Saturday Night, Sep. 2, 7:45 and Sunday Matinee, Sep. 3, at 2:30 p. m.

PRETTY AMERICAN GIRL IS VOTED A MODERN VENUS

"The American Venus" is the title conferred upon Miss Audrey Munson, heroine of "Inspiration," a five-part, Mutual Masterpiece by artists and sculptors throughout the world. "Miss Munson," said one of New York's most prominent sculptors recently, "is beyond a shadow of a doubt the nearest approach to a modern Venus that it has ever been my good fortune to meet."

Miss Munson, it is said, boasts one of the most perfect forms of any of her sex in this country and possibly in Europe. Numerous artists for whom she has posed have made diligent efforts to find an equal of Miss Munson, but have failed.

"Inspiration," is not only based on the rise to fame and fortune of Miss Munson, but presents her in the leading role.

Audrey Munson, in "Inspiration"

"Inspiration" has only been shown in the large cities, and is a high-priced, high-class set of films necessitating a slight advance in price. Don't miss this show, or you'll regret it.

THE FLAG AND THE MAN.

Brief Sentences Featuring the Speech of Acceptance of Charles E. Hughes.

America First and America Efficient.

We are too great a country to require of our citizens who are engaged in peaceful vocations the sort of military service to which they are now called.

We cherish no illusions. We know that the recurrence of war is not to be prevented by pious wishes.

We denounce all plots and conspiracies in the interest of any foreign nation.

Adequate preparedness is not militarism.

During this critical period the only danger of war has lain in the weak course of the administration.

The nation has no policy of aggression toward Mexico. We have no desire for any part of her territory.

We propose that in the competitive struggle that is about to come the American workingman shall not suffer.

This representative gathering is a happy augury. It means the strength of reunion. It means that the party of Lincoln is restored, alert, effective.

The dealings of the administration with Mexico constitute a confused chapter of blunders. It is a record which cannot be examined without a profound sense of humiliation.

IN PREPAREDNESS THE ADMINISTRATION HAS FOLLOWED, NOT LED.

In the demand for reasonable preparedness the administration has followed, not led. Those who demanded more adequate forces were first described as "nervous and excited." Only about a year and a half ago we were told that the question of preparedness was not a pressing one; that the country had been misinformed. Later, under the pressure of other leadership, this attitude was changed. The administration, it was said, had "learned something," and it made a belated demand for an increased army. Even then the demand was not prosecuted consistently and the pressure exerted on congress with respect to other administrative measures was notably absent.

We are told that the defects revealed by the present mobilization are due to the "system." But it was precisely such plain defects that under the constant warnings of recent years, with the whole world intent on military concerns, should have been studied and rectified. The administration has failed to discharge its responsibilities. Apparently it is now seeking to meet political exigencies by its naval program. But it has imposed upon the country an incompetent naval administration. —From Mr. Hughes' Speech of Acceptance.
