAR PRICES 25 & 35c