THE SCHOOL FAIR WAS VOTED A SUCCESS

The Poultry Exhibits Were Much Larger Than Last Year—Many Good Birds Shown

AWARDS ARE ALL MADE

Prize Money And Other Premiums Are Scattered Among Many Children

The Third Annual School Fair is over and gone, and it is the consensus of opinion that it was the best arranged exhibit that had been put up.

It is true that the hall did not look so crowded with exhibits as last year, but the arrangement was much better, thanks to those who so kindly helped, that more was put in a smaller space, giving more aisle room.

In the poultry and live stock department there was fully 50% more entries than last year, and many new coops had to be built.

Everything was in complete order by one o'clock Friday, and the judging commenced a half hour later.

Mr. Larson of O. A. C., M. Schuff of Stayton and Curtis Cole of Linn county judged the agricultural and live stock exhibits, while Mrs. J. T. Hunt of the Waldo Hills, Mrs. Chas. Loose of West Stayton and Miss Anna Mullen of Stayton judged the cooking, canning and needlework.

The awards in the different classes will be found in another part of The Mail.

While the attendance was good, it was not so large as last year, being about three-hundred adults and perhaps twice that many younger persons.

WELL PLEASED

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Helborn of Iowa, accompanied by J. T. Kearns of this city, who was showing them over the country, visited the School Fair Saturday and were well pleased with the exhibits there. They praised the agricultural and poultry exhibits and say that they may come back to the Willamette Valley to live in the future.

Dr. C. H. and Geo. Brewer motored to Salem Tuesday.

C.O.F. HAS PUBLIC INSTALLATION AND BANQUET

The Catholic Order of Foresters of Stayton and Sublimity held a joint public installation of officers in the I. O. O. F. hall here on Monday night of this week.

There were many visitors from other cities, among whom were Rev. Fr. Moore and Thomas Brown of Salem, Rev. Fr. Dominick of Mt. Angel and Rev. Fr. Linnick of Sublimity. Their remarks were much appreciated by the audience. It is estimated that fully two hundred people from Sublimity, Mt. Angel, Jordan, Lyons and Salem were present.

The officers installed by the Stayton Court were: Geo. Spaniol, Chief Ranger; Chas. Frank, Vice Chief; W. F. Klecker, Speaker; Antone Schindler, Rec. Sec.; Frank Fery, Fin. Sec.; A. Fery, Treas.; Chas. Gehlen, Trustee; D. M. Doll and Will Kerber, Conductors; Joe Spaniol and Frank Kerber, Sentinels.

For Sublimity the following officers were installed: Antone Van Handel, Chief Ranger; F. A. Zimmerman, Past Chief; Conrad Spenner, Vice Chief; F. J. Riesterer, Speaker; Henry Steinkamp, Rec. Sec.; John Zuber, Fin. Sec.; I. J. Boedigheimer, Treas.; August Albus, Trustee; Geo. Sushauer and Michael Benedict, Conductors.

After the business session, the time was pleasantly spent in a splendid banquet provided by the wives and daughters of the Stayton and Sublimity members, and in speeches by the visitors, music etc.

W. F. Klecker was toastmaster for the occasion, and it is stated on good authority that he is one of the best in the country.

The crowd broke up at a late hour, voting that they had had one of the best times of their lives.

CARRANZA (TO UNCLE SAM): "GIDDAP!"

COWBOYS ALL AT THE ALBANY ROUND-UP

"Nero" The Bucking Bull From Klamath Falls Has Never Been Ridden

RUNNING HORSES ARRIVE

Stayton Will Send a Big Delegation To The Western Oregon Round-Up

There is now little doubt left in the minds of the people who have been wondering whether any real cowboys were coming to town for the Round-Up.

Since early Sunday morning cowboys, bucking horses, relay horses, wild steers, bucking bulls and other Round-Up equipment has been coming by the carload.

By dusk Monday night there was 150 Pendleton Round-Up horses in town, 25 head of wild steers, between 50 and 60 cowboys and about 15 cowgirls, 10 Umattilla Indians, 14 relay strings and several special attractions such as bucking bulls and mounts for the trick riders.

Among the biggest features on the program will be Nero, the bucking bull from Klamath Falls. Manager Adams positively guarantees that no one can ride him. They allow the cowboys to use their own saddle and place their saddle wherever they wish. "Nero is the worst bucking bull I have ever heard of," said Mr. Adams Monday. "He has never been ridden and I don't believe he can be. Sharkey, the famous Pendleton bull does not compare with him in any respect. The Pendleton management saddle Sharkey themselves and will not allow any changes to be made. It is impossible to ride him only because the saddle used is too long to allow the rider any kind of a hold.

Bill Wilkeson and his famous bunch of running horses arrived Monday. The number includes "Little Fred" the best known quarter miler in the west.

MAX GEHLHAR WILL WIN OUT EASILY

Notwithstanding the fact that several different stories and falsifications have been told about Max Gehlhar, candidate for District Attorney, the prospect for his election never was brighter.

Below is an extract from the Jefferson Review.

"Political enemies of Capt. Max Gehlhar put up all kinds of jobs on him while he was serving his country down on the border, but it went down to them all good. The people of this county know Max and he has proved that he is the friend of the taxpayer. He has no 'office hours'. He is ever ready for business. He is able, courteous and competent wherever you put him. Why should our people turn down such an official as that? The Review does not believe they will do it."—Jefferson Review—Oct. 6, 1916.

ONE MORE PRINTER GETS MARRIED

Whether it is coincidental, or whether it is just our luck, it seems to be a fact that no sooner do we get a helper in the Mail office she or he immediately make plans to get married.

The latest one to be hit by the small god is Chas. S. Clark, when he hied himself to Portland Monday morning and was united in marriage to Miss Margaret McKenney of near Salem. Charlie expects to be back on the Mail force again the latter part of the week. The young couple will live in the A. W. Cornish house in the north part of town. Here's wishing them many years of happiness and prosperity, and may they never pi a form.

Another celebrity who is here is John Spain one of the best known Pendleton cowboys who brought with him the $500 saddle that he won at Pendleton in 1912. Jim Roach is also here with the saddle that he won for steer roping at the same show.

The officials for the show are as follows: Judges—Dan Clark, Portland; Hugh Cummings and Harry Owens, Corvallis; Timer, Wayne Stuart; Announcer, George Rolfe.

DOLLAR DAY BRINGS BIG CROWD TO CITY

"Dollar Day," together with the School Fair brought the largest crowd to Stayton that has been here for many a day.

It would be hard to guess how many people were on the streets at 2 p. m. Saturday, but the sidewalks were crowded, the stores were full, a large number was at the public sale held by Mrs. Shreve and several hundred visited the fair.

Altogether it was a banner day for Stayton, and will long be remembered as such.

The merchants are well pleased with the result of the "Dollar Day" advertising, and may put on another one in the future.

FACTORY EXPERT OVERLOOKS CARS

Eddie Hurl of Pontiac, Mich. was in our city all day Sunday at the Mielke store overlooking and adjusting the engines etc. of the Oakland cars that Mr. Mielke has sold the past summer. All the Oakland owners in this vicinity were present, and learned much from Mr. Hurl about the working of the interior parts of the Oakland.

This is a great advantage to Oakland owners, as the company expects to send out their special representative once or twice a year for this purpose. All the cars were found to be in fine shape and showed that they had had the best of care.

Mr. Hurl was accompanied by Mr. VanDursell of Portland, general manager of the Oakland cars for Oregon.
