Portland shipyards have orders for two more steel vessels.

Myrtle Creek voted $21,000 bonds to provide light and water system.

Detroit, Mich., milk condensery firm wishes to locate plant in Oregon.

Kenton, Swift Packing interests spending $150,000 on packing plant.

Gold Hill, Dave Good picked up 52 ounce gold nugget.

With the increasing wave of experiments in initiative legislation in recent years, the tendency has grown to knife nearly every such measure at the polls.

Astoria, Pay increases affecting nearly 600 men in the employ of the North Bank system are announced, the increase ranging from 5 to 10 per cent of former salary allowances, effective for August.

Roseburg News, the stopping of all train service in this country would be felt vastly more than the blocking of our coasts by a foreign enemy, for in the latter case we can subsist on our own resources for an indefinite length of time, carrying to every part of the country the supplies needed there, and taking their surplus where it could best be used, but with rail service done away with, the two coasts would again be months apart.

Albany Herald, after giving their hearty sympathy to the railroad men in their fight for an eight hour day, millions of our housewives would probably be pleased to see their hours reduced to twelve.

Salem, Cost of state experimental farms is becoming a big item. Each county wants one. Some have a piece of land to sell the state. Then there are educated people who want a state job.

Ten Mile, Coos county, logging plant opens operations to run four years.

Cottage Grove men would establish broccoli industry.

Baker county is erecting fifteen new steel bridges.

Monroe getting a $2,000 grain warehouse.

Boardmen, a new eastern Oregon town with a promising future.

St. Helens, Auditorium building going up on fair grounds.

Linn County will pave 200 miles county highways in five years.

The S. P. Co. spends eleven millions building a railroad to Coos Bay.

The forest reserves return $78,000 to the state for roads. The $78,000 probably cost the state $780,000.

Paisley to use native stone for new school building.

Southern, 100 persons employed at fruit evaporating plant.

Oregon City, Star theatre will erect $30,000 playhouse.

Roseburg, two Portland firms have bids on the Kendall railroad.

Gold Hill News, whenever we have a great national strike, be it railroad or otherwise, the common people are always the goats and their bleats of distress are consistently ignored by both sides.

Brandon Western World, Coos county tax collections increased from 1904 to 1915 from $110,285 to $409,527, 300 per cent. State taxes increased from $20,807 to $90,081 in 1913. For 1914 State tax went down to $65,675, and 1915 to $66,564.

Work on Southern, Coos Bay and Eastern railroad resumed.

Portland, Auton Huth, Tacoma to erect 6 story building here.

Lents gets $8,000 business building 85 by 90 feet.

Portland, American Can Co. taking bids on $250,000 factory on Railroad Avenue.

Milwaukie, Clackamas highway to be paved.

There was but one bidder for the franchise over the interstate bridge at Vancouver, the P. R. L. & Co. The traction company is not offering much owing to jitney competition.

Marshfield, Boulder Creek Mining Co. erecting a sawmill.

Bend creamery will erect modern building.

There are in Oregon 32 projects for reclamation of desert land, covering 1,109,539 acres, and total amount of money need to complete them is $54,644,000. There are 2,000,000 acres of so-called desert land in the state which may be reclaimed to furnish homes for many people. But the trouble is, Oregon's share of the reclamation fund is spent in other states.

The lumber mills in Baker are running full blast and payrolls run into many thousands of dollars monthly.

RAISE MORE BEETS

A. T. Brewer of Linn county, brought a sample of sugar beet and also a big stock beet to the Mail office Tuesday. They are both fine specimens, and Mr. Brewer says that he has an acre of each at his place across the river that will make an enormous yield. He is raising them for his dairy herd, although he is of the opinion that this part of the valley is much better for sugar beets than the country around Grant's Pass, where the new sugar factory is to be located.

Additional Locals

Those enjoying the occasion were: T. W. Creech and family, Mrs. Vilas Philipp, Mrs. Theresa Philipp, Misses Della and Ina Harold, Hazel Downing and Marie Henkle, Henry Downing, Chas. and Frank Peters, Lyon Titus, and Claire Vanderbeck of Michigan.

LOVE AND RESPECT.

The most essential thing in marriage is respect. It is above love, above compatibility. Respect will bring one through the most trying disagreements with no bruise on the soul, whatever wounds there may be in the heart. Therefore, men and women, never, never marry any one you don't really respect, however passionately you may love.

Pranks of a Number.

The number 37 has this strange peculiarity: Multiplied by 3, or any multiple of 3 up to 27, it gives three figures all alike. Thus, three times 37 will be 111; twice three times (6 times) 37 will be 222; three times three times (9 times) 37 gives three threes; four times three times (12 times) 37, three fours, etc.

Not All Her Own.

A young woman who does a bit in the line of verse recently received the following note from a magazine editor: "Dear Madam—The verses entitled 'The Kiss' are extremely clever. Can you assure me that they are original?" Whereupon the fair writer answered: "Sir—Not quite. 'The Kiss' was a collaboration."—New York Times.

