

INDUSTRIAL NEWS

Harrisburg is to have a new city hall.

Fairview will have municipal waterworks.

Albany—flying squadron boosting cannery.

Marshfield is to have a conservatory of music.

Hubbard—building a new highway to the west.

Marshfield is to have a 50 by 140 roller skating rink.

Portland—Imperial Hotel dining room to be enlarged.

Highway from Gold Beach to Grants Pass is projected.

Bourne—development work in the mines is being pushed.

Canning jack rabbits proposed for Eastern Oregon industry.

Hill line will operate gas-electric cars on Portland-Rainier line.

D. J. Riley, Dallas, is building a movie theatre 51 by 130 feet.

The legislature was treated to cider made at the Talent cannery.

Buck box factory, Eugene, received carload steel for egg crates.

Rogue River Public Service Corporation asks franchise at Florence.

E. Jerome, Portland, is promoting a railroad from Prineville to Redmond.

Roseburg—Oregon Copper Co. will work mines in Cow Creek Canyon.

Tillamook 1914 cheese product was 3,608,843 pounds, gain 186,712 over 1913.

Celebration of establishing new Hill steamer line to Frisco at Flavel March 15.

Jim Blaine and Greenback mines in Josephine County are working stampmills.

Medford fruit and produce association will haul and pack all products for members.

Doubling the coyote bounty is to solve the unemployed problems in eastern Oregon.

Legislature estimated to have reduced appropriations $700,000 to $2,000,000 below 1913.

The man and the job are easier brought together if not kept apart by two much legislation.

City of Portland will build $100,000 dam for storage reservoir at head works on Bull Run.

There are still a few officials left who do nothing but labor to raise taxes and burden industry.

Pacific Power & Light Co., operating in Oregon and Washington shows a gain in net earnings.

Washington solons wiped out its luxurious tax commission but Oregon believes in keeping hers.

R. C. Rasmussen conducting creamery at The Dalles for 3 years, opens creamery at Pendleton.

Large shipments of burlap are entering free of duty at Portland—means cheaper sacks for farmers.

Lebanon Criterion thinks the present legislature has given the state a just excuse for its existence.

Legislature created five new judicial districts costing $10,000 a year each and Governor Withycombe vetoed three.

U. of O. has put one over O.A.C. It claims 2000 students enrolled in all departments, as against 1524 at Corvallis.

Emerson Hardwood Co. of Portland is receiving cargoes of logs from the Orient for manufacture into finishing materials.

People will return thanks that no new boards, commissions, taxes, offices or salary raises were put through the legislature.

Permanent registration law enacted will save large sums, and endless trouble to voters and make separate city registration needless.

Outside of the appropriations, there need not be many more than 20 or 30 bills introduced, instead of as many hundreds.—Condon Times.

The industrial commission should have been consolidated and simplified and the new rate of assessment of industries adopted, or that great measure for the interest of the working man is a dead measure and will be killed by the people or it will bankrupt the state.—Salem Statesman prophesy.

Seventy-five per cent of the western railroad companies would be bankrupt today had it not been for increased economies and betterments. A. W. Tronholm, general manager of the Chicago, St. Paul Minneapolis & Omaha railroad, told the board of arbitration in the western railroad wage case. "Nowadays a fireman wants some one around to wipe off the windows for him so he can see out of the cab," observed Mr. Trenholm.

Kingston Kinks

Mrs. Henry Follis of Stayton visited at the home of her son T. J. Follis one day last week.

Charley Croissant of Lyons is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Raleigh Harold is digging the basement for his new bungalow. The carpenter work is to begin at once under the supervision of Grant Murphy.

Miss Eliza Roy accompanied by her Sunday school class of girls, Zora Stowell, Wava Brown, Sylvia Sestak and Ruth Roy, walked over to the Curtis Cole home Sunday afternoon.

The horse shed that is being built at the Kingston church is near completion. The shed 100x22 ft. is being built wholly by donation. Everyone has contributed liberally, for which the church is very thankful.

Mrs. Wm. Baker visited her daughter Mrs. Geo. Chrisman a few days last week.

Raleigh Harold, wife and son, Ray visited home folks Sunday.

Louie Gisler attended the auction sale at Aumsville Saturday.

The social given a week ago Friday by the Kingston Endeavor was enjoyed by a large crowd. The Kingston young ladies have queer ideas as to what constitutes a cherry pie. Games associated with Washington's birthday and others were indulged in until midnight.

Jim Leffler and wife were Sunday visitors at the Arney Flood home.

School Notes

(Crowded out last week.)

Ed Blakely has quit school.

The first year english class is studying The Lady of the Lake.

The next milk test will be on the 26th. After this they will be on the first and third Fridays.

The sixth, seventh, and eighth grades and some of the High school pupils have sent for the Current Event.

The third grade pupils are studying Longfellow's Life in connection with the Children's Hour.

Those in the fifth grade making an average of 100% in the spelling contest were: Cecil Schaefer, Richard Childs, Zora Stowell, Rosa Allis, Alta Meyers and Amelia Rauscher; those in the fourth grade were: Giles Brown, Norwood Eskew, Sophia Kerber, Margaret Hensley, Mary Tate and Olive Cavin; those in the sixth grade were: Ella Spaniol, Mabel Weddle, Clara Mielke, Donald and Dorothy Shreve, Elma Farrar, Worth Smith and Ralph Tate; and those in the seventh grade were: Nina Hendershott, Anna Spaniol, Ethel Wirth, Nona Fulton and Robert Teague. The average of the eighth grade was 86%, the seventh was 94.1, the sixth was 96.8, the fifth was 94.4 and the fourth was 96.1.

