WILL RUN WELL
Ivan G. Martin, of Salem, seems to be one of the strongest contestants in the race for the legislature. His election is practically assured, and the fact that he has kept continually "on the job" and proved himself a man of his word will count strongly for him.
Mr. Martin is a man who apparently has the interests of the county at heart and should make a good representative.

Chas. B. Moore has filed his declaration of intention to become a candidate for the office of Secretary of State, in opposition to Ben W. Olcott, the present incumbent for the republican nomination. Mr. Moore is a very able man and a shrewd politician, but when it comes down to a matter of popularity, Benjamin will, we predict, be an easy winner.—Yaquina Bay News.
