Cupid Plays Havoc This Week With Vicinity Beautiful Weather May Have Something to do with his Capers Little Naked God Shoots Right and Left, Leaving Many Victims in His Flower-strewn Path

Many weddings have taken place in the past seven days, and it looks as if there might be many more in and around Stayton in the near future.

SLOPER-FRANK

Not entirely unexpected was the news that reached Stayton yesterday that Miss Emma Frank, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frank of Rock Point, and V. Dare Sloper, the enterprising proprietor of the Sloper Drug Store of Stayton, had stolen a march on their friends, and were quietly married in Salem.

The young couple were married in Salem at the Christian parsonage by Rev. Porter at 4 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frank, son Norris and daughter Ida, accompanied the bride and groom to Salem.

Miss Frank is well known in Stayton, having been a student for a couple of years in the high school here, and also as a clerk in the local post office. The groom needs no introduction to the readers of the Mail, having lived in Stayton all his life, except during the time he was finishing his work as pharmacist in Portland. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sloper of this city.

Immediately after the ceremony, the young people started on a three week's wedding tour to California, where they will take in the Exposition and other points of interest, after which they will be at home to their friends in Stayton.

BECKER-DITTER

Many congratulations were showered upon the bride and groom at a pretty church wedding at Sublimity on Tuesday of this week. The ceremony was performed in the Catholic church at that place by Rev. Lanick, and the contracting parties were Miss Rosa Ditter, daughter of Mrs. Mary Ditter of Sublimity, and Joseph Becker a well known young farmer living east of Stayton.

The bride was beautifully attired in a dress of embroidered chiffon, and the groom was conventionally clothed in dark blue serge. The maids of honor were Misses Ida Becker and Genevieve Ditter, while the groom was attended by Dan Kintz and Eugene Ditter.

They will be at home to their friends after December 1st after a wedding trip to the Exposition.

STEFFES-BECKER

On Wednesday of this week, another wedding was solemnized at the St. Boniface Catholic church at Sublimity by the Rev. Lanick.

Miss Ida Becker, daughter of Mrs. Regina Becker and Phillip Steffes, a prominent young farmer of near Sublimity being the happy couple. The wedding was at 9 a. m. and was attended by a large number of the friends and relatives of the newlyweds.

The bride wore a white silk dress and was attended by Miss Minnie Hassler, while the groom's best man was Eugene Ditter.

A sumptuous wedding dinner at the Becker home followed the ceremony, after which the young couple together with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Becker, started for San Francisco on a wedding tour.

SELINSKI-PIETROK

A very pretty church wedding was solemnized at the Catholic church in this city Monday morning, October 25, at 10 o'clock by Rev. A. Lanick. The contracting parties being Miss Katie Pietrok, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Pietrok of Linn county, and Bless Selinski, a young farmer of Brooks, Oregon.

The bride was prettily dressed in white crepe de chine and was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Rose Selinski. The groom was attended by the bride's brother, Lawrence Pietrok.

A sumptuous wedding dinner followed the ceremony, and was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Brand, as the father of the bride, Mr. Vincent Pietrok, was in poor health.

The young couple will live at Brooks.

SAWYER-BEER

(Special to the Mail)

A very pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beer of Gervais, Oregon, on Sunday, Oct. 24, at 2 o'clock, when their eldest daughter, Edith, was married to Lewis R. Sawyer in the presence of friends and relatives, Rev. Jasper officiating.

The home was prettily decorated in autumn leaves and cosmos. Mrs. A. T. Cline presented the bride with a basket of beautiful pink dahlias as a centerpiece for the table.

While the bride's sister, Miss Maude, played the wedding march the bridal couple, attended by Rob Beer, Amy Johnson, Kenneth Coomier and Jessie Sawyer, marched from the hall to the living room where the minister awaited them under a canopy of flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer were taken to Brooks, where they boarded the train for Portland.

