High School Notes

Last Friday afternoon Mr. J.P. Wilbur addressed the High School on the subject of "The Scarcity of Fast Young Men". One would think at first that this might be a paradox, however, it was not.

In the course of his talk Mr. Wilbur emphasized the fact that young men should be fast to honor, fast to truth and fast to what ever trust might be placed upon them. He brought out very clearly that brains are ever at a premium and that for the real efficient young man there are always golden opportunities ahead.

Mr. Wilbur compared the educational advantages of his youth, and congratulated the students upon their splendid opportunities. He urged each and every one to complete each and every task, as no work should be left unfinished.

In all it was one of the best talks ever given before the High School and was very much appreciated by all. The High School gave Mr. Wilbur a vote of thanks for his interest in their welfare.

Mr. Davis and his orchestra gave two numbers which were well received and added to the attractiveness of the program.

The High School Orchestra is working up some concert numbers for the public concert planned for around the first of the year. On this program will appear "Poet and Peasant" and "Lustspiel" Overtures, as well as several lighter numbers.

In the absence of Miss Fehlen, Pres. of the Student Body, Mr. Porter, Vice Pres., appointed; Miss Tiffany, Helen Staab, Guy Hurt, Hilda Reiger and Freda Allis, to serve on the program committee for two weeks. Following is the program of three days this week.

Monday
Inspirations—Mr. Gauntt
Expirations—Orchestra
Respirations—Student Body

Tuesday
Piano Solo—Gladys Hamman
Oration—Margaret Fehlen
Generally Foolish—Henry Tate

Wednesday
Eine Deutsche Sprich—
Chas. Fehlen
Piano Duet—Marguerite Ryan
and Bessie Shank
Singing—All Student Body

The girls in the gymnasium class are doing splendid work under the direction of Miss Tiffany. On Monday several of the boys of the High School spent some time building frames for the girl's dressing rooms. The girls are going to make curtains and fix up the room so that it will be comfortable as well as attractive.

The gymnasium class are held every Monday, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from three forty until four fifteen and any one interested in the work is invited to visit the class.

Last Friday evening the Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores held an acquaintance party in Beauchamp's Hall, as the new High school building was occupied by the Freshmen. There were about twenty-three members present beside Mr. Gauntt and Mr. Davis.

The early part of the evening was spent in playing games and singing, at about eleven thirty refreshments, fit for a king, were served.

The committee in charge was: Wanda Brown, Oliver Lesley, Helen Staab, Hilda Reiger, Guy Hurt and Henry Tate.

Every one departed at a late hour after a very enjoyable evening and hope to hold many more such parties in the future.

Miss Tiffany will spend Thanksgiving at her home in Eugene and Mr. Davis will spend Thanksgiving in Corvallis.

On Friday evening a Freshman acquaintance party was held in the new High School building. There were eighteen members of the class present beside Miss Tiffany, Mr. Gauntt and Mr. Davis.

The early part of the evening was spent in playing games and at ten o'clock dainty refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, cake and lemonade were served. The committee in charge of the affair was: Ruth Roy, Freda Allis, Caryl Ruble, Melvin Nipple and Will Ryan.

Mrs. G. B. Trask and Mrs. Henry Follis visited the High School Friday afternoon.

In the ad writing contest June Kearns won first prize and Gladys Hill second for writing Mr. Young's advertisement this week.

West Stayton

Peter Kirsh visited at the C. F. Loose home last week.

Arthur Branch and family made a business trip to Stayton Monday.

Mrs. Gunsauls, Mrs. Schmitz and Leona Forrette called on Mrs. Councilman Sunday afternoon.

Nell Corder and Bert Munkers spent Sunday evening at the Loose home.

Mrs. Gunsauls visited with Mrs. Davis Friday.

Mr. Weatherbee and wife were Stayton visitors the first of the week.

Mrs. Will Munkers and little daughter were guests at the Munkers home the week-end.

Kingston Kinks

Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Harold and son Ray were Albany visitors one day last week.

Miss Ethel Walker came home from Salem Saturday and spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. T. W. Creech and Mrs. V. J. Philippi were shopping in Stayton Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. T. Follis went to Salem Wednesday morning returning Friday evening.

There will be preaching services at Kingston Sunday morning and evening. Endeavor at 6:30 o'clock.

Miss Marie Henkel spent Monday night with Mrs. Dan Doll.

Lyons and Fox Valley

Fox Valley held school Saturday, so they could have two days vacation at Thanksgiving.

There will be preaching at the M. E. church Sunday, November 28.

The Lyons High school have improved their room by framing and hanging up several pictures, they have also put carpet in the isles.

The V. C. of A. are very busy preparing a program which they expect to give next month.

In response to a number of inquiries I desire to announce that I am in a position to handle a number of private pupils on violin and all band instruments.
D. C. Davis.
