EQUITABLE SAVINGS

REPRESENTATIVE HERE

FRED M. ROWLEY, SPECIAL AGENT IS WRITING MANY STAYTON PEOPLE FOR SAVINGS DEPOSITS.

Fred M. Rowley, Special Agent for the Equitable Savings and Loan Ass'n of Portland is visiting Stayton in the interest of the Association.

The Equitable Savings and Loan Association is that famous old financial institution that was founded away back in the year 1890 having weathered all of the financial flurries and panics of the past 24 years, it stands out in a class all by itself as one of the best time tried and panic tested investment of the age.

This Association does business with people in all walks of life from the news boy and boot black in the streets to the millionaire in his elaborate office.

The Equitable handles thousands of dollars in trust funds for various church organizations and Fraternal orders especially the Odd Fellows Lodge, which organization has had matured certificates.

The men back of the Equitable are some of Oregon's best and wealthiest business men, among them are: Chas. E. Ladd, President; Theo. B. Wilcox, Vice President; Edw. Cookingham, 2nd Vice President; F. McKercher, Secretary.

Hundreds of residences through Oregon, Washington and Idaho have been handsomely rewarded by placing their savings with the Equitable; among these people are: Mr. and Mrs. John P. Wilbur, owners of the Wilbur Woolen Mills, who have at different times matured saving certificates.

The money deposited on these Saving Certificates is loaned on real-estate at one-half its value, the loanee repaying the loan on the monthly payment plan, in amount same as paying rent. The mortgages are held by the Sec. of State. The monthly payments received on loans are reloaned the following month, which thus enables the Association to reloan both principal and interest 12 times a year; hence the conservative, large interest earnings they are making and have made.

Mr. Rowley expects to remain in Stayton for a couple of weeks and is stopping at the Stayton Hotel.

EXECUTRIX APPOINTED

Dora A. Harden, of Pleasant Hill, in Lane county, was appointed executrix of the estate of Martha A. Brown by Judge Bushey yesterday morning. The estate is valued at $4500. G. L. Brown, John Thomas and S. H. Heltzel were appointed appraisers of the estate. The heirs are: Dora A. Harden, of Pleasant Hill; J. E. Brown, of Portland; C. E. Brown and G. L. Brown, of Stayton.

PROMINENT SUBLIMITY COUPLE MARRIED

(Special to the Mail)

On Tuesday of this week, October 20, at St. Boniface church at Sublimity, occurred one of the prettiest events of the season in the marriage of Miss Bertha Hendrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Hendrick, to Mr. Peter J. Etzel, a prominent young farmer of near Sublimity. Rev. Fr. Laineck officiated at the ceremony.

The bride presented a charming appearance in a gown of cream cashmere, veiled with net and carrying a bouquet of white dahlias. The maid of honor, Miss Emma Hendrick, sister of the bride, was attired in a cream cashmere and carried a bouquet of pink dahlias. The groom wore a suit of seal brown and was attended by his brother, John Etzel. Little Neva Smith looked sweet as a flower girl.

After the ceremony at the church, the happy couple repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a bountiful repast was served to a host of invited friends and relatives. Tripping the light fantastic, and games prevailed throughout the afternoon and evening in an especially prepared bower for the occasion.

The happy couple left the next day for a short wedding trip to Portland and other points. They will be at home to their many friends after November 1.

Among the out-of-town visitors present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Begerman of Idaho, relatives of Mrs. Hendrick.

HAVE YOU BOUGHT A BALE OF COTTON

The "Buy a Bale of Cotton" movement is spreading and no doubt is a good movement.

With a record crop of 5,000,000 bales surplus which cannot be sold in European markets, the Southern planter bids fair to go broke unless the American people come to his rescue and "buy a bale of cotton."

Cotton has sold for over ten cents per pound since 1904. You can buy a bale of cotton for $50 (500 lbs.) and it will be stored in a government warehouse for one year free together with free insurance for that time. If interested see the Stayton Mail for address.

John Potter, wife and baby of Me-hana are visiting friends here this week.

KITCHEN SHOWER AND WEDDING FOLLOWS

The girls of the high school and eighth grade of the Stayton school gave a surprise kitchen shower to Miss Clara Murphy on Tuesday of this week at the J. E. Sloper home. About twenty young people were present and the amount of kitchen utensils and other valuable presents given to the prospective bride would well-nigh fill a room.

On the following day Miss Clara and James Thomas, accompanied by the bride's sister, Miss Bessie Klecker, and Guy Sloper, went to Salem where the young couple were married.

