Rheumatic Throat
Is Common Trouble
Should Be Treated in Blood
To Prevent Recurrence.

There are infectious germs that stop normal blood flow, but to prevent their increasing return, the blood must be put in order. The best remedy is S. S. S., as it influences all the functions of the body to neutralize the irritants or waste products and to stimulate their excretion through the proper channels.
Rheumatic sore throat is a dangerous indication, as it means that the blood is loaded with more uric acid than the kidneys can excrete, and may thus lead to serious general disturbance.
The action of S. S. S. stimulates cellular activity. It prevents the accumulation of irritants in local spots. It enables the arteries to supply quickly the new red blood to replace worn-out tissue.
For this reason uric acid that finds the throat an easy prey to its breaking-down influence, is scattered and eliminated.
In other words, S. S. S. prevents chronic conditions by enabling all the mucous linings of the body to secrete healthy mucus. Its influence is shown in a marked improvement of the bronchial tubes, whereby the hoarseness of voice with thick, grayish expectorations is overcome. S. S. S. will dilute with water, means a blood bath, since it is welcome to any stomach and at once gets into the blood.
S. S. S. is free of all minerals and contains ingredients wonderfully conducive to well-balanced health.
You can get it at any drug store, but do in substitutes. S. S. S. is prepared only by

BRITISH DEFEAT GERMAN CORPS

Imperial Guard, Led by Crown Prince, Claimed Annihilated.

General Pau Announces Victory Over Germans in North—Million in Battle.

London.—A Boulogne dispatch to the Evening News says a telegram has been received from General Pau announcing a victory by the allied forces at Prey Sur Oise.

The Imperial Guard, under Crown Prince Frederick William, is reported to have been annihilated by the British force which opposed them.

The Evening News dispatch says:
"A telegram has been received from General Pau announcing a victory by the allied forces under Field Marshal Sir John French, commanding the British, and General d'Amade at Prey Sur Oise, about 25 miles north of Paris.

"The allies were drawn across the northern line with the center at Prey.
The English troops were on the left and the French on the right. The former had in front of them the Imperial Guard under Crown Prince Frederick William.

"On both wings, it is reported, the allies were successful. The German left was held by the French and retired to the north.

"The Imperial Guard, who were ordered to surrender, were annihilated by the British. It is reported that the Crown Prince was in their midst."

The British official bureau has received no confirmation of this message.

An earlier official statement given out in Paris said that a general action had started on the line from Nanteuil-Hardouin to Verdun, a distance of 120 miles. It was then said that, thanks to the vigorous action of the French troops, supported by the British, the Germans had "started retiring."

Unofficial advices from Berlin also have indicated that a battle of tremendous importance was being fought in the territory described.

The official bureau says:
"General Joffre's plans are being steadily carried out. The allied forces, acting on the offensive, have been successful in checking and forcing back in a northeast direction the German forces opposed to them."

ALL ABLE-BODIED BRITONS ARE SUMMONED TO COLORS

London.—In the historic Guild hall of London, Premier Asquith Saturday started the crusade to stimulate enlistment under the British flag, which he intends to push through the country.
He is calling on every able-bodied Briton of military age to come to the help of his country in the hour of need.

The premier opened his Guild hall address with the announcement that up to the present between 275,000 and 300,000 recruits had responded to the call of Lord Kitchener, the secretary of war.

The premier said the empire had entered into this contest of might versus right with clean judgment and a clear conscience.

Sorority Girls Are Free.
Stanford University, Cal.—After detention by German officials at Heidelberg, three Stanford sorority girls, Miss Carolina Squires, Miss Ruth Squires and Miss Katherine Sheldon, of Palo Alto, have cabled their relatives that they have secured passage to America. The young women were allowed to proceed from Heidelberg to Rotterdam and thence to London. According to the cable message the vessel on which the party crossed the English Channel narrowly missed hitting a floating mine.

Pope Names Secretary.
Rome.—It is officially announced that Pope Benedict XV has appointed Cardinal Domenico Ferrata to be papal secretary of state. Cardinal Ferrata was born in 1847 in Montefiascone, Italy.
His work as papal nuncio at Paris and as prefect of the congregation of bishops in Rome stamped him as a finished diplomat. He presided over the Eucharist congress held last year at Malta. In 1901, when the late Cardinal Rampollo resigned as papal secretary of state, Cardinal Ferrata was mentioned as a probable candidate for the office.

Austrian Steamer Sunk.
London.—The sinking of the Austrian steamer Balthor by a British cruiser in the Bay of Biscay was reported Saturday. The Austrian steamer refused to heave to until the cruiser put a shot across her bow.
The warship then took off the crew of 26 and sent the steamer to the bottom.
The prisoners taken included a German imperial staff officer.

The Balthor was a steamer of 1385 tons. She plied between Fiume and French ports and was last reported in Havre roads August 5.

Ulstermen Going to War.
Belfast, Ireland.—Within an hour after the opening of the recruiting office for Ulster volunteers, 700 men of the North Belfast regiment had enrolled for foreign service. Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Ulster Unionists, addressed a battalion of volunteers, assuring the men that "sufficient volunteers will remain in Ulster to protect it from invasion. It will keep as a province for you until you return."

NEW POPE IS CHOSEN BY COLLEGE OF CARDINALS

Rome.—The sacred college of Cardinals Thursday elected Cardinal Giacomo Della Chiesa, archbishop of Bologna, supreme pontiff to succeed the late Pope Pius X. His coronation as Benedict XV took place September 6.

