The New York authorities have figured that it takes 34 cents a day to keep a man alive in that city, and 27 cents to do the same thing for a woman! We always thought it would figure out the other way, but then perhaps women do not drink so many Manhattan cocktails as the men.

The story is going the rounds that a California man bit into a plug of tobacco recently and found a diamond engagement ring, lost by a Louisville, Ky. workgirl. They must be flying high back in old Louisville when the workgirls all wear diamond rings. This story sort of balances the one of the fellow who bit into a plug of tobacco and found—a dead mouse.

The Turner Tribune editor seems to have it in for Stayton. He says in last week's issue "that a bottle was found in the canal at Stayton, supposed to have come out of the Santiam." All a mistake Brother Hassler, about where the bottle came from. Upon close scrutiny it was found the "dead soldier" to be the same brand that the Tribune Editor used while a resident of Stayton.

The Road to Fame.

William Dean Howells was talking once about a writer who, after a good beginning, had degenerated into a producer of trash.

"I suppose," said Mr. Howells, "he got discouraged with the moderate sale of his good work and now hopes to sell his poor work abundantly."

Mr. Howells shook his head, smiled grimly and went on:

"The road to fame is crowded with men who, discouraged, are hurrying back."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

No Insects There.

The local bigwig's presence in the chair at an entertainment was desired, and two of the organizers waited upon him with a deferential request. The required promise was duly obtained.

"You may rely upon me," said the big man, "Friday, the 25th, in the parish room. It's quite an unsectarian affair, I suppose?"

"Bless your 'eart, sir," came the reply. "The place was only lime washed last week. You won't find nothing of the kind on the premises."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Ancient Dolls.

Among ancient races the doll was taken very seriously and served a higher purpose than to amuse a child. That wax dolls were made and were used in magic rites 200 years ago and more before Christ we know, because Theocritus mentions them and because he uses a Thessalian word, dagys, to describe them, the inference is that they were known in Thessaly. But when they were first made of wax and when wax dolls were first used as playthings there is nothing to show.—London Chronicle.

Breaking the Sabbath.

Two Scots, one old and the other young, set out one bright winter Sunday morning to walk ten miles to kirk. The sun shone gloriously. The frozen road rang under their feet. The cold, pure air was exhilarating. The younger Scot looked up at the glittering blue sky and said:

"It's a fine day."
The older man frowned and answered:
"Aye, it is a fine day, but is this a day to be talking about days?"

OREGON INDUSTRIAL REVIEW

New Industries, New Investments Of Capital and Many Payrolls Add to State's Wealth

Eugene, Belfast linen manufacturer says flax raising is ideal industry for Oregon.

Portland, William Cornfoot has contracts for construction of two steel steamers of 3300 tons capacity secured through A. O. Anderson & Co.

Malheur Enterprise, What's foolishness? We don't know for certain, but it seems NOT to be foolish to ask capitalists to come to our county and look it over and to assure them fair treatment should they like the country.

Why should not the institutions of higher learning supplement the course in political economy with one in rigid economy?—EX.

Baker, Million dollar gold strike reported in Harrison mine.

Hillsboro, 26 out of 30 road districts have increased levies.

Eugene, Booth Kelly Co. lets contract for 7,000,000 feet of logs.

Paisley, School board lets contract for $26,000 school.

Reports say that Newport will have sardine cannery.

Heavier loading of equipment to relieve the freight shortage is urged as one of the most effective methods of relief by the Pacific Fruit Express Co.

Fix the state constitution so it will not be a toy to be played with by people who have pretty ideas and want to see how they will work.

Oregon City contributes $8,000 toward $16,000 armory.

Pendleton, Banker rents 3 sections land at 14 dollars an acre.

Portland, Union Pacific lines in Oregon grant wage increase.

Klamath Falls, Work on California, Oregon and Eastern to start early in the spring.

Cottage Grove Leader, The initiative can no longer be used to put over harmful measures of any kind. To the newspapers belongs the larger part of the credit for waking up the voters to the necessity of voting upon the amendments intelligently.

The election is over and people feel relieved. They hope that the successful politicians in either party will make it their business to encourage industry and the investment of capital.