The bride is the youngest daughter of G. W. Murphy of this city and has a host of friends in Stayton and vicinity. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas of near Silver Creek Falls, and is a prominent hog-grower of that part of the country.

The young people will live on the Svancara farm in the Waldo Hills, where they will be at home to their friends after November 1.

RALLY DAY NOTICE

Rally Day will be observed by the Kingston Sunday school on next Sunday, October 25, all are invited to attend, mothers especially. Come and encourage the children by your presence. Come rain or shine.

Miss A. Wourms and two brothers of Fern Ridge were trading in town Saturday.

DRAWNS GOOD HOUSE ON RETURN VISIT

The Waltmeyer & O'Connor Stock Company played a return engagement at the Star Theatre here on Tuesday night of this week.

The Farce & Comedy "R U A Moose?" was a scream from start to finish, and showed very plainly how bad a man can get tangled up when he gets in wrong. The Stayton people will no doubt give this company a good turnout whenever they decide to make us a visit in the future.

THE LATEST FAD

The latest fad in society is the tub cure. In this the patient arises just as the crisp air of the morning is mellowed by the first sunbeam. An ordinary washtub is filled with hot water and soap suds, into which various articles of linen are thrown.

After they are thoroughly saturated the patient takes them up one at a time and rubs them briskly up and down on a washboard placed in the tub. This is kept up until the hands, arms and face are glowing pink. The patient then goes into the open air and hangs all the linen articles on a line stretched for that purpose. The one completing the task first announces the time to the others over the telephone, and is entitled to a prize. It is exciting sport and also invigorating exercise.

ODD BITS OF NEWS

Racine, Wis.—Herman Raethers, hotel porter of Racine, who attracted much attention because of his bathing in Lake Michigan during the fall and winter until Christmas day, was killed at his home by falling down a stairway.

Nashville Ind.—John Artis, a pioneer living seven miles southeast of here in his ninetieth year, has advertised in the local paper for a wife. He specifies that she must be about sixty years old and have "ginger and snap" enough in her to milk two cows morning and evening.

MOVES INTO NEW BUNGALOW

Jos. Williams has moved into his fine new bungalow in the north part of this city, which was built by Lulay Bros. & Co., contractors and builders. The house is of a very artistic bungalow style and finished in a most up-to-date manner.

G. Q. Smith was down from Sublimity Monday.

TWO DANCES HERE SATURDAY NIGHT

There were two dances in town last Saturday night, one in the Beauchamp Hall and one in the I. O. O. F. building.

As the writer did not attend either he cannot say which was best; but probably both were good.

It has been said that "Competition is the Life and Soul of Business," and also some wise philosopher has remarked that; "Blessed be he who makes two blades of grass grow where but one grew before," which is probably the reason that Stayton has two good orchestras. May they both flourish and prosper.

A PROBLEM

When the editor of a country paper starts in on Monday morning to get up something for his paper in the way of interesting local news and finds after nosing around that nothing has happened in the town or community that he can write up, and nobody gives in any personals or local news, and every fellow he talks to says, "I don't know a thing," and his liver is not working just right and he feels as though he had just as soon loop the loop with Lincoln Beachey as to go to work—that's the time when he would like to turn the job over to the "Smart Aleck" who thinks he can get up a better paper than the editor and not half try.

Albert Welter, son of Nick Welter of Sublimity has returned from Canada and will make his home in Portland.

MRS. E. RUSSELL JEHU HERE LAST WEEK

Mrs. E. Russell Jehu, private secretary to Rev. W. G. McLaren of the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective Society, has been in Stayton for a few days in the interest of the Louise Home and the Albertina Kerr nursery. Mrs. Jehu was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roy who are much interested in this work. Mayor Beauchamp and the business men of Stayton who are well acquainted with the work received her cordially and the subscriptions this year have been larger than ever.

Mrs. Jehu wishes to thank the people of Stayton for the courteous and generous manner in which she has been received and extends the invitations to all who are interested in humanity to visit the homes in Portland.

DANGER IN DELAY

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous For Stayton People To Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they so often get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health will be gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease often follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, which are so strongly recommended right here in this locality.

O. T. Porter, justice of peace, 614 Elm St., Albany, Ore., says: "Seven or eight years ago, my back was in bad shape and my kidneys were disordered. Doan's Kidney Pills fixed me up all right. They made my kidneys normal and rid my back of pain. Whenever I have needed a kidney medicine since, I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills and they have benefited me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Porter had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
