CURRENCY in the pocket DEPRECIATES. In the bank it EXPANDS. A person with a $100 check in his pocket likely will go all day without cashing it. With a similar amount of currency there is a tendency to SPEND A LITTLE. The check remains intact. So it is with a bank account. A person likes to KEEP IT INTACT.

Jim, Run This Editorial Tomorrow

THE law-abiding citizens of this city want the privilege of drinking beer--the drink of True Temperance. They are weary of blind tigers, speak-casies, blind pigs, holes in the wall--the off-springs of prohibition.

Prohibition has driven away the material prosperity of the people. It has cut off from this community the revenue derived from decent beer saloons and has increased intemperance. It has largely increased public expense in the vain effort to enforce laws which cannot possibly be enforced. It has added seriously to the burden of taxation. It has depreciated the value of real estate. It has thrown many out of work. It has discouraged investment--capital has learned to shun prohibition localities.

Give the people what they want--the right to drink moderately of beer and practice the teachings of True Temperance.

By E. D. Ulrich, Ch. of Commerce, Portland, Oregon.

SHOOTING MATCH IS BIG SUCCESS

A nice crowd attended the shooting match in Stayton yesterday and the day before. The weather was perfect, and while the scores were not high compared to places where a regular gun club is kept organized, everyone seemed perfectly satisfied that they had a good time, and most of the contestants took birds home with them--as trophies of their skill.

Many homes today will have turkey or roast goose for dinner as a result of the shooting match at Stayton. A. S. Davie managed the affair in a fair and impartial manner to everyone concerned.

BIRTH RATE IS ON THE INCREASE

Dr. Brewer reports six births in the past ten days. They are as follows: To Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Morgan of near Shaw, a daughter, November 17; To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson of near Marion, a daughter, November 18; To Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Etzel of Fern Ridge, a son, November 19; To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nendel of Stayton, a daughter, November 20; To Mr. and Mrs. Epping of Linn Co., a son, November 23; To Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meier of Sublimity, a daughter, November 24.

PORTLANDED WINS NORTH SANTIAM BRIDE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin of North Santiam was the scene of a very pretty home wedding on Sunday November 22. Rev. H. E. Russell of Stayton officiating.

The contracting parties were Miss Georgia V. McLaughlin, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin, and Roy E. Maple a young business man of Portland, Oregon.

The home was beautifully decorated and the ring ceremony was used. Beryl McLaughlin, sister of the bride, acted as brides maid and Frank B. Maple, brother of the groom, was best man.

The young couple will make their home in Portland and will be home to their friends after December 13.

The Quality of the First Pick cigars will remain the same no matter if the tax is raised. A home product, the best that can be made. J. J. Lambrecht.

Clyde Hoffer and wife came down from Jordan Saturday for a few days visit with relatives. Mr. Hoffer went over to Corvallis for a few days the first of the week.