Mill City Locals

Chester A. Lyons came up Thursday returning Friday afternoon. While here he stayed at Rev. MacLeod's home.

R. F. Kramp has been having a hard attack of LaGrippe, he is some better now but not able to resume work.

Mrs. Vollmer has started a millinery store in the I.O.O.F. building. She held her opening on Monday of this week, and we notice she has a fine supply of the latest millinery. Buy your hats at home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Quinn were given a farewell party last Thursday evening at the Opera House by the ladies of the Embroidery Club. They dispersed at a late hour wishing Mr. and Mrs. Quinn much success in their new home in Astoria. Mr. Quinn left Friday but his family expect to leave some time this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sestak of Stayton are spending a few days here this week. They are stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Bertram.

O. L. Holt and family made a flying trip to Albany, leaving Friday and returning Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Albee spent the week-end with her parents at Aumsville. She found her father very little improved in health.

Rock Point

(To late for last week)

Jake Staiger is on the sick list but is improving.

F. M. Fresh and wife visited relatives in Stayton Friday.

Miss Mary Dunnigan and E. C. Downing and wife attended the school convention in Stayton Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Branch, Alvin Burns and Walter Garrison visited friends in Stayton Sunday.

E. C. Downing and family visited at the Roy Porter home near Aumsville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Frank and daughter Ida visited at the Joe Hendricks home Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Cornelius, School Supervisor visited our school Tuesday.

Geo. Schmitt was transacting business in Aumsville Tuesday.

Elmer Sager of Aumsville was in this locality looking for wood sawing.

In the recent spelling contest, all taking part in Rock Point school made 100% except one that being 96%. Since the new teacher, Miss Dunigan, has had charge of the school the daily attendance has been perfect. An effort is being made to standardize our school.

Mt. Pleasant

The farmers of this vicinity and a small number from other vicinities met last Friday night and organized a farmers union.

Miss Hazel Lambert was a guest of Dorothy Smith Sunday.

Frances Kloor spent Sunday at the Lee Downing home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith and son Fred and Mrs. John Robinson were Sunday visitors at the D. C. Ray home.

W. R. Ray went to Lebanon Monday to visit relatives.

Chas. Lambert returned home last week after spending the winter going to school in Salem.

Frank Haberman and wife of Munkers spent Sunday at the M. F. Ryan home.

Mrs. Ona Shelton spent Sunday at the W. R. Ray home.

The singing given at the M. F. Ryan home Sunday evening was well attended, everyone reported a very interesting time.

Miss Effie Ray went to Mill City Monday morning to spend a few days with her sister Mrs. Don McKnight.

A number of the young folks attended the dance given at the G. A. Downing home Friday night.

Mrs. Ftoxie Shank and family, Elra Gainsale, Frank Lambert and David Aegertur spent Sunday at the G. H. Ray home.

Mrs. Leslie Townes and baby spent Saturday at the H. Shank home.

West Stayton

Ed Peters and sister Emma spent the week-end visiting at the Branch home.

Chris Mulkey has gone to his ranch near Mehama.

Mrs. Geo. Sweet and little son are visiting relatives in Salem this week.

Mrs. Steiniger returned to Salem Saturday after a few days visit with her daughter, Mrs. Clara Wolf.

Bert Neal has traded his ranch for a larger one near Scio, and intends moving soon.

J. Dively and wife visited at the Mick home near Sublimity Thursday.

Charley Beard of Scio was a Sunday visitor here.

Mrs. Preston Wood is improving slowly.

Mrs. Ike Tripp is dangerously ill at her home here.

Sylvanis Neal and wife returned home Friday.

Mrs. C. Loose, Leona Forrette, Harry Porter and A. Branch and family visited at the Corder home Sunday.

FOR SALE

One saw mill, including top and bottom saw, belting and rollers and all appliances necessary to run said mill by applying power. This will be a bargain to any one desiring a mill. Terms will be given to purchaser. E. A. Downing, Stayton, Ore.

The Stayton Mail

CAN SAVE YOU MONEY

ON ANY PUBLICATION PRINTED

SEE US AND BE CONVINCED

OUR CLUBBING RATES ARE ESPECIALLY ATTRACTIVE

Call us up

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WELL? BUY IT TO-DAY

Many Stayton People Know the Importance of Healthy Kidneys.

The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. Well kidneys remove impurities. Weak kidneys allow impurities to multiply.

No kidney illness should be neglected. There is possible danger in delay. If you have backache or urinary troubles,

If you are nervous, dizzy or worn out.

Begin treating your kidneys at once. Use a proven kidney remedy. None endorsed like Doan's Kidney Pills.

Recommended by thousands. Proved by Salem testimony. Joseph Wint, 668 High St., Salem, Oregon, says: "My kidneys were disordered and my back seemed to lose its strength. Doan's Kidney Pills soon fixed me up all right. I know that Doan's Kidney Pills are a fine kidney medicine and I willingly recommend them."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Wint had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

POPULAR MECHANICS MAGAZINE

For Father and Son AND ALL THE FAMILY

To and a half million readers find it absorbing interest. Everything in it is written so you can understand it. We sell 100,000 copies every month without giving prices and have no solicitors. Ask your newsdealer or write for a free sample—a postal will do. Publisher for free sample—a postal will do.

$1.50 A YEAR 15c A COPY

Popular Mechanics Magazine
2 No. Michigan Ave., CHICAGO

Rheumatic pains are relieved by Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills.