It Needed Explanation.

A Kansas Citian relates that recently while on a trip about the environs of San Diego and Coronado beach in a sight seeing motor car, the driver pointed out various land holdings, buildings, hotels, etc., as the property of J. D. Spreckels Jr., the sugar magnate. Even the road over which they bowled was privately owned by Spreckels. As the car, following the winding road, drew near the bay, a little girl asked: "Mama, who owns the bay?" Mama smiled and said, "Why, dearie, God owns the bay." "Well," said the puzzled child, "how did he get it away from Mr. Spreckels?"

Explanation.

"While, did you tie that tin can to the dog's tail?"
"Yes, sir," replied the small boy. "I'm trying to do a kind act every day. That dog chases every rabbit he sees. I tied the can to him so that it will make a noise and warn the rabbit."

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Louisville, Ky.—"I think if more suffering women would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound they would enjoy better health. I suffered from a female trouble, and the doctors decided I had a tumorous growth and would have to be operated upon, but I refused as I do not believe in operations. I had fainting spells, bloated, and could hardly stand the pain in my left side. My husband insisted that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful I did, for I am now a well woman. I sleep better, do all my housework and take long walks. I never fail to praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my good health."—Mrs. J. M. RESCUE, 1900 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

German Shipping Hard Hit.

London—British submarines have now cleared the Baltic sea and the Gulf of Bothnia entirely of German merchant ships, says a dispatch to the Star from Copenhagen. Every German ship which was south-bound from Sweden when the submarines started their campaign has either been sunk or run aground, it adds. Of 50 German ore carriers, 37 are virtually interned in Swedish ports, the correspondent declares.

Big Loan is Completed.

New York—The contract covering the flotation of the $500,000,000 Anglo-French credit loan has been signed. Lord Reading, chairman of the Anglo-French commission, signed the document on behalf of Great Britain; Octave Homberg and Ernest Mallett, the French commission, signed for France, and J. P. Morgan signed on behalf of the American syndicate of bankers.

German Submarines Are Sheltered in Bulgarian Port—Great Britain Gives Bulgaria Notice.

Paris—Italy will send 150,000 men to the Balkans, according to information received by the Excelsior from what the paper says is a reliable source.

The government maintains the strictest secrecy as to where the troops will be landed, says the Excelsior's informant, but Italian intervention will take place at a point where it will have a decisive effect, on the whole Balkan campaign.

Bucharest, via Paris—The cabinet, after again going over the war situation, made a pronouncement in favor of the maintenance of neutrality by Roumania.

All necessary military precautions have been taken on each of Roumania's frontiers.

The presence of two German submarines at Varna, Bulgaria's chief seaport on the Black sea, has been confirmed.

London—Great Britain has declared war on Bulgaria. The British foreign office announces that in view of the fact that Bulgaria has announced she is at war with Serbia and is an ally of the central powers, His Majesty's government has informed the Bulgarian government that a state of war exists between Great Britain and Bulgaria.

Consumption Takes 350 People Daily

Over 350 people succumb to consumption every day in the United States. Science proves that the germs only thrive when the system is weakened from colds or sickness, overwork, confining duties or when general weakness exists. The best physicians point out that during changing seasons the blood should be made rich and pure and active by taking Scott's Emulsion after meals. The cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion warms the body by enriching the blood; it peculiarly strengthens the lungs and throat, while it upbuilds the resistive forces of the body to avoid colds and prevent consumption.

Safety First Lessens Life Loss.

Chicago, Ill.—The Union Pacific railroad system will be given an absolutely clean bill on "Passengers Killed" during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1915, in the report of the Interstate Commerce commission. And the number of passengers injured, for the same period, will show almost negligible in the commission's report.

The clean bill which the Interstate Commerce commission's report will show is the result of that "safety" campaign.

