

The STAYTON MAIL

Published every Thursday by
E. M. Olmsted

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Stayton,
Marion county, Oregon, under the act of Congress of March 3, 1879.
All communications should be addressed to THE STAYTON MAIL.

SUBSCRIPTIONS, $1.50 per year in advance
Advertising Rates on application
CARDS of THANKS—$.50 OBITUARIES—$1.00 up.

Positively all papers stopped on expiration of subscription

Turner Tidings

A. W. Earl's have moved into Turner for the winter.

Miss Anna Baker has gone back to her work in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Putman and Mrs. Tom Millier attended the funeral of "Doc" Gibson at Salem Tuesday. Mr. Gibson was a brother of Mrs. Putman.

Mrs. Laura Howe bought Mrs. Lyle's Millinery stock and trade.

Dr. Anderson of Orenco, Ore., spent Saturday in Turner

City Election held at the City hall Monday. New list of Officers for 1914 are: G. F. Booth Mayor, A. S. Wright and Henry Crawford the Councilmen, H. A. Thiessen Recorder and G. A. G. Moore Treasurer.

Mehama Mites

Mrs. Fred Horner and children of Mill City visited relatives here last week.

Luther Stout put a telephone in his house.

Rue Drager and family visited relatives in Salem last week.

A Thanksgiving dinner was given at Wm. Mulkey's home. Those present were: Lewis Stout and wife, Mrs. Fred Horner and children, Mr. Jones and family, Miss Bertha King, Geo. Mulkey, Mr. Swank and Mr. Lieche.

The blacksmith shop was closed Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown who have been living in Mill City visited relatives here last week.

Several men worked on the telephone line Tuesday.

Mt. Pleasant

Leslie Townes and wife called at the Fax Thayer home Monday evening.

Lewis Ray went to Mill City Friday where he expects to work for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Linn Lambert visited home folks Tuesday.

George Ray spent Saturday night at the H. Shank home.

Chas. Lambert of Salem spent Thanksgiving with home folks.

The Misses Zona and Cora Ray and Maggie Smith were guests at the Shank home Sunday.

Mrs. John Huber and Mrs. Kate Huber who have been quite sick are said to be very much improved.

Miss Crystal Shank returned to Albany Monday morning.

This part of the district was quite well represented at the road meeting at Jordan Friday.

The Misses Mabel and Ada Thayer of Scio spent Thursday night and Friday as the guests of Mabel Townes.

C. D. Alexander of Albany spent Thanksgiving at the Ed Smith home.

Miss Maude Anderson visited at the Fax Thayer home Friday.

Misses Besse Shank and Marjorie Ryan spent Thanksgiving at the F. Haberman home at Turners.

Miss Mabel Townes returned to Portland Sunday to resume her school duties.

Henry and Joe Lutz of Lebanon spent several days at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Pat Lambert.

On Thanksgiving night the young people of the neighborhood gave Miss Mabel Townes a surprise party. A large crowd was present and report a very enjoyable time.

Floyd Shelton went to Scio Saturday night.

Miss Grace Shank and Frank Lambert were guests of Miss Ethel Smith Sunday.

Don't forget that there is to be church Sunday.

The Sunday School is making arrangements for a Xmas tree and entertainment.

Leslie Townes and Lee Downing attended the shooting match held at Jordan Thanksgiving.

M. F. Ryan and family and Pat Lambert and family were guests at the H. Senz home Sunday afternoon.

Elmer Ray made a short call at the Kloeer home Sunday evening.

Frank Senz is working at the Lee Downing home this week.

W. R. Ray and wife were Stayton visitors Monday.

The singing given at the H. Shank home Sunday evening was well attended.

Mrs. H. Shank called at the John Huber home Friday.

Josie Francis and Mathieu Kloeer called at the Ed Dougherty home Sunday.

V. Downing spent Thanksgiving with his brother Lee.

Neva Thayer was the guests of her cousin Cora Ray last week.

W. H. Fuson, our teacher, and family attended the teachers Institute at Albany last week.

West Stayton

Frank VanNuys who is attending school in Albany spent the week end at home.

Felix VanErman and wife of Stayton visited at the A. H. Wolf home Thursday.

A. Forrette and wife made a business trip to Stayton Tuesday.

Arthur Branch and family visited with friends near Sublimity Sunday.

Bert Walling made a trip to Corvallis last week.

Lulu Rice returned from Portland Wednesday.

John Costakes and Ernest Popidians have gone to California.

R. J. Kusy and wife spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Marion.

A carload of fat hogs and lambs were shipped to Portland from here Tuesday.

The new home of Mr. Ruby is fast nearing completion.

Julius Groencella has treated his residence to a new coat of paint.

Juni Condit was an Aumsville visitor the first of the week.

Lyons and Fox Valley

Mr. Geo. Cums of Grants Pass was in town on business this week.

