A BIG CROWD ATTENDS SCHOOL ELECTION

Almost Two-Hundred Voters Turnout For The Annual Meeting on Monday

A. D. GARDNER IS DIRECTOR

J. M. Ringo is Elected Clerk for the ensuing Year—First Tax Levy Turned Down

The high school auditorium was filled to nice seating capacity Monday afternoon at the annual school election.

The large crowd present showed that more interest is being taken in popular education today than in the years gone by.

After the reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting by G. R. Monkers, who had been appointed secretary pro tem, during the absence of school clerk, W. Richardson, the chairman called for nominations for director, and A. D. Gardner was chosen to fill the place of the outgoing director, E. M. Olmsted. J. M. Ringo was then chosen as clerk for one year, the report of the outgoing clerk was read and approved.

After the reading of the budget, which called for an eleven mill levy, the vote was taken and rejected by the scant margin of three votes. Seventy-seven voting for the levy and eighty voting against it.

A motion was then made to adjourn and upon a count by the clerk the motion was declared lost.

A motion was made to reconsider the vote and as it was declared out of order, it was withdrawn. Finally, in order to close up the matter, a motion was made to vote a ten and one-half mill levy and upon a ballot being taken it was found to have carried. The annual meeting then adjourned.

Barkmeyer-Heuberger

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Catholic church in Sublimity Tuesday, June 20, at 9 a. m. by Rev. Lainek.

The charming bride was Miss Pauline Heuberger and the groom was Peter Barkmeyer, both of near Sublimity.

The bride was attired in a white satin messaline, with chiffon over dress and carried a lovely bouquet of white flowers. She was attended by the groom's sister, Ida Barkmeyer, of Portland, who was dressed in Copenhagen blue silk. The groom was dressed in conventional blue serge and was attended by John Heuberger, brother of the bride. Little Miss Caecilia Spaniol, niece of the groom acted as flower girl.

Mrs. M. J. Spaniol and children of Portland, were at the wedding; the groom's parents, who live in Oakland, Cal., were unable to attend.

Quite a number of relatives and close friends gathered at the home, where a bounteous wedding dinner was served; the room being decorated in blue and white.

There were many beautiful wedding presents, including much silverware. In the evening all gathered at the C. O. F. Hall where they enjoyed a wedding dance. The Mail, together with the many friends of these young people wish them many years of happiness and prosperity.

KERBER-BOEDIGHEIMER

Another wedding occurred at the Catholic church in Sublimity, when William Kerber and Miss Mary Boedigheimer were united in marriage Wednesday, June 21, by Rev. Lainek.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Boedigheimer who live north of Stayton, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kerber of this city.

The young people will make their home in Stayton, where the groom is employed in the Brown-Petzel saw-mill.

ATTEND CONVENTION

The following people from Stayton attended a convention of German Catholics at Mt. Angel Sunday:

Geo. Spaniol, Jacob Spaniol and wife, Felix VanErmen and wife, Peter Dendrich and family, Jos. Zuber and family and B. Klecker and wife.

Miss Mary Rock returned home Saturday after a week's visit with Miss Margaret Fehlman in Turner.

CELEBRATION AT DIVELY'S GROVE

The West Stayton and North Santiam neighborhoods will celebrate the Fourth at Dively's grove 1/4 mile east of West Stayton.

The program will begin at 10 a. m. and there will be something doing all the time. J. P. Wilbur of Stayton will deliver the address. A selection of duets, solos and quartets with the reading of the Declaration, will complete the morning program.

A tug of war, a ball game and other sports in the afternoon. Everyone invited.

MILL CITY BEATS STAYTON 4 TO 3

Lumbermen Finally Wallop Locals in Hard Fought Game Sunday Afternoon

Only a small crowd saw the first game of the season on the home grounds last Sunday, when Mill City sent their husky bunch to Stayton and won out by a small margin.

The locals connected with home base twice in the first inning and once in the second. The rest of the time it was one, two, three.

Mill City got a fat juicy one in the second, one in the third on an accident to Stayton's left fielder Thoma, and two runs in the fourth on Stayton's errors.

It was a pretty game throughout, and devoid of rag chewing, except when Thoma tried to drive a hole through the left field fence with his head, and the umpire allowed a score for Mill City, as it was impossible to see whether the left fielder held the ball or dropped it.

There were several new players for Stayton, among which was "Gabe De Jardin. One of his famous poses is illustrated below.

Gill, of Salem, occupied the catcher's box and one can see by the expression on his face that he "ate-em-up."

The battery for Mill City was Kackley and Moist, while Cole occupied the hump for Stayton. Umpire, Tate.

This makes a game apiece for these two teams and the tie will be pulled off at Mill City July 4th. Better see it.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Nine little boys gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hewitt in the east part of Stayton Sunday to celebrate the 12th birthday of Master John Hewitt.

Needless to say, Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt made the youngsters feel at home, and the boys declare that with the ice cream, cake, and the games they played, they never had a better time in their lives.

Address, Mrs. Edyth Tozier Wethered. Selection, Silverton quartet. Address by Judge William Galloway, former Governor T. T. Geer, E. A. Downing and W. H. Downing. Declaration, Lloyd Haberly.