Immediately after his election the pontiff said he could not imagine how his frail being was capable of enduring the enormous weight of responsibility thrown upon his shoulders, especially at a moment when all the countries of Europe were stained with blood; when the wounds inflicted upon humanity were being inflicted on the church, and when countless victims of the war were being cut down.

The war, he said, had armed faithful against faithful, priest against priest, while each of the bishops offered prayers for the success of the army of his own nation. But victory for one side meant slaughter to the other, the destruction of children equally dear to the heart of the pon-tiff.

The conclave of the sacred college had been in session since the evening of August 31, and the final vote was not taken until the morning of September 3. When the name of Cardinal Della Chiesa was cried out by the Cardinal scrutineers as having received the prescribed two-thirds vote there was much excitement among the members of the conclave.

Then followed the traditional formula, the cardinal being asked as to whether he accepted the election.
Aldo breathless silence he answered in the affirmative, but his reply, out of profound emotion, was scarcely audible. Immediately all the cardinals removed the canopies from above their chairs, this being the tangible sign that the leadership of the church had passed from them to the newly elected pope.

Butte, Mont., Is Under Rule of State Militia

Butte, Mont.—Butte is under martial law under a proclamation issued by Governor Samuel V. Stewart Wednesday.

A proclamation issued by Major D.
J. Donohue, commanding officer, prescribed the rules for the conduct of Butte. All saloons are ordered closed until further notice and public gatherings of any character are forbidden without permission of the commanding officer. Women are not permitted on the streets after 8 p. m. nor before 6 o'clock in the morning.

Even the courts are closed, and it is commanded that all cases of law violations will be tried by the military authorities, the court to be presided over by Major Jesse B. Roote, as adjutant general.

The proclamations were spread broadcast and it was announced that the National guard would take up their positions throughout the city. They are in control now according to the commanding officer, but the laws of the state require a 24-hour notice by proclamation of martial law before the soldiers actually march into the streets of the city.

7751 Banks Are National.
Washington, D. C.—There were 7751 National banks doing business in the United States at the close of business August 31, according to a statement issued by the controller of the currency. They had an authorized capital of $1,073,524,175, and circulation outstanding of $877,540,281, of which $126,241,760 was secured by other than by United States bonds.

Eleven applications were made during August for conversion or reorganization of State banks as National banks, and 13 formal applications for organization of National banks by individuals not connected with state or National institutions. Ten of the latter were approved.

Rich Men Save Brussels.
London.—A dispatch to the Express from The Hague says the four richest men in Belgium have guaranteed the payment to Germany of the war tax which the Germans levied against Belgium. The four are Ernest Solvay, "Alkali King"; Baron Lambert, Belgium representative of the Rothschilds; Raoul Warocque, mine owner, and Baron Empain, railway magnate.
"Had not this guarantee been given," says the correspondent, "Brussels would probably have been treated as Louvain was. Big guns were mounted in front of the palace ready for bombardment."

Cotton Men Want Help.
Fort Worth, Tex.—Virtual taking over of the 1914 cotton crop by the government because of the market stagnation caused by the war in Europe was urged by prominent planters of half a dozen states at the convention of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative union. C. S. Barrett, of Union City, Ga., president, advocated an appeal to congress to provide for the outright purchase of the crop and urged the indorsement of a bill introduced by Representative Henry, of Texas, with this end in view.

British Keep Their Jam.
Washington, D. C.—War on the Continent and mobilization in England will not be allowed to affect the British breakfast. Ambassador Page, at London, reported to the State department that exportations of jam and marmalade, an essential part of the British breakfast, had been forbidden by English authorities.

NORTHWEST MARKET REPORTS.

Portland.
Portland.—All cereals are advancing in price, with wheat leading the procession. At the Merchants' Exchange sessions bids of $1.12, an advance of 2 cents, were made for bluestem, with sellers asking $1.13 and $1.14. Club was bid up to 93¢ cents, red Russian was half a cent higher at 93¢ cents and red fife a cent higher at 93¢ cents.
Buyers and sellers could not get together, and no business was transacted at the session.

The interior wheat markets were very strong, with country millers competing sharply against Coast buyers and farmers, as a rule, holding for still higher prices. For two days farmers in the Big Bend section have been receiving $1 net for their bluestem, while at Walla Walla a sale was made at $1.07. Club wheat sold on the Sound at 93¢ cents.

California is in the market for wheat of all kinds and full prices are being offered. During the past month shipments south have been large, amounting to 471,305 bushels from Portland.
Flour shipments from here to California in August were 40,171 barrels, and the Sound sent 76,955 barrels down.

Barley prices were quoted unchanged on call at $24.50 for feed and $25 for brewing. The San Francisco barley market advanced sharply, December closing at $1.25, against $1.22 on Saturday, and the May option at $1.32, as compared with $1.28 Saturday.

Seattle.
Seattle.—Predicting that Elberta peaches will sell down to 25c per box next week, the street is preparing to meet the heaviest volume of this fruit since the opening of the season. Notwithstanding that the stock has been pouring in all week, jobbers have battled to get the best price possible for the grower, but to little purpose. Domestic canning operations, which sank to a minimum since sugar began to mount upward, has paralyzed profits to the producer. With the main avenues of consumption closed, the surplus has been thrown back into the local trade, and demoralization was inevitable.
Should there be another season like this, many growers declare they will cut down their trees.

commend the Compound to all my patients if I know of their condition in time. I will gladly do all I can to help others to know of this great medicine."
