RANDOLPH SUMERS, 150 DeKalb Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

He Desired It.

A boy walked into the office of the telegraph company at Chicago and applied for a job. He said his name was "Missouri."

The manager happened to want a messenger boy just at that moment and gave him a message that had to be delivered in a hurry.

"Here's your chance, my boy," said the manager, "these people have been kicking about undelivered messages. Now, don't come back until you have delivered it."

A little while afterward the telephone rang. On the other end of the wire there appeared to be a building watchman, somewhat terrified.

"Have you got a boy they call 'Missouri'?" inquired the watchman.

"We did have 10 minutes ago," replied the manager.

The watchman continued: "That 'Missouri' fellow came over here and said he had to go to one of the offices. We don't allow no one up at that office at this hour and I told him he couldn't go."

"Yes, yes," said the manager. "Well," said the watchman, "he said he would go and I had to pull my gun on him."

"But you didn't shoot him?" exclaimed the manager.

"No," meekly came back the response over the wire, "but I want my gun back."

His Only Chance.

"Robinson is an awful pest at the club. He talks and talks all the time."

"Oh, well, you can't blame him, poor chap! He has a wife and three daughters at home."

RUSSIA DECIDES TO EVACUATE WARSAW

Minister of War Outlines Plans of Retreat From Capital.

TEUTONS ARE DRIVING DOUBLE WEDGE

Abandonment of City Declared Will Insure Final Victory to Russian Army, as in War of 1812.

London—The Russian war minister, speaking at the opening session of the Duma at Petrograd Monday, made what will probably be looked upon as an official announcement that Warsaw will be given up. He admitted that the Austro-Germans were enveloping the territory and military districts of the Polish capital, and declared: "We shall perhaps yield to the enemy a portion of this region, falling back on positions where our army will prepare for a resumption of the offensive. We shall perhaps give up Warsaw, as in 1812 we gave up Moscow, in order to insure a final victory."

The Germans and Austrians continue to make progress in their campaign for the possession of Warsaw, but the Russians are still offering strong counter-offensive movements against the attacks from the Vistula, near Ivanogrod, between the upper Vistula and the Bug, and in the Narow sector near Rozan.

In the eastern sector of the Lublin region, where for days the fighting has been extremely violent, several additional points have been evacuated by the Russians, according to Berlin, and they are declared to be in retreat on both banks of the Bug and on the front between the Bug and south of Leczna.

The Teutons have passed through Chelm on the heels of the Russians. The Russians have been ejected from the heights near Podzameze, on east bank of the Vistula, in the region of Ivanogrod, and to the south, near Kurov, which lies eastward of Nowo Alexandria.

"Thus the Teutonic allies are driving their wedges both eastward from the Vistula and northward between the Bug and the Vistula in their mighty effort to capture the capital, and, if possible, to envelop these forces of the Russian Grand Duke who are endeavoring by rear-guard actions to hold them back in order that the main Russian army may gain the positions assigned to it on the new line along the eastern border of Poland."

And He Was!

Just because a man is an officer in the territorials it doesn't mean to say he can ride a horse.

At least, that was the case of Colonel Knut of the Tuleton Terriers. An inspection was to him a nightmare. So when the general commanding came along Colonel Knut sat his horse uneasily.

Then the band played! At the first bang of the drum the colonel's horse started two-stepping. With the fife he tangod. The colonel set his teeth and hung on grimly.

The Terriers got mightily excited. Would he stick on or not? Anxious to see the fun, they pushed forward, until the front rank looked like a football crowd.

"Ease off, there!" yelled the sergeant angrily.

"No, 'e ain't," retorted an enthusiastic watcher, "but 'e will be in a minute!"—London Opinion.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Louisville, Ky.—"I think if more suffering women would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound they would enjoy better health. I suffered from a female trouble, and the doctors decided I had a tumorous growth and would have to be operated upon, but I refused as I do not believe in operations. I had fainting spells, bloated, and could hardly stand the pain in my left side. My husband insisted that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful I did, for I am now a well woman. I sleep better, do all my housework and take long walks. I never fail to praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my good health."—Mrs. J. M. Resch, 1900 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

6 MEN BLAMED FOR STEAMER DISASTER

Strong Verdict Is Returned by Coroner's Jury.

OWNERS AND LESSEES OF BOAT HELD

Captain, Engineer and Two Federal Inspectors Also Taken to Task for Overloading Steamer.

Chicago — A coroner's jury has returned a verdict placing the blame for the loss of over a thousand lives by the capsizing of the steamer Eastland in the Chicago river Saturday on six men. These are:

William H. Hull, general manager of the Chicago-St. Joseph Steamship company, owner of the Eastland.

Captain Harry Pedersen, of the Eastland.

J. M. Erickson, engineer.

Robert Reed, Federal inspector of steamships, who gave the Eastland license to carry 2500 passengers July 2.

J. C. Eckliff, Federal inspector of steamships.

W. K. Greenbaum, general manager of the Indiana Transportation company, lessee of the Eastland.

The jury recommended that these men be held to a grand jury for indictment on charges of manslaughter.

The jury found the passengers were not in any way to blame for the capsizing of the ship. It recommends further investigation by the coroner and other officers to determine whether the men named and others may be guilty of negligence or of contributing in any way to the cause of the disaster.

