FINE WEATHER HELPS RAILROAD SURVEY FROM SALEM TO BEND

M. Lynot, who has complete charge of the survey and construction work of the Salem to Bend railroad, went to Portland the latter part of last week, returning Monday evening. On Tuesday morning Mr. Lynot went to Lyons at which place the surveying crew is hard at work. Before starting he stated to a Mail representative that his principals in Portland were much pleased with the progress made, but that they wanted him to hurry things as much as possible at this end, as the Portland offices were all ready for the chief engineers, and things must be pushed rapidly in order to begin actual construction by May 1.

Outside papers are beginning to wake up to the fact that the railroad is surely coming as way, and that Stayton will be on the map in earnest in 1916.

With a new railroad, and machine shops in prospect, together with the many advantages Stayton has of water power, location, and manufactures, there is but little doubt in the minds of those who can see farther than their nose that in 1920 Stayton will have a population of 5000.

"Stayton has mills and power a plenty, 5000 people in nineteen-twenty."

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It is a positive cure. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

STAYTON CROWD ATTENDS SUBLIMITY COM. CLUB

Ten of Stayton's business men went to Sublimity Tuesday night to attend the regular meeting of the Sublimity Commercial Club. Quite a crowd of the Sublimity members were on hand and W. H. Downing called on many of those present for speeches.

Among those who responded, and talked of the new railroad being projected from Salem to Bend were: J. T. Kearns, E. M. Olmsted and Geo. Keech. After a considerable discussion along that line, F. A. Bell gave the crowd some very interesting remarks on how to build up the fertility of the farms from experience he had gained in his trip to Germany five years ago. The Stayton delegation then extended an invitation to the Sublimity Club to visit Stayton in the near future.

STAYTON GETS BEATEN

Last Friday the Stayton Basket Ball Team went to Scio to make their initial game with the high school at that place. Twenty-six people, in all, started for the game but about one-half arrived in time for the game, as they were delayed by the bad condition of the roads. The score resulted in a victory for the Scio bunch who won 24 to 8. A return game will be played with Stayton at some future date.

It took eight stitches to close the gap. Mr. Brown was quite weak from the loss of blood when the doctor arrived.

ADVERTISING PAYS IN THE STAYTON MAIL

Advertising is a subject to which few readers give sufficient thought, and yet it is of vital importance to them considered from an educational standpoint alone.

Do you realize that men are paid from $10,000 to $50,000 a year for their ability to write advertising copy?

You will find some of this ability shown in the columns of the Stayton Mail, and we wish to impress upon you the fact that there is interesting, instructive and beneficial reading to be found in our advertising columns. Of course we know there are a lot of subjects discussed there that may not interest every reader; on the other hand, there is not an issue that does not contain an advertisement that will give you some new idea, add to your comfort, and in all probability save you money. Take for instance the unusually fine advertisement published this week by Peter Deidrich, about United Cream Separators. It is to your interest that you pay some attention to advertising columns.

In the advertising columns you find the story of the world's commercial progress. Ninety per cent of all the new inventions are first brought to public notice through advertising. We want every reader to take an interest in the advertisements appearing in the Stayton Mail because they help to provide the financial support of this paper. All these advertisers are first class business concerns which have been investigated, and are guaranteed by the publisher. Buy their goods whenever you can; it will be appreciated by us if you mention this paper.

Giants and Dwarfs. In the seventeenth century all the abnormally large and small folks of Austria were assembled in Vienna in response to a whim of the empress. As circumstances required that all should be housed in one building, there was a fear that the imposing proportions of the giants would terrify the dwarfs. But the dwarfs teased and tormented the giants so that these overgrown mortals complained with tears in their eyes, and as a consequence sentinels had to be placed to protect the giants from their pygmy persecutors, for the smallest men had the biggest brains and the longest tongues.—London Telegraph.

LIBERTY.

Liberty will not descend to a people; a people must raise themselves to liberty. It is a blessing that must be earned before it can be enjoyed.

MANY PARENT-TEACHER'S ASSOCIATIONS FORMED IN MARION CO.

With a total of forty Parent-Teachers' Associations, all of which are active and meet once a month or oftener, Marion county seems to lead Oregon in another branch of educational work. Fifteen of these associations have been organized within the year ending March 15th, and it is probable that from ten to fifteen more will be added before the end of 1916.

In a report of activities of these associations issued by Superintendent of Schools W. M. Smith, statement is made to the effect that an increase of efficiency in school work is shown by the pupils as soon as definite interest is taken by the parents, and that exceptional interest is maintained by both when that condition is aroused by meetings of the associations.

"It would be impossible," says Superintendent Smith, "for me to enumerate the many benefits that have accrued from Parent-Teacher work in the county. The associations have assisted probably more than any other one factor in developing an interest in school work throughout the county that tended toward continued improvement. General discussions pertaining to making school grounds beautiful, keeping the children enthused, and generally making the school house a prominent part of community life have proved of immense value to the educational department."

Dr. J. G. Turner, formerly of Lowe & Turner, eye specialists, of Portland, will be in Stayton again Friday, April 14th, at Hotel Stayton. Headaches relieved, cross eyes straightened. No charge for consultation or examination. Don't fail to let Dr. Turner show you the new double vision glass, without lines or seams to catch dirt, strain the eyes, or come apart. One light solid piece of glass which looks like a single pair, yet answers the purpose of two, enabling you to read or do close work and see distant objects perfectly. Free demonstration; satisfaction guaranteed. Don't forget the date. He will be in Scio Saturday, April 15th.