Not one passenger was killed on the entire Union Pacific system, from end to end, main line and branch lines, during the last fiscal year. In that period 8,951,364 passengers entrusted themselves on the thousands of miles of branch roads of Union Pacific, and upon the main line trains from Omaha to Portland, Seattle and Spokane, from Kansas City to Denver and Cheyenne, and not one single passenger lost his life, although, together, these 8,951,364 passengers traveled nearly one billion miles during that year. Not only does this apply to those passengers actually on board the trains, but it includes those who were preparing to go aboard, or who were leaving the trains of the company. Regardless of whether the blame lay with the railroad, or was due to the grossest, most flagrant carelessness on the part of the passenger, the fact remains that during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1915, not one single Union Pacific passenger was killed.

But Union Pacific's "Safety First" campaign is not benefiting passengers alone. Employes are reaping handsome returns on the efforts they are making to prevent accidents to each other.

Wheat Farmers Holding Firmly.

Portland—The Merchants Exchange was closed Tuesday on account of the holiday. The country wheat markets were also quiet.

Grain farmers in the interior are holding their wheat firmly in anticipation of higher prices. They have followed this policy for the first two months of the season and are well satisfied with the results. As most of them are independent they are not likely to upset values by a general selling movement. As an indication of the way supplies are being held back in the country it is cited that on the lines of the Spokane & Inland railway there are now 1,366,676 bags of wheat, against 940,000 bags at this time last year.

Broomhall in his weekly international review says:

"The general position of the market is about unchanged with the undertone strong and an advancing tendency."

"The evidence is becoming increasingly plain that the world's supply of wheat will be abundant for the season, and the abnormally large receipts in both the United States and Winnipeg of spring wheat indicate that the period of scarcity is about ending and recent large purchases, in a quiet way, indicate that a good share of these supplies will eventually reach the United Kingdom."

"The urgent demand, which is becoming pronounced, from Mediterranean countries, and the extraordinary strength in freights, may prevent any immediate decline."

The government's monthly crop report estimates a lower condition, as compared with the 10-year average, for potatoes in the Pacific coast.

For the entire United States, the indicated yield for 1915, based upon above averages for October, is 368,151,000 bushels, compared with the September 1 estimate of 405,909,000, the final estimate on 1914 crop of 405,921,000 and the five-year average of 357,000,000 bushels.

California	85	87
Idaho	84	88
Nevada	81	89
Utah	70	87
Montana	90	86
Colorado	91	88
Wyoming	87	84

For the United States as a whole, the condition on October 1 was 74.2, on September 1, 82.7 and the 10-year average, 76.4.

Plenty of Grapes on Street.

Grapes of all kinds were abundant during the past week, and sold well at steady prices. Among the receipts were good pack Tokays from Grants Pass, which brought $1 per crate.

A few small shipments of Southern Oregon cantaloupes are arriving, standard selling at $2 and flats at $5 cents.

Onion prices have advanced 10 cents on the street and will go higher. There is a limited shipping trade in potatoes at steady prices.

Several cars of new-crop California walnuts arrived in sacks and cartons.

They have followed this policy for the first two months of the season and are well satisfied with the results. As most of them are independent they are not likely to upset values by a general selling movement. As an indication of the way supplies are being held back in the country it is cited that on the lines of the Spokane & Inland railway there are now 1,366,676 bags of wheat, against 940,000 bags at this time last year.

Broomhall in his weekly international review says:

"The general position of the market is about unchanged with the undertone strong and an advancing tendency."

"The evidence is becoming increasingly plain that the world's supply of wheat will be abundant for the season, and the abnormally large receipts in both the United States and Winnipeg of spring wheat indicate that the period of scarcity is about ending and recent large purchases, in a quiet way, indicate that a good share of these supplies will eventually reach the United Kingdom."

"The urgent demand, which is becoming pronounced, from Mediterranean countries, and the extraordinary strength in freights, may prevent any immediate decline."

Wheat Farmers Holding Firmly.

Portland—The Merchants Exchange was closed Tuesday on account of the holiday. The country wheat markets were also quiet.

Grain farmers in the interior are holding their wheat firmly in anticipation of higher prices.
