NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION—Isolated tract (Publisher)

Public Land Sale—Department of the Interior.
U. S. Land Office at Portland, Oregon, July 7th, 1916.

Notice is hereby given that, as directed by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, under provisions of Section 2455, R. S., pursuant to the application of Minnie M. Loudon, Serial No. 04657, we will offer at public sale, to the highest bidder, but at not less than $3.00 per acre, at 10 o'clock a. m., on the 29th day of August, next, at this office, the following tract of land: Lot 8, Section 18, Township 10 South, Range 4 East, Willamette Meridian.

The sale will not be kept open, but will be declared closed when those present at the hour named have ceased bidding. The person making the highest bid will be required to immediately pay to the Receiver the amount thereof.

Any persons claiming adversely the above-described land are advised to file their claims, or objections, on or before the time designated for sale.
7-20 N. Campbell, Register.
8-17 Geo. I. Smith, Receiver.

A Good Actor.

"I see you have an actor employed on the farm."
"Yes, I put him on. He's a darn good actor too. I thought he was working the first week he was here."—Kansas City Times.

Superstitious.

"What! Did you let the examinations go by again, Carl?"
"I'll tell you, father. On the way to the college I met an old woman, and then I turned back again."—Ellegende Blaetter.

True.

"We live this life just once," said the philosopher.
"Yes," replied the pessimist, "and the trouble is that a lot of us die before we even learn the rules of the game."—Exchange.

An Inference.

Rose—Why don't you pop in and have a game of bridge sometimes?
Violet—Oh, well, you see—I've become a bit of a recluse lately. Rose—How much do you owe?—Illustrated Bits.

The Best Kind of Woman to Marry.

You take a tip from me, son. When you marry, marry a home woman—a woman who's willing to hang a "God Bless Our Home" sign on the wall without making funny cracks about it. —E. C. Ranck in American Magazine.

Where They Excelled.

He—I don't see why you are always bragging about your family. Its members have never done anything. She—Well, even that helps some. The members of your family have done everything. —Richmond Times-Dispatch.

She Admitted It.

A Mrs. Malaprop said to Clara Novello, the noted English prima donna. "You will admit that there is a great deal of evil life in the theater."
"True, indeed," replied Clara, "but on which side of the curtain?"

Proof.

"I guess the wife is home all right."
"What makes you think so?"
"I've been trying to get the house on the phone for three-quarters of an hour and the line has been busy all the time."—Detroit Free Press.

End of the Flirtation.

Jack (bitterly)—I suppose you consider it quite a triumph to make a fool of a man.

Edith—Why, no. A triumph means something accomplished that was very difficult.—Boston Transcript.

Spoiled Her Preparedness.

Mistress—What did you do with that old brown dress that hung in my wardrobe? Domestic—You told me to get rid of all the rags, ma'am, and so I gave it to the ragman. Mistress—Good gracious! How do you suppose I can ever get any new clothes if I haven't an old dress to put on when my husband comes home?

BE READY.

Let each day take thought for what concerns it and liquidate its own affairs, and then we shall be always ready. To know how to be ready is at the bottom to know how to die.

To Make It Cool.

A newlywed named Jones was talking to his friend Casey the other day about his flat and was asking the other for a little advice.

"Do you know my dining room is the hottest place in the world?" began the newlywed. "Do you know of any way I might cool it off?"

"From experience I should say that a very good way to bring about a change in atmospheric conditions," remarked the older married man, "and one that is sure to bring results one way or the other is to take a friend home to dinner when your wife isn't feeling well and isn't expecting company."—Philadelphia Times.

Baby Carriages.

The first thing every newly married couple ought to invest in is a baby carriage. They come in one, two and three passenger sizes and should be replaced every two or three years.

As a substitute for a motorcar the baby carriage has no equal, although it contains the possibility for more accidents. Baby carriages, as a rule, are propelled either by proud fathers wearing silk hats or by total strangers. Each baby carriage is provided with a brake, which prevents it during its lifetime from exceeding the speed limit. This early example of rectitude, however, does not always have its effect upon the occupant in after life.—Life.

Inventor of Roller Skate.

The inventor of the roller skate was a Dutchman named Merin, who visited England in 1700. Eight years later he exhibited a "pair of skates contrived to run on wheels" at a museum in London and also gave public exhibition of his prowess in skating over a smooth floor, playing a violin the while. It appears, however, that his demonstrations were on occasions rather more exciting than successful, for "he used to fall about and smash into mirrors and pictures which covered the walls of the room."

