NOW OUT

SOME LITTLE OPPOSITION

Chances For Republicans Landing Every Office Getting Stronger Every Day As Election Nears

Sample ballots are out, and below are given the full list of candidates to be voted for Tuesday, Nov. 7, 1916.

The ballot is headed by the list of candidates for president and vice president with Charles Evans Hughes and Charles Warren Fairbanks, the Republican nominees, at the top of the list. The other candidates are Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall, Demoeratic candidates; J. Frank Hanly and Ira Handrith, prohibition candidates; Allen A Benson and Gaorge R. Kirkpatrick and one lone elector Emmett Callaghan running with John M. Parker as candidate for vice president on the Progressive ticket.

Three candidates are up for congreamen from the first district and all three are Linn county men. W. C. Hawley, the Republican nominee, owns a large farm near Knox Butte and plans to make Albany his home when he retires from congress. He is opposed by Mark V. Weatherford of Albany, Democratic nominee, and W. S. Richards of Albany, Socialist.

Ben W. Olcott, the present secretary of state is up for re-election with the republican.democratic-progressive nomination and is opposed by E. L. Cannon, a Socialist.

Five men are aspiring to positions on the supreme oench. Republican nominees are the two present incumbents, George H. Rurnett and Frank
