YOUNG WIDOWS, HERE IS A CHANCE FOR YOU

Cleveland Man Would Wed One and Will Provide Change For Ice Cream Sodas and the Movies.

Paterson, N. J.—"Young widows only need apply; old maids can save their postage stamps," wrote Gustave Janelli of 1425 East Thirty-second street, Cleveland, O., in a letter which John C. Bush, acting mayor of this city, recently received.

"Any young widow who wants a good home, a lively companion and a gay time, with lots of change for ice cream sodas and the movies, will find me the right husband," the letter stated. "Young widows are sweet and jolly, and I understand there are a lot of them in Paterson. Old maids give me a pain. There are too many of them in Cleveland now."

"You will do any pretty young widow a big favor by handing to her my name and address and telling her to write and send photo. I own a good home and want a wife right away."

TOYS HIS FIRST GIFTS TO GIRL HE COURTED

Bride, Twenty-three Years Old, Marries Father's Friend, Thirty-nine Years Her Senior.

New York—A romance that had its beginning in the close friendship between the bride's father and the elderly bridegroom resulted recently in the marriage of Miss Mabel Evelyn Cristadoro of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., to Harrison Hodges, purchasing agent for the Long Island railroad. Mr. Hodges, whose home is at 58 West Fifty-seventh street, is sixty-two years old, while his bride is twenty-three.

Mr. Hodges has passed practically his whole life in the railroad business and is very widely known. Many years ago Miss Cristadoro's father, Charles Cristadoro, also was engaged in the railroad business. A close friendship sprang up between the men, and almost from the day of her birth Mr. Hodges evinced a deep interest in the daughter of his friend and companion.

At first, the bride said laughingly, Mr. Hodges' gifts to her were toys and the other "goodies" usually so acceptable to children. In recent years, however, friends of Miss Cristadoro became convinced that there was something more than casual friendship for the young woman in the attentions bestowed upon her by Mr. Hodges. They were not surprised recently when it became generally known that they were to be married, although Mr. Hodges had been looked upon as a confirmed bachelor.

FOOT IN FROG; NOW DEAD.

Directed Work of Rescue After Twenty-four Cars Mangled Him.

Altoona, Pa.—After preparing to make a coupling in the Pennsylvania yards here, brakeman H. Ward Hall slipped from his car, and the next instant his right foot was caught in a switch frog. He struggled to free himself, but could not.

Then he tried frantically to save himself by signaling the engineer, who was pushing a draft of twenty-four cars toward him, but the man on the locomotive could not see him.

When members of his crew found him later his right arm and right leg had been severed and he was pinned under a big steel car, but still conscious. Every car had run over him.

He directed the work of the men who were rescuing him and was rushed to the hospital, where he died four hours later.

CHAINS HIS PRISONER.

Sheriff Takes No Chances as He Moves a Man.

Kansas City, Mo.—M. F. Moore, sheriff of Yates Center, Kan., doesn't take chances with prisoners. He dropped in at police headquarters the other morning on the way home from Colusa, Ill., leading Amos Wilkins at the end of a chain ten feet long.

"I want to leave this chap here while I see the town," said the sheriff.

"All right, but you'll have to pay for his meals," said a booking clerk.

"Let him have what he wants; I'll pay," said Sheriff Moore.

As soon as the sheriff turned his back the prisoner ordered ham and eggs, apple pie, coffee and other food.

Wilkins said he was going to plead guilty to forging a twenty-five dollar check when he got back to Yates Center.

HIS TROUSERS A BARREL.

Flames Burn Motorman's Clothing as He Tries to Fix Car.

Harrison, N. J.—When his trolley, after coming to a sudden stop at Harrison avenue and Fourth street, refused to stir another inch, John Lynch, the motorman, put his passengers aboard a relief car and proceeded to investigate.

He diagnosed the symptoms as a disorder in the control box and proceeded to supply a cure. An inserted monkey wrench brought forth a blast of flame which licked up Lynch's trousers. Assuming a "September Morn" pose—for it was an open air—he shouted for help. This came in the form of a barrel, and Lynch walked to another pair of trousers.

Hazing Him.

"Mr. Chairman," said the new member of the literary club, "I move you, sir."

"I rise to a point of order, Mr. Chairman," interrupted one of the other members.

"State your point of order."

"The gentleman says 'I move you.' It is not only out of order, but utterly absurd for a man of 114 pounds to talk of moving a chairman who weighs 300."

"The point is well taken" roared the presiding officer, bringing his gavel down with a resounding thud. "The gentleman will merely 'move' or take his seat!"—Chicago Tribune.

Pompeii. Pompeii was overwhelmed on the night of Aug. 24, 79 A. D. The principal citizens were then assembled, it appears, in an amphitheater where public spectacles were in progress.

After a lapse of fifteen centuries a countryman, as he was turning up the ground on the farm where he was employed, found a bronze figure, which discovery led to further search, in the course of which numerous other objects were brought to light, and thus, at length, was the whole city uncovered.

To Address the President.

The address of the president is simply "The President of the United States." In the first congress there was debate over a title, and it was proposed by several members that he be addressed as "His Excellency" and by others as "His Highness," but a committee reported that it is not proper to annex any style or letter other than that given in the constitution.

In the constitutional convention the first report fixed the term of office at seven years without eligibility to reelection. In debate various periods from "good behavior" to twenty years were favored. The limit of four years was finally adopted in grand committee and ratified by the constitution.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is a new and broad-based remedy that has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. GLENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
