OREGON ALMANAC OUT

The Portland Commercial Club has just received from the press advance copies of the new Oregon Almanac, a volume of statistics and information regarding every community in this state. These advance copies are being sent out as rapidly as possible to all papers and periodicals in the state, also to commercial clubs and similar organizations. In about two weeks the main issue of 300,000 copies will be off the press, and will be sent out in response to written requests from individuals anxious to secure reliable data on Oregon.

Kipling's Scots Vernacular.

The Scots (Scottish or Scotch) of "McAndrew's Hymn" is so accurate that one is surprised to find Mr. Kipling representing Scotch soldiers as saying "mon." "Mon" is, of course, the conventional symbol of what a Scot utters for the word "man," but I am assured that no Scot says "mon," though there are in the north several variations of the accepted English pronunciation. Some Scots say "maun," and others "mahn." "Mon" is reserved for pantomimes and pleasantries in Punch.—London Chronicle.