Coquille, Oregon Power Co. to build power line from Marshfield to cost $16,000.

Hides that sold in Chicago in Sept. for 22c now sell for 32c.

Nysa will have a flouring mill in the near future.

Ashland voted down two charter amendments increasing taxes.

Burns to Crane railroad to be built by local company.

Bullards, New equipment installed in Eagle Coal Mine near here and to be operated soon.

Redmond, Standard Oil Co. will build service station here.

Orgeon City taxpayers cut the budget down to the 1917 income.

Blachley to erect a large union graded school.

Portland, Laurelhurst to have 40,000 dollar club house.

It will take something besides "industrial center" real estate deals to establish industries in Oregon. There must be a let up in laws that cripple industries.

Congress will soon have another chance to enact workable legislation for the development of our waterpowers.

Milldale will get a flouring mill of 25-barrel a day capacity.

Portland, First piling driven on million dollar postoffice.

Dallas has reduced tax levy 4.4 mills below last year.

Eugene, Timber Co. to build logging road on Suislaw.

McMinnville product firms are promoting fruit cannery.

Sheridan backing movement for $30,000 hard surface road.

Albany Democrat tells of growth of peppermint raising in Linn county and describes this new industry for farmers of the valley as becoming very valuable. The article says that Albany is likely to become the peppermint center of the world.

Oregon speakership fight raises issue of tax reduction and more factories.

YOURSELF.

The fate of the country does not depend on what kind of paper you drop into the ballot box once a year, but it does depend on what kind of man you drop from your chamber into the street every morning.—Henry David Thoreau.

Trembling Leaves.

Leaves of the manna palm, probably the commonest forest plant in Central America, have a queer habit of trembling violently when no wind is stirring that the human faculties can detect.

Botany and Business.
Alice—Why are you taking up botany? Kitty—Because my fiance is interested in a plant of some kind and I want to be able to converse intelligently with him about his business.—Brooklyn Citizen.

No Doubt About It.
"Say, waiter, are you sure this is wild duck you have served me?"
"Oh, yes, sir; so wild that we had to chase it round the back yard fifteen minutes before we could catch it."—Boston Transcript.

New South Wales devotes 5,138,000 acres to wheat growing.
The art of candy making originated with the Chinese long ago.

YOUR OWN ACTS.

How much trouble he avoids who does not look to see what his neighbor says or does or thinks, but only to what he does himself, that it may be just and pure.—Marcus Aurelius.

A Kindly Deed.

"Henry, a poor tramp came to the house this morning with his toes sticking out of his tattered shoes, so I gave him"—

"The only extra pair of shoes I had to my name, and they were as good as new. Woman!"

"Softly, softly, Henry. Don't lose your temper. Let me finish what I was going to say. I gave him a little box of foot powder, and he said he would never forget my kindness."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Just Like Home Folks.

"Have a good time on your trip to New York?"

"Yes, but that town has been greatly overadvertised."

"In what way?"
"Well, I stopped with friends in one of the residential districts and most of the people there actually went to bed at 10 o'clock every night."—Detroit Free Press.

"That girl made $10,000 in letters."
"She doesn't look like she can write."
"Neither can she. She got it from the letters in her branch of promise suit."—Baltimore American.

BID YOU KNOW IT FROM THE GOOD JUDGE'S LOOK?

HERE, JUDGE, YOU SET MY FRIEND RIGHT. ISN'T THAT AS LARGE A CHEW AS YOU EVER TAKE?

I DIDN'T KNOW THE JUDGE EVER CHEWED

THAT'S JUST IT—WHenever WITHOUT IT, BUT YOU NEVER NOTICE IT—PURE TOBACCO AND A SMALL CHEW!

IT seems as though most men had just been waiting and waiting for W-B CUT Chewing. Naturally it should be that way. Tobacco satisfaction and not a big chew is what tobacco lovers want. You couldn't get it the old way—cheap tobacco and excess sweetening. But rich tobacco, shredded, lightly salted, that's what makes tobacco satisfaction—that's why W-B CUT is winning all this popularity.
