I felt weak and tired all over and it was all I could do to keep going. My kidneys acted irregularly and at times, inflammation of the bladder caused me a great deal of misery. Since using several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, I have had but very little trouble with my kidneys.

CARE OF THE MOUTH DURING PREGNANCY

In this age of great scientific discovery some of the most wonderful are those pertaining to the advance of health and prolongation of life. The advent of these discoveries have cleared away certain superstitions that existed in regard to the dental care of prospective mothers. The only danger women need fear from dental work is a shock so great that it will produce abortion. This danger is so remote that we can say it need not exist if the dentist knows of the woman's condition, for he will not undertake long and painful operations. On the contrary where the mouth is neglected the shock from prolonged toothache or the poison absorbed from an abscessed tooth may be severe enough to cause such abortion. Even if this serious condition does not follow the suffering caused from the neglected mouth, the indigestion, the toothache or the effects of absorbed pus must surely lower the vitality of the developing fetus.

If there is nausea during the first three months the mouth generally begins to show the effects. The teeth and tongue are badly coated; the saliva is acid and ropy; cavities begin to form soon if a visit is not made to the dentist. The woman may suffer days and night from the abscesses around her teeth. If these abscesses are neglected the pus is absorbed into the circulation. This poison may be so excessive that the fetus cannot survive. Such cases are on record.

The pregnant woman can be saved much pain and destruction of her teeth if she begins to care for them as soon as conception is known.

Remember the dentist must be told of the woman's condition before the work is begun.

Stayton, Ore.
