

Contry Correspondence From

All Over The Valley

West Stayton

Glenn Porter returned home from Alaska Saturday.

Oliver Forrette was a Salem visitor Thursday.

Mrs. Arthur Forrette and children returned home Sunday evening, after a weeks visit with relatives at Sublimity.

A. H. Wolf and family have moved to the Keene ranch.

Loyd Dively is helping Royal Condit haul wood to Schaff station.

A merry afternoon was passed Thursday when the Ladies Crochet Circle met with Leona Forrette. The afternoon was spent chocheting. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Roxey Gunsauls. The following members were present: Mrs. C. Loose, Mrs. N. Schmitz, Mrs. J. Gunsauls, Mrs. A. Wolf, Mrs. E. Forrette, Mrs. W. Davis and Mrs. Councilman and daughter Wilma.

Mrs. A. Fallrich and sister Thelma Eoff went to Salem Tuesday for a short visit.

Miss Dorothy Ternan drove over from Turner Monday and spent the day with home folks.

Several young folks from here attended the party at Scofield's Friday evening.

Lyons and Fox Valley

Laura Taylor is visiting her aunt, Mrs. David Monröe, she has been very sick but is better now.

Mr. Hardison, the new creamery man, has moved his family to Lyons where they occupy the house vacated by Mr. Swartout. His two oldest daughters, Phillis and Winefred have started to school.

The sewing society met with Mrs. Morris Wednesday afternoon.

Those who attended the party Saturday evening given by Mrs. Morris report a good time.

Preaching by Rev. J. S. Van Winkle next Sunday, Nov. 26, both morning and evening.

The young folks enjoyed a dance in the hall Saturday evening.

Mt. Pleasant

Mrs. Frank Habberman, Will and Marguerite Ryan and Crystal Shank motored to Salem Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Senz and daughter spent Sunday with Joe Pietrok.

W. R. Ray and wife motored to Lebanon Tuesday.

Jungwirth Bros. called at D. Townes' Monday evening.

Mrs. Roxie Shank and daughter Bessie were Sunday visitors at the W. R. Ray home.

Earnest Aegerter called at P. H. Lambert's Sunday.

Mrs. Floyd Shelton called on Mrs. Frank Habberman Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Shank and son and the Misses Grace, Verna and Roxana Shank, Clifford Downing, Earnest Knapp and Melvin Shank were pleasantly entertained at the Ed Smith home Sunday.

Several from this vicinity attended the play at Bilyeu Den

Friday.

Miss Cora Ray of Scio spent the week-end with home folks.

Clarence Dougherty made a pleasant call at the W. R. Ray home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Ryan and children and Frank Habberman and wife were Sunday visitors at John Huber's.

Miss Crystal Shank was a week-end visitor in Salem.

Jordan Jingles

T. H. Thomas was a Stayton visitor Tuesday. Mrs. S. S. Brossart came with him to get some dental work done.

Mr. Woodard took a load of fat hogs to Scio Tuesday.

Cold and frosty on Thomas Greek.

T. H. Thomas and son Clare, visited with Frank Pepperling Sunday.

Miss Lizzie Schwindt fell off the school porch one day last week and sprained her ankle quite severely.

G. H. Ray got a load of cabbage of Geo. Queener the first of the week.

Leo. Rund was in Stayton Tuesday on business.

Geo. Queener made an extended visit at Lacomb last week.

T. H. Thomas brought over a bear hide this week to have it tanned and made into a pair of chaps.

School Notes

The Senior program given on Loud Sock and Middy Day, certainly celebrated the occasion in full.

Paul McClellan has left the Freshman class and has enrolled in the West Stayton High School.

Miss Olive Bassett who was called home by the sudden death of her father, is expected back the middle of the week.

The High School girls held a Sewing Bee at the Peery home on Saturday of last week. This was held in preparation for the Christmas Bazar which they are planning to hold the 9th of Dec. Watch for advertising posters.

Ralph Tate has left the 8th grade on account of illness and will not be able to return this year. He will be greatly missed by both pupils and teacher as he was a diligent student.

The membership in the Sing-Club has already reached twenty but we hope to swell the number. The first meeting was held Monday evening and an enjoyable time was spent. It will continue to meet every Monday night.

The 8th grade is studying statements and accounts. They are using current prices for different articles and each one has chosen a certain trade which they carry out in their work.

Miss Crabtree is reading True Bear Stories of Oregon and Cal. in the early days, to her pupils. These stories were originally told by Jacquin Miller.

New seats have been put in the lunch room and also new waste paper baskets in the various rooms.

The 5th and 6th grades are studying about the pilgrims in connection with their Thanksgiving work.

