Cole School

Notwithstanding the inclement weather, quite a large number of the people of the Cole district, on May 14, brought boxes and baskets of eatables such as the ladies of the country know how to prepare to tempt the delicate appetite. And as there were several of that sort present, the feasting was rather lengthy. The house was full and about an hour and a half was spent in an old fashioned visit and sociable chats. After which the pupils entertained the company with a few selections of songs recitations, dialogues and songs.

Mr. Lester Louis and Miss Ruth Fuson rendered some instrumental selections.

This occasion marked the closing event of the school year.

We were sorry that a number of the parents could not meet with us. Also, the pupils, Harold Darby, Jack Meiser, and Wilber Dart on account of sickness were not present.

The per cent of attendance for the year has not gone below 93.

Those having no absent marks during the year are Carl Kraschewski, Crystal Bates, Carl Limbeck and Winnie and Nina Darby.

Those having the highest average in the final examination are, Maysel Montgomery, Elsie Limbeck and Dorris Meiser.

With the exception of three all made their grades.

If at first you don't succeed try, try again.