Early Symptoms.

"I'd like to see that office boy of mine thirty years from now."

"Why so?"

"He ought to make a wonder as a tired business man."—Kansas City Journal.

Catching on to Dad.

Eddie—Let's sneak round behind the barn an' smoke a cigarette.

Sammy—Too likely to get caught. Ever since Dad swore off he's been sneaking around there to smoke his own.—Judge.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The fact that the Democratic campaign managers have loaded Secretary Daniels for a speech in Maine, seems to indicate that they have abandoned all hope of carrying the state and simply don't care what happens to the ticket in the September election.

Senator J. Ham Lewis, a spokesman for the administration, in attempting to apologize for the president's mollycoddle expression that we are "too proud to fight," explains that it is an old Latin quotation. But the people already know that it is out of date and the expression of a decadent nation.

"We don't want to maintain a political almshouse," remarked Mr. Hughes to the North Dakota farmers, and a nation applauds him. Americans are beginning to see a possibility in the near future of retaining their self respect.

This administration seems to have sold everything it could, from the nation's honor down to the smallest rural postmaster's job.

Secretary Daniels says this is no time for politics. And it's no time for Secretary Daniels either.

Senator Lewis, defending the president on his "too proud to fight" expression intimates that it was due solely to the ignorance of his audience that the popular interpretation that has been put upon it was evolved, and that anyway it didn't mean what it appeared to mean. The latter statement can be taken with some degree of confidence, as it is quite a well known fact that most of the things the president says do not mean what they are supposed to mean.

Secretary Redfield has presented another of those living illustrations of the old adage that "fools rush in where angels fear to tread," with one important modification. The difference in the Secretary's case is that he walked right in and turned around and was kicked right out again.

The Democratic contingent in the Senate is all worked up over the fact that the terms of the treaty for the purchase of the Danish West Indies "leaked out." "Pitiless publicity," you understand, has been consigned to the scrap heap with a large assortment of various other Democratic policies and promises.

Housewives in need of pork recipes should address the Wilson administration.

Mr. Wilson has made no reply to the charges of Mr. Hughes. Is he still too proud to fight?

By the way his opponents are abusing him, it is evident that Mr. Hughes has touched them on the raw.

No apology which the Wilson administration can make for its futile and irritating Mexican policy will satisfy the American people. It has lacked conspicuously the two characteristics which Hughes promises—a friendly spirit and a firm hand.

Pitiless publicity, says Mr. Hughes; have a heart, say the Democrats.

Of Mr. Wilson it may be said he meant well, but he now finds himself buried under the evidence of ineffectuality that Mr. Hughes has brought forth.

There are those who assert that Woodrow Wilson is a clever politician. But how do they account for his remark to a committee of women, calling upon him, to the effect that if they made suffrage "the paramount issue of this campaign," he would "lose all respect for them?" The women of the enfranchised States assert that this threat will cost Wilson the presidency.

Secretary Daniels, however, has the distinction of being one of the greatest arguments the Republicans have ever had.

The salary part of the rural credit system has already begun.

Mr. Bryan thinks Mr. Hughes unfitted for the bench because of the prejudiced frame of mind evinced by his speeches. Wake up, Bill, he ain't running for no judgeship.

Mr. Wilson underestimated the suffragists; but it appears they have him sized up properly.

Ill fares the land where public office is bought and the people are sold.

The high fragmentation of those Hughes bombs is causing consternation in the Wilson trenches.

Bainbridge Colby is almost as violent in his criticism of Mr. Hughes as he was in condemnation of Mr. Wilson's position on Panama tolls two years ago.

Of course President Wilson has a perfect right to change his mind as often as he pleases, but that is quite different from repudiating distinct promises made to get votes. If the pledges on which he rode into the White House have proved worthless because he changed his mind, what faith is to be put in the pledges he is now making in his appeal for re-election?

MOTHERHOOD.

Socially the mother is the basis of racial progress. Ethically enlightened motherhood is the strongest force in the world. Intelligent mother love can alone bring about the inculcation of higher ideals of citizenship and social obligations.

Economy.

"What are you doing, Billy?" asked Mrs. Nannie Goat of her son.

"Practicing economy, maw," replied Billy, who was chewing on an old umbrella. "I'm putting away something for a rainy day."—Indianapolis Star.

IS IT YOUR KIDNEYS?

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is where the danger often lies. You should realize that these troubles often lead to dropsy or Bright's disease. An effective remedy for weak or diseased kidneys is Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of this vicinity are constantly testifying.

O. S. Clark, retired farmer, 719 Ugle Ave., Dallas, Ore., says: "My back got so stiff and lame that I could hardly move. I also had attacks of lumbago that pulled me to the ground and I was unable to get up on account of the awful pain in my back. My kidneys were very irregular in action. I finally began taking Doan's Kidney Pills and they certainly did good work. Of late years, my back has given me very little trouble and my kidneys have been in good condition."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Clark had. Foster-Milburn Co., Prop., Buffalo, N. Y.