Not Very Accomplished.

Gerald—My dog knows as much as I. Geraldine—Why don't you get an intelligent dog?—Chicago Herald.

Black Magic.

In the discovery of the crews of the Aras and Tara, who had been carried off by the Arabs into the heart of the Libyan desert, the Arab acting as guide to the British tars led them unerringly for 115 miles across the pathless desert with "not a distinguishing mark or sign of any kind visible," so that the relieving force could only put it down as "black magic."—London Standard.

THE GOOD JUDGE FINDS MOST MEN KNOW WHY THEY USE W-B CUT TOBACCO

I SEE YOU GENTLEMEN USE W-B CUT TOBACCO MAY I ASK WHY? IT'S QUALITY TOBACCO—CUT FINE AND SEASONED WITH SALT, SO A LITTLE CHEW SATISFIES. YES, AND A MAN DOESN'T HAVE TO GRIND AND SPIT LIKE THOSE WHO USE ORDINARY TOBACCO.

YOU can't hide the truth—that's why men who use W-B CUT Chewing know what quality tobacco is. A small chew of the real tobacco tucked away in the cheek gives men the tobacco satisfaction they want.

A gentleman's chew—it cuts down grinding and spitting and there's no unwieldy wad to roll around in your mouth or to plug out the cheek. Give W-B CUT Chewing the quality test and learn what tobacco satisfaction is.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION

Department of the Interior
U. S. Land Office, Portland, Oregon
July 17, 1916.

Notice is hereby given that Sarah A. Swaggar, by C. H. Maginnis, her Attorney-in-Fact, whose postoffice address is Portland, Oregon, did on the 10th day of July, 1916, file in this office her amended application, Serial No. 0522, to select under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1888 (30 Stat. 597,620) the NW 1/4 Sec. 30, the lots 1, 2 and 3, Sec. 21, all in Tp. 11 S., R. 4 E., and Lot 8 Sec. 1, Tp. 12 S., R. 2 W., and Lot 10, Sec. 34, Tp. 12 S., R. 1 W., Willamette Meridian.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the lands above described, or desiring to object because of the mineral character of the land, or for any other reason, to the disposal to the applicant should file their affidavits of protest in this office on or before the 6th day of September, 1916.
7-20 N. CAMPBELL,
8-24 Register.

ANXIETY.

What does your anxiety do? It does not empty tomorrow of its grief, but it empties today of its strength. It does not make you escape the evil; it makes you unfit to cope with it if it comes. —Ian Maclaren.

The Seven Sleepers.

The seven sleepers of Ephesus, a favorite subject in medieval art, were seven Christians who to escape the persecution of Decius concealed themselves in a cave whose mouth was closed by their enemies. The cave was rediscovered 200 years afterward, when the sleepers awoke youthful and in perfect health.

Ancient Assyria.

Assyria, history tells us, was a purely destructive nation, a Hun of the ancient world, existing merely to ravage and contributing nothing to civilization, being therein quite the opposite of the Babylonians. Isaiah described Assyria as God's ax and saw to do the rough hewing that providence needed for the shaping of the race.—Indianapolis News.

Favorite Sons in Politics.

The expression "favorite son" in the politics of this country is hoary with age. As far back as 1789 Washington was called the "favorite son of liberty" by a New York city journalist. In 1825 John Randolph, the wit and orator of Virginia, was referred to as the "favorite son" of that commonwealth. From then on the terminology has been common.—Argonaut.

Thought It Was a Joke.

The Colonel—And you actually assert that you want to marry my daughter? Fusby—Yes. The Colonel (staring at him unpleasantly)—You know I am English. Fusby—Yes, sir. The Colonel—Well, it's going to take me several years to see the point of your little joke. Good day to you.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Sure Way.

"Senator, I wish you'd recommend this young man for office."
"But I know of no office I could get him."

"That's all right. I don't really want him to get any office. But he wants to marry my daughter, and if he has done anything shady in the past I'd like to have the facts brought out."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Where Ulysses Ruled.

Cephalonia, originally Cephalonia, was under the sway of Ulysses, who took his royal title, however, from the smaller island of Ithaca, which lies opposite and above it to the northeast, and under his leadership the Cephalonians went to the Trojan war. It is by far the more fertile of the two islands and has for centuries been noted for its wine and oil. Being divided into four districts, it was sometimes called Tetrapolis, while it sometimes borrowed the name of its chief city and was known as Same or Samos, being occasionally confounded (to the pain of the student, as some of us can recall) with the little island of the same name in the Aegean sea.