The six jurors selected by Coroner Hoffman to hold the inquest on the victims of the Eastland catastrophe are: Dr. W. A. Evans, formerly health commissioner; Colonel Henry A. Allen, consulting engineer; Harry Moir, hotel proprietor; J. S. Keough, coffee merchant; Eugene B. Einfeld, hotel manager; W. F. Bode, wholesale grocer.

"In the absence of evidence of undue acts on the part of the passengers or violent physical causes, such as explosions, fire or collision, the fact that this vessel overturned is proof either that it was improperly constructed for the service employed, or that it was improperly loaded, operated, maintained, or that all of these causes operated to bring about the serious result."

"It is our judgment that the steamer Eastland was both improperly constructed and improperly loaded, operated and maintained, and that the parties named are responsible."

Mob Assassinate Haytien President;

U. S. Warship Protects Foreigners

Washington, D. C. — Following the assassination of President Guillaume, of Haiti, by a mob at Port-au-Prince, American marines were landed to protect lives and property of Americans and other foreigners.

The mob broke into the French legation, in which the Haitian President had taken refuge, and shot him to death. They then dragged his body through the streets at the end of a rope, finally dismembering it.

The mob was led by relatives of the 160 political prisoners who were executed the day before.

Rear Admiral Caperton advised the Navy department that he had sent a force ashore from the cruiser Washington. Rear Admiral Benson, acting secretary of the navy, declined to make the message public, but said: "Admiral Caperton now has the situation in hand."

Chicago Girl Won at Fair.

San Francisco—Miss Virginia Rappe, a beautiful Chicagoan, will become the bride of Alberto M. d'Alkaine, a member of the Argentine commission. Miss Rappe, who is known in social circles of New York, Paris and Chicago for her fashion creations, was recently introduced to d'Alkaine, who as commissioner secretary of Argentina was arranging for the republic's building and display at the exposition. Miss Rappe was the first to introduce Roman anklets as part of the ballroom costume. She is 20 years old.

Six Sunk "by Mistake."

Amsterdam, via London — German submarines, according to a telegram received here from Berlin, had sunk in the war zone up to April 25, 229 English vessels, 30 other hostile ships and six neutral craft. The latter, the message says, were sent to the bottom by mistake.

Twenty-seven additional neutral vessels, the dispatch adds, were examined and sunk because they carried contraband.

Liquor Shipments Barred.

San Francisco — All beverages containing alcohol, no matter in what proportion, will be refused for shipment into Arizona by all railroads entering the state, it is announced by the Southern Pacific company. This decision, it was said, was reached after a conference between Wiley Jones, attorney general of Arizona, and representatives of the railroads.

Patrick and the Jury.

A famous lawyer had a client named Murphy who had been arrested for illegal sale of liquor. The police had no evidence but one pint of whisky, which they found in his house when they searched it. In court this evidence was produced, and a somewhat vivid claim of prima facie evidence of guilt was made by the prosecuting attorney.

During all this, counsel for the prisoner was silent. When his turn came for the defense, he rose and said: "Patrick Murphy, look upon the jury; gentlemen of the jury, look on Patrick Murphy."

Jury and prisoner mutually complied. The counsel gazed at Patrick for a moment, then solemnly turned to the jury.

"Do you mean to say to this court and me you honorably and truly believe that Patrick Murphy, if he had a pint of whisky, would sell it?"

Murphy was acquitted.

Are Strikes for Sale?

Secretary Morrison of the American Federation of Labor is credited with the statement that "the American Federation of Labor does not care whether German gold started the Bridgeport strike or not."

Does Mr. Morrison support the doctrine that strikes should be bought and sold in the open market, and that it is legitimate for labor leaders to accept bribes from agents of a foreign government to paralyze American industries?—New York World.

AN EASY WAY TO GET RID OF UGLY PIMPLES

Let this stay on ten minutes, and wash off with resinol soap and more hot water, finishing with a dash of cold water to close the pores. The Opportunist.

Robinson Crusoe was watching the sea from his lonely isle. Suddenly he jumped to his feet.

"Friday," he called, not being familiar with Sunday, "there's something floating to shore."

Whereupon the two castaways dragged a baby grand player piano to land by its ears. Crusoe gazed sadly upon his capture.

"I don't know anything about music and we have no perforated rolls" he wailed.

But Friday, with the resourcefulness of the aborigine, tore a porous plaster from his manly bosom and soon the lonely isle was resounding with the noble strains of "Goodbye, Girls."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Idaho Humiliated.

If there is a possible justification for these Idaho state officials going before the head of a railroad system begging for free passes it must be based on the plea that Idaho does not furnish enough money to pay legitimate expenses.

Economy that thus forces public officials to debase themselves and ask for special favors from corporations that are in turn asked for special favors from the state is false economy. The demoralization sure to follow will cost the people ten times more than the value of the free passes secured.

This is humiliating. It will be intolerable when the people awake to what it really means.—Idaho Review.

Smile in Court.

At a recent trial one of the witnesses was a green countryman, unused to the ways of the law, but quick, as it proved, to understand its principles. After a severe cross examination the counsel for the prosecution paused and then, putting on a look of severity exclaimed:

"Mr. Kilkins, has not an effort been made to induce you to tell a different story?"

"A different story from what I told, sir?"

"That is what I mean." "Yes, sir; several persons have tried to get me to tell a different story from what I have told, but they could not."

"Now, sir, upon your oath, I wish to know who those persons are."

"Well, I guess you've tried 'bout as hard as any of them."