ALBANY'S BIGGEST STORE CLOSED

WEDNESDAY Night, Dec. 3, 1913 the doors of Chambers & McCune's big Women's and Children's Store in Albany closed its doors! Sixty days ago Chambers & McCune were notified by their landlord that they must positively comply with the landlord's terms or vacate the premises at the expiration of their present lease! This news, coming like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, forced Chambers & McCune into the most Gigantic "Forced to Move" sale in the history of the Willamette Valley!!!

Chambers & McCune "Forced to Move"

Prices were literally shattered! $100,000 of new Fall and Winter merchandise was on hand at the time this notice was served, and desperate efforts were made to convert it into cash at once! But the stock was too large—normal efforts would not dispose of it within the time set! So the store was closed all day Thursday, Dec. 4, and every article in this Gigantic stock was again Slashed and Slaughtered in price!!! Now comes the

Last Terrific Sacrifice!

Chambers & McCune's New Stock!

WITHOUT a parallel in the annals of merchandising in the Northwest, this Sale will stand forth as the greatest value-giving Bargain Carnival!!! Think of It! New fashionable up-to-date merchandise such as Chambers & McCune carries, being sold at prices one half less than it is worth this early in the season! Hundreds and hundreds of prices throughout the store are so low as to be positively astonishing and unbelievable until you see the merchandise and the price tags in plain figures!

BIG $100,000 STOCK, WOMEN'S CLOAKS and SUITS, MILLINERY, SHOES, DRY GOODS etc. at SENSATIONAL FINAL SACRIFICE!!

WHEN the store reopens for the last and Final Bursting Effort to sell the remainder of this wonderful stock, throngs of people will go to Albany to participate in this feast of Bargains!! Here is your opportunity to save many, many dollars on merchandise that has always been the standard in this section! Chambers & McCune's misfortune is your opportunity—Grasp it!!! Come on the first train—don't delay—for delays cost money and may cost you the suit, the coat, the hat that you want!!! Everything in the store at prices that are so low that we are afraid to publish them for fear that you couldn't believe the truth of the statements!! But come and see—be astonished at this, the Greatest Value Giving Sale in Oregon!!! A Legitimate Sale with a Legitimate Purpose!!!

Store Re-opens Friday, Dec. 5th 1913 at the Stroke of 9 a. m. Be there when the doors swing open—Secure 1st Choice

Free! Your Railroad fare—If you Purchase merchandise to the amount of $20 or over—This in addition to the Smashing Reductions on Every single Article in the Mammoth Chambers & McCune stock Forced to Move Free!

Mr. Olson of Brownsville and his two deputies were in town a few days working in the interest of the Superior Hospital Association.

W. W. Clark and Joe McEuslow of Seattle were guests at the Hotel Abel.

Mr. Shepherd and wife and Jess Shepherd and wife dined at Ma Abel's Sunday and attended the funeral of Freddie Brotherton.

Mr. Swarout was in Portland on business a few days last week returning Sunday on the motor.

Last week as we were going to Fox Valley a monster buck deer crossed through Frank Johnstons place, across the road and the through Mr. Abel's place. He had a fine pair of horns.

John Potter and Fred Waters were in town on business one day last week.

Webbie Cooken and Miss Lola Westenhause dined with Mrs. Abel Thanksgiving.

Mr. Abel was on the sick list a few days last week.

David Crocket of Lacombe passed through Lyons on his way to Gates to see uncle Billie Thomas who has been quite sick for three weeks.

Mr. Barber of Texas is visiting his cousin Mrs. Metzger.

Last Tuesday being the 71st birthday of Grandma Maybee, several of her old neighbors gathered in the afternoon to give her a surprise. Mrs. Johnston served a dainty luncheon and all had an enjoyable time.

The mask ball at Lyons was a success. Mrs. Carrie Donison and Frank Bass took the prize as being the best masked couple, he representing an Indian chief and she a squaw.

(Too late for last week)

Miss Shindler the Fox Valley school teacher went to Albany Saturday to visit relatives and attend the teachers institute.

Pa Ables is on the sick list again, we hope he will be alright soon.

Mrs. H. F. Bodeker is reported much better.

We had quite a snow storm last Thursday night, the ground really got white.

Mrs. E. E. Trask visited at the J. H. Johnston home one day this week.

The Fox Valley school does not reopen again until Monday after Thanksgiving.

Mrs. M. Titns has returned to her home near Kingston.

Miss Jane Woodworth is working at the J. H. Johnstons at the present.

L. C. Trask, wife and daughter were visitors at the E. E. Trask home Sunday.

Velvie Lewis and family are visiting relatives near Salem this week.

W. H. Trask went to Mill City last Sunday.

G. F. and J. H. Johnston made a business trip to Mill City last week.

The suprise party was well attended last Saturday night in spite of the rain. A good time was reported by all.