SHIELDS-PRETTYMAN

Miss Madge Prettyman and Mr. Albert Shields, both of Detroit Oregon, were married at the Stayton Hotel, Saturday, October 23, Rev. Lockhart of the Methodist church of this city officiating.

The bridesmaid was Miss Josephine Shields of Detroit, and Everett Phillip of Silverton was best man. The young people will live at Detroit at which place the groom is employed.

GOLDEN WEDDING IS CELEBRATED

One of the most interesting events of the season occurred at Mehama on Tuesday of this week, when over 125 relatives and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stout of that place gathered to celebrate the golden wedding of the couple.

There was such a crowd present that the dinner, which was prodigal beyond description, was held at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Stout were among the very earliest settlers of that vicinity, and Stout Mountain rears its head in the background as a reminder for generations to come of the Stout family, which has always been held in high respect in the community.

This was the 1st reunion of the families of Mr. and Mrs. Stout in 50 years and all except one of Mrs. Stout's brothers and sisters were present.

Several addresses of note were made, and the talk of old times dimmed many an eye.

Time and space forbids us to give the names of all present, but all went home feeling that it was "good to have been there."

EIGHTH GRADE HAD A FEED

The eighth grade class had a china pheasant feed at the Clyde Hoffer home Wednesday evening.

The boys are real sportsmen, which was shown by the number of birds brought in and the girls good cooks, which was proven by the delicious supper they prepared.

The supper, which consisted of china pheasant, mashed potatoes, salad, pie, cake, and fruit was served by Mrs. Hoffer and Mrs. Beaver. After supper they played games and sang until a late hour. Everyone voted it a success and hoped to have another one soon.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hoffer, Mrs. Beaver, Misses Nora Crabtree, Josephine Lambercht, Nona Fulton and Anna Spaniol, and William Smith, Hugh Rossell, Orval Weddle, Frank and Robert Teague, Lewis Kearns and Edwin Keech.

Theodore Goeders of Algona, Iowa accompanied by his niece Miss Mary Wollner are here for a few days visit with John Goeders and wife. Mr. Goeders and Miss Wollner will visit the San Francisco Fair, and make another stop here on their return.

Recorder J. B. Grier got home from his vacation just in time for the special meeting of the city council.

DOUBLE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A very pleasant surprise affair was held at the John Kintz home near Sublimity last night. The occasion being the 30th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Kintz, also the 30th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Kerber of this city who were induced to go out on a ride and were also much surprised when they arrived at Mr. Kintz's.

Mrs. Kintz and Mrs. Kerber are sisters and were married the same day 30 years ago.

About 60 were present, those from Stayton being: John Thoma and family, D. M. Doll and wife, Ed Kerber, Frank Kerber, Miss Mary Frank, John Van Handel and family, and Mr. and Mrs. John Kerber.

Games, singing and luncheon were the features of the evening.

The third sermon on the series of Popular Sunday Night Discourses being delivered at the Methodist Episcopal church will be given Sunday evening, entitled "One of the War's Bravest Acts, or Edith Cavell and Heroism on Battlefields." In the morning the pastor will preach on "Praying in Secret." The public is invited.

J. W. Apple and family have moved from their farm east of town to Salem.

"HIGH JINKS" AT I. O. O. F. HALL SATURDAY NIGHT

Hallowe'en—that occasion when young and old pay their tribute to the mythical, when the supernatural is supposed to exert its strongest influence and when witches, goblins and mischief making elves, according to the superstitions, disport themselves—will be celebrated in Stayton this year.

Eva Rebekah Lodge No. 92 now is preparing an elaborate program which has much to do with witches, goblins ghosts, not to mention pumpkin pie, apple cider, witch's brew and other delicacies.

The High Jinks will be held Saturday night, October 30 in the I. O. O. F. hall, a "Chamber of Horrors" and a "Trip to the Lower Regions" are among the entertaining features listed for the evening. No admission to the hall but a small fee for supper and the services of the ghosts. Everybody welcome.
