ATTEND THE LIVESTOCK SHOW AT PORTLAND

Attendance at the the Pacific International Livestock Exposition, which will be held at the Union Stock Yards, North Portland, Dec. 6-11, has become a habit with most of the breeders and livestock people of the West. Early in the summer they begin to figure on a week or ten days vacation at this time. In going to this show they know they are going to see livestock, the best of all kinds in this country; that they are not going to be asked to waste their time on horse races, wild west shows and other incidental things. They know it to be a fact that not more than 10% of the vast crowds who go to large International and State Fairs get to see the livestock exhibited—that is why the Pacific International has such strength in the Northwest.

Breeders and feeders, as well as farmers all over Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, California and states further east are advising of their participation. The man who fails to visit the Show loses a wonderful opportunity of mixing with his fellow breeders and feeders. The grand champion of the Panama Pacific International Exposition and of other large shows on the coast will be judged here by people of national reputation.

Let every person feel that this is his show and that its success depends upon his attendance. If there is anything for which it stands, it is for the up-building of this western country along most constructive lines.

The Eastern Star held their regular semi monthly meeting last Friday evening. Mrs. J. P. Wilbur, Mrs. C. H. Brewer and Miss Della Harold were the committee on entertainment. About 25 were present.

Peter Fiedler and Tony Schindler have the lumber hauled to their ranch in Linn county for a new house and barn, but the wet weather is keeping them from work, however they will make things fly when they do get at it.

Clarence Overholtz and Ben Darby of Linn county were business visitors here one day the first of the week.

OH! WHAT A CHANGE!

One hundred years ago today
When wilderness was here.
With powder in his gun, the man
Went out and got a deer.
But now the thing has changed—
And on another plan,
With powder on her cheeks,
The "dear" goes out and gets the man.

WHY AN EXPLANATION

In reply to the statement of V. A. Goode in last week's Standard, I will say that the whole explanation as concocted is a beautiful miss-statement of facts, whoever is behind the assertions. Furthermore it can be of no interest to the general public concerning any suit between me and Mr. Roy, and the article in question labeled "An Explanation," must be simply an easing of some one's conscience.

W. L. Freres.

BIG THANKSGIVING DINNER AT STREFF'S

The M. Streff home in this city is the scene of much festivity today, and the reason is apparent when one knows that all ten of the children are at home for the first time in many years. Nearly all were accompanied by their families, so you see it makes quite a crowd. Mr. and Mrs. Streff have been married nearly fifty years, and it is quite possible that a golden wedding will be celebrated while the children are all at home.

The children are: Mrs. Peter Ahrend of Alexander, S. D., Matt J. Streff and Jos. Streff of Ft. Dodge, Ia., Chas. Streff of Mill City, N. J. Streff, Mrs. Jacob Spaniol, Emma Streff and Leo Streff of Stayton, Mrs. John Braun of Linn Co. and Mrs. Herman Marking of Jordan.

In order to test the advertising value of this paper we will allow 10c for this clipping in payment on $1.00 bottle of "ANY OF NYAL REMEDIES" Beauchamp's Drug Store.

E. T. Luthy of Bend, Oregon was here the first of the week visiting with his brother C. A. Luthy. The family went to Salem today to eat turkey with their mother, Mrs. Peter Luthy.

OUR GOAT GOT 'EM

"Dodo" F. A. Pierce's long-haired Angora goat from Douglas county, attracted more attention and really got more space in the city press than did Teddy Roosevelt or W. J. Bryan, when they visited the fair. Dodo had fleece forty-one and one-half inches long, and when introduced in Goat show circles all other celebrities took seats far to the rear while the Oregon product was given an exalted position on a pedestal in the front row. Dodo was photographed and re-photographed and the papers hailed him as the savior of those in need of "mo' hair." White hair is fashionable in San Francisco, and long switches are the rage with the ultra-ultra. It was figured out that Dodo's fleece would make at least 180 switches of unusual length. At that rate the fleece was figured as worth about $20 a pound and when it was cut there was something more than thirty pounds of it. Mr. Pierce is said to have been paid more than $600 for the fleece and the many stories revolving around that Douglas county goat made him one of the best advertising features in connection with Oregon activities at the fair. As a freak, Dodo was a hummer, but William Riddell & Sons of Polk county, won all the championships for Angora goats.

TWO TICKETS OUT FOR CITY ELECTION

The Progressive Party met in the Christian church Monday evening Nov. 22, and put the following ticket in the field.

For mayor, J. M. Ringo; for councilmen, J. R. Gardner, C. M. Holford; for recorder, J. B. Grier; for treasurer, V. D. Sloper; for marshal, J. M. Downing.

On Tuesday evening pursuant to a call by the committee, the Citizen's Party met in the city hall Tuesday evening Nov. 23, and after proceeding to put in S. H. Heltzel as chairman and E. M. Olmsted as secretary, put the following ticket out.

For mayor, Dr. H. A. Beauchamp; for councilmen, Grant Murphy, C. A. Luthy; for recorder, Jno. Thomas; for treasurer, V. D. Sloper; for marshal, W. A. Riggs.

In an interview with Mr. Ringo yesterday he stated positively that he would not accept the nomination for mayor, and there is a rumor out that the Progressives are going to endorse Dr. Beauchamp.

A committee of Grant Murphy, Dr. H. A. Beauchamp and Jacob Spaniol were appointed to make arrangements for the convention of the Citizens Party next year, and a committee composed of J. W. Mayo, E. M. Olmsted and Geo. Keech was appointed to formulate rules of the convention and present them at the next meeting.

San-Tox The pleasant laxative syrup of figs and senna. Fine for little ones.
