MORAL COURAGE.

Religion gives a man the higher moral courage which can look danger in the face unawed and undismayed; the courage that can encounter loss of ease, of wealth, of friends, of his own good name; the courage that can face a world full of howling and scorn—aye, of loathing and hate; can see all this with a smile and, suffering it all, can yet toil on, conscious of the result, yet fearless still.—Theodore Parker.

The Dover strait is only twenty-one miles wide at Calais, which city has been connected with Dover by cable since 1851.

He Lumped It.

"My coffee is not quite sweet enough," remarked he.
"Well, if you don't like it I suppose you'll have to lump it," said she, with a smile, passing the loaf sugar his way.

Happy Hollow

John Rabens of Union Hill Theodore Fisher of Victor Point and Jasper Phillips of this place, killed a black bear a short distance above Kelly's saw mill last Sunday.

W. S. Mitchell, a one time resident of Happy Hollow, was visiting friends and acquaintances here last week. Mr. Mitchell is eighty six years old and quite capable of traveling alone, as he made the trip from his home in Salem to our neighborhood unattended.

Nearly all our young folks and some of the older ones have been away in the hop yards, but are returning now.

Jack Richards of Mehama, is hauling lumber from Kelly's mill

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. English and William English are enjoying an outing on their Allen Prairie ranch near Silver Falls.

The clover hoppers are busy now finishing up the harvest.

From the seeds of the castor oil plant a German chemist has extracted what is said to be the most powerful poison known.

Inspiring Him.

"Now, son, take this message quickly, will you?"
"Sure, boss," said the messenger boy.
"Just imagine you are a dauntless hero on the villain's trail."—Pittsburgh Post.

Lyons and Fox Valley

Threshing in Fox Valley is about done, and the farmers very glad that the grain is safe.

Mrs. Woodworth and family returned from the hop yard Sunday evening, and report the picking good and the hops in good condition.

Mrs. has gone to Horse Bros. yard to pick hops.

The Fox Valley school commences next Monday. Miss Alta Brown is teacher.

Lyons school will commence on Monday, Sept. 25. I. V. Kane is principal, and Miss White will teach the primary.

The new school house is progressing nicely, but school will begin in the old building.

Everyone is picking the Evergreen blackberry. Funny how the despised Evergreen should of some use to the farmer.

(Too late for last week)

Mrs. Dick Brown and daughter Agnes were Stayton visitors Tuesday.

Early Horse Race Prizes.

Prizes for winners of horse races hundreds of years ago took curious forms. The earliest was the "briglia d'or," or golden bridle. After this the prize in England was a bell. This idea was taken from the custom among owners of pack horses of decorating the best horse, which led the cavalcade, with a bell, so that on dark nights and in dangerous places the whereabouts of the leader might be known and the others follow boldly. At Carlisle silver bells were raced for by the moss troopers and daisies, and specimens of these bells are still retained in the town hall.—St. James' Gazette.

THE KING JUDGE OVERHEARS THE GARDENERS' CONVERSATION

BY HECK, I DON'T HIND GIBBERS CUT GRASS'S ALL DAY IT I HAVE SOME W-B CUT TOBACCO

SAME HERE, IT'S RICH TOBACCO, CUT FINE, SEASONED WITH SALT, SO A LITTLE CHEW SATISFIES

IT MAKES a hard-working man glad to have a dime's worth of W-B CUT Chewing in his pocket. A small chew is going to keep him tobacco contented and happy a long time—and he saves himself the labor of grinding, spitting. It's rich tobacco and pays both ways: finer in flavor—more satisfying and it saves money.

Sheriff's Sale of Real Property on Execution

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That by virtue of an execution duly issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Multnomah, and to me directed on the 30 day of August, 1916 upon a judgment duly rendered, entered of record and docketed in and by said Court on the 14th day of August 1916 in a certain suit then in said Court pending, wherein W. D. Mixer was plaintiff and Hattie E. Bartholomay was defendant in favor of plaintiff and against said defendant by which execution I am commanded to sell the property in said execution and hereinafter described to pay the sum due the plaintiff of $100.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum from the 18th day of November 1915 until paid and the further sum of $25.00, with interest at 6 per cent. from August 14th, 1916 together with the costs and disbursements of said suit taxed at $14.70 and costs and expenses of said execution. I will on Saturday, the 14th day of October, 1916 at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of said day at the west door of the County Court house, in Marion County, Oregon, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand on the day of sale, all the right, title, interest and estate which said defendant Hattie E. Bartholomay and all persons claiming under her subsequent to the date of levy on the hereinafter described land, December 11th, 1915, in, of, and to said premises hereinbefore mentioned and described in said execution as follows, to-wit: An undivided 5-18 interest in the Northwest one fourth (1/4) of Section Twenty (20), Township nine (9) South Range Seven (7) East of Williamette Meridian, in Marion County, Oregon.

Said sale being made subject to redemption in the manner provided by law.
Dated this 7th day of September, 1916.
Wm. Esch,
Sheriff of Marion County, Oregon
By W. I. Needham, Deputy.

Not Rich Enough to Be Rude.
Newspaper readers have all been told that the one requisite for being very much "in society" in New York is to be very rich. And the view finds support. It is said, inside the charmed circle itself. At an evening party with song-birds from the Metropolitan one of the proudest queens left in the middle of the program, says Harper's Magazine. A rival, whose dislike of music was equally genuine, rose to follow her, but was detained by the gentleman by her side.

"No, my dear lady," he said, "you aren't rich enough to leave early. Mrs. A. has ten times your money—it's all right for her—but you must be polite and stay till the end."

That's Enough.

"Mrs. Wiggins says she doesn't believe more than half the gossip she hears about her neighbors."
"Perhaps not, but she always believes the worst half."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.