Gilbert Hamman and Alta

"The Farmer's Store Of Quality"

No Sale Ever Met With Such Tremendous Popularity as A. W. Schrunk's Great Clearance Sale

We advise every schrewd economical house wife and shopper to liberally share in these big bargains :: :: ::

Men's Patent Kid Gun Metal Shoes
REGULAR $5.00 VALUES
at $1.94 a pair

Ladies Kid Patent Gun Metal Blucher
$4.00 VALUES
at $1.98

Ladies Oxfords Lace or Button
VALUES UP TO $3.50
clean-up price 49c

Men's Underwear Shirt and Drawers
NOT ALL SIZES
Clean up prices 38c

Extra Heavy Grey Fleece Lined Union SUITS FOR MEN
at $1.25 a suit

36 in. Plaids, Plain Grey Dress Goods
REGULAR VALUE 50 CENTS
at 20 cents yard

Men's Best Blue Chambray Work Shirt
REGULAR 55 CENT
for 39 cents

Slip on Rain Coats for Men, Best Value
EVER OFFERED at $1.98 each

New Fruit and Work BASKETS REAL JAPANESE WORK
From 15c to $1.50
These are the Greatest Values EVER OFFERED

Look, Look, Look, Look

Are you interested? We have A No. 1 Vetch Seed, Extra Special at 2 3-4c a pound

NO TROUBLE TO SHOW GOODS AT A. W. Schrunk's Aumsville, Ore.

NOTICE—We wish to inform our German friends and all patrons that we have employed a thoroughly experienced salesman from Portland to remain with us permanently.
He Speaks German—Hier Wird Deutsch Gesprochen

The Best For Less

Good Goods

Meyers were absent from Miss Marshall's room.

Mrs. Pancoast and Mrs. Caspell visited the 5th and 6th grades one day last week.

Silver Creek Falls

Jim Vangorder has returned home for a short visit with home folks. He expects to leave soon for Powers Ore.

Supervisor J. E. Kimsey with helpers is building a new bridge across South Silver Creek. It will be a great improvement to the town.

Albert Rabens has purchased a new Ford runabout. On account of the bad roads he is unable to bring it home.

Fritz Koener made a trip to Sublimity Friday.

Miss Miles is working at the the Adolph Heater home.

Martin Peterson left Thursday for Woodburn where he expects to spend the winter.

Maude Sargent the Hullt school teacher, visited with her folks at Silverton over the week-end.

Luther Myers, who has been working in Salem the past three years, returned to his home here for the winter.

A party was given at the Albert Rabens home Wednesday evening, Nov. 15, in honor of his niece, Miss Dora Rabens of Union Hill. The evening was spent in playing games, and at 12 o'clock a dainty lunch was served. All report an enjoyable time.

S. W. Milligan and son, Dell, have taken a contract of clearing land of Jno. Porter near Silverton.

Mrs. John Peterson visited Mrs. John Kimsey Friday.

Frances Coberly spent the latter part of last week with Shella Neal.

Miss Maude Sargent, the Hullt teacher, and Miss Mary Hostetler the Havernick teacher, will give a joint program at Hullt school house, Wed. eve, Nov. 29. Every girl is expected to bring a basket which will be sold after the entertainment.

Eling Peterson, who has been very sick, is slowly improving.

Union Hill

Mrs. Arthur Branch and children were week-end visitors at the Chas. Peters home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones of Victor Point spent Saturday night and Sunday at Geo. Scott's.

Mrs. Walter Heater entertained the Walluga Club Thursday afternoon. She notified all the ladies to bring their thimbles, and to their great surprise, the sewing bee turned out to be a bean shelling. Talk of fun and merriment! Everyone enjoyed themselves immensely. The hostess served whipped cream with peaches and cake as refreshments. There were five visitors and eleven club members present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Carter gave their wedding party to the entire neighborhood Saturday night. There were amusements for all, both young and old, with a bounteous supper served at the proper time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stevely spent Sunday at the N. Geymer home in Linn County.

Mrs. W. E. Tate and sons, Clifford and Asabel and daughter, Edith, were visiting at the W. D. Hurt home Sunday.

Mrs. Elwin Carter and baby, Lyal have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Burnett the past week.

Rock Point

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frank and children motored to Salem Saturday.

Miss Laura Rand and Helen and Myrtle Frank were Stayton callers Saturday afternoon.

Jacob Spaniol of Stayton was helping E. C. Downing install his milking machine Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dare Sloper called at the Albert Frank home Sunday.

C. J. Hunt has been busy moving his household goods this week.

Rock Point School Notes

Supervisor Smith spent all of Monday afternoon with our school and brought to our notice many helpful suggestions. We are anxiously awaiting his next visit when he will appoint our school health officer and leave the promised official star.

The attendance has been excellent during the past four weeks and with so many scholars enrolled we feel quite proud of our record.

A gymnasium class for the older girls has been organized, and they seem very much interested in this work. It meets Friday afternoon.

The primary grades have just finished making Thanksgiving place cards for the children of the Portland Boys' and Girls' Aid Society. We also expect to contribute fruit and vegetables to these little people.

In correlating work for Thanksgiving, the 7th grade is studying "The Courtship of Miles Standish" and find the story helps them to better understand the history of our Puritan ancestors.