Keeping the teeth clean

There is nothing about you that people notice quicker than your teeth. There is no other thing you can do that will add so much to your attractiveness as in keeping your teeth in good condition and there's no other thing you can do that takes less time, for one minute's brushing, in the morning, after each meal and before retiring; five minutes all told each day, will keep your teeth in perfect condition if you go about it in the right way and use the right material. We have the brushes from 25c to 50c, bristles do not come out, also numerous non-injurious tooth pastes, powders, etc. Beauchamp's Drug Store

BUY LUMBER NOW

Now is the time to take advantage of the reduction in the price of lumber as offered by the Brown-Petzel Lumber Co. of this city in their ad on another page of the Mail. The building season is at hand, and you cannot afford to pass up this chance. Come in and talk over the subject with the manager. You will be surprised at the saving.

Mr. Louie Winkler of Lents is visiting at the M. Schuff home this week.

POMONA GRANGE HAS A BIG DAY

Yesterday was a gala day for the Pomona Grange in Stayton. It is estimated that nearly 150 people gathered in the I. O. F. Hall to listen to the lectures by prominent speakers, including Prof. McPherson of O. A. C., on "Rural Credits" and John Robertson and Chas. McNary of Salem, on other subjects.

Mrs. L. S. Lambert, with the assistance of other members of the local grange had prepared an interesting program of music, recitations, etc. and a bounteous dinner that the ladies of the grange know so well how to prepare. During the closed session, fourteen new members were initiated into the Pomona degree. There were delegations from Salem, Turner, Aumsville, North Howell, Macleay and Ankeny, besides those from the local grange.

The day, the attendance, and the program was ideal, and all went home feeling that they had spent a day well rewarded.

NEW POSTMASTER NAMED FOR STAYTON

News reached Stayton this morning that E. D. Alexander had been appointed postmaster for this city. The Mail wishes to congratulate Mr. Alexander on the appointment, and the quick work of the state, county and precinct committees.

Remember at Slep's you get a 5 per cent discount for cash. This is more than twice the value of a trading stamp, figure it for yourself.

MANY ATTRACTIVE ADS

The readers of the Mail will notice that we are carrying a full page ad for the "Speer's store at Aumsville and West Stayton, this week.

There are many things listed in this ad that you need, and as the circulation of the Mail covers the Aumsville and West Stayton territories almost as well as that of Stayton one can see the reason for this ad. Read it over.

New Street Light

The new street light on the top of H. Lilly's gasoline stand has been installed and adds much to the looks of that business block.

Henry Croissant of Lyons is a guest at the B. A. Schaefer home this week.

A TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

On Friday, June 23, the excursion will leave the Christian church at 8 p. m. and every 20 minutes thereafter. Stopovers at Japan, Ireland, Germany and Boston, experienced guides. This is given under the auspices of the Junior Loyal Sons of the Christian church and the proceeds will go toward building a class room for the Junior boys. Admission 15c and 25c.

The rain came just in time to help the growing crops.

PHILOMATH ROUND-UP STARTS TODAY, JUNE 22

Seating Capacity for Ten Thousand will Accommodate An Immense Crowd

The stage is all set, the buildings are all completed, and everything is in readiness for the biggest Wild West show in the history of Western Oregon. The Annual Philomath Round-Up and Cow-man's Carnival, will open its gates to the public on Thursday morning, June 22nd, and continue to exhibit the greatest events in the line of wild horse riding and roping, and wild steer riding, roping and bulldogging, cowboy and cowgirl races, maverick races, fancy and trick roping, and all other sports of the range, that has ever been seen in this part of the state. Philomath is prepared, and will give visitors a regular, old, rawhide time.

Philomath admits that she is not a very big town, but there are enough live wires in the vicinity to stage anything. The success of last year's modest attempt to put on a wild west show as a side attraction to the horse fair, determined the people to get at it in a more expensive manner, and put on a Round-Up that will put Philomath on the map.

A grandstand has just been completed that is 200 feet long, reaching up ten rows of seats high. Over 600 feet of bleachers have been built, and there are seating accommodations for over ten thousand people.

The quarter mile track has been enclosed, and corrals, stock sheds and other necessary buildings have been built.

Recently representatives returned from Eastern Oregon and Northern Nevada, with the wildest and hardest bucking horses they could buy. A carload of Mexican Long horn cattle was also shipped into Philomath last week. The equipment is second to none in the Northwest, and if any other wild west show is better, it will be in point of size only.

Some of the country's greatest cowboys are entered in the events, including "Buffalo" Vernon, "Broncho" Bob Hall, John and Fred Spain and a number of entries who will enter the big New York Stampede at Sheephead Bay, in August.

Camping privileges are afforded, and special trains will run back and forth from Albany and Corvallis.

A. W. SCHRUNK

While A. W. Schrunk is a new man to Aumsville, he is a veritable hummer when it comes to going after business. Moreover he believes in spreading printers ink and this is the third week he has been carrying almost a half page ad in the Mail.

Note his prices, and see for yourself whether it "Pays to Advertise."

Clarence Elmer Hill

Clarence Elmer Hill died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hill in this city, Tuesday morning June 20, 1916, at the age of 37. He was born September 27, 1878 in Kerwin, Kan., and came to Oregon with his parents in 1882.

Clarence attended school in Stayton and had a host of friends in this place, Salem and Mill City, where he worked at different times.

He was a boy always well liked by his associates, and will be sadly missed by them as well as his own family.

Funeral services and interment were at the Lone Oak cemetery, June 21, R. L. Putnam of the Christian Church in charge.
