The Squabtown Squawker

Fat Griggs is in a horrible pucker. He is afraid his last two-quart shipment will not arrive before the railroad strike.

Uncle Bill Beach bought himself a wig the last time he was in the city. Altho Un's is 82, he is as spry as a kitten and there is some talk that he is going to get married again.

Bingling's Biggest Show on Earth will exhibit in the city on Labor Day. If the trains don't run, the elephants will be put to work. Come!

When Dude Sproggins fell in the creek yesterday, the water soak-loose his new patent mustache, and now the "Dude's" face looks like a hard-boiled egg.

Bill Skink has a big hound that is always wagging his tail. Bill has attached the critter's caudal appendage to the baby crib, and now Towser rocks the twins. Bill always was an ingenious cuss.

Cai Blinks threshed his lower field yesterday, and got 400 bus. of oats, two hen's nests with rotten eggs and a dead cat. He expects his wheat to turn out better.

YOU'LL call it a lucky day when you find the satisfaction there is in a small chew of W-B CUT Chewing. With most chewers the flavor of rich tobacco is a genuine surprise party. There's another surprise—you keep your jaws quiet and restful, for the salt brings out the flavor without so much chewing and spitting. You think it queer how so small a nibble does the trick and lasts so long—but it's rich tobacco, that's it. In 10c. pouches, at enterprising dealers.